Non-Territorial Autonomy and Decentralization Tove H. Malloy, Levente Salat, 2020-10-15 This volume describes and analyzes alternative and emerging models of non territorial autonomy NTA particularly in relation to decentralization The authors push the NTA debate in new directions by offering a re conceptualization based on ethno cultural bottom up decentralized action that redefines autonomy into its true sense of autonomous action Through description critical analysis and evaluation of several case studies this book assesses the potential for new paradigms within decentralized systems The authors explore two approaches to political decentralization which add to the theoretical debate on NTA network governance which focuses on new dynamics in policy processes and normative pluralism which focuses on accommodating the distinctness of the groups through the subsidiarity principle with regard to their own affairs The book explores the potential ramifications of ethno cultural NTA institutions acting within the wider framework of state institutions and assesses the functions of these institutions as another dimension of decentralization and thus another layer of democracy With contemporary examples from Europe the Middle East Asia and South Africa as well as theoretical aspects of the conceptualization of autonomy this book offers a truly global perspective It will be of great interest to policy makers in countries experiencing adverse developments due to the pressure on public management as well as advanced students and scholars questioning the ability of the Westphalian system to address cultural diversity Adult Education Peers F. Robert, 2013-08-21 This is Volume II of twenty eight in a series on the Sociology of Education Originally published in 1958 this is a comparative study of adult education in that starts with a historical review of the provision in England before 1850

between the Wars and beyond as well as delving into the characterises and personality of the adult student The author s travels to the United States Germany the West Indies Australia the Middle East Scandinavia India China and East Africa extends the study with examples of these countries and systems All of which has convinced the author that educational problems for the future must be regarded as world problems and this applies in particular to the problems of adult education It is in this latter field that we have most to learn from each other and in the process most to contribute to international understanding
