Reading Like a Girl Sara K. Day, 2013-06-03 By examining the novels of critically and commercially successful authors such as Sarah Dessen Someone Like You Stephenie Meyer the Twilight series and Laurie R. King Speak Reading Like a Girl Narrative Intimacy in Contemporary American Young Adult Literature explores the use of narrative intimacy as a means of reflecting and reinforcing larger often contradictory cultural expectations regarding adolescent women interpersonal relationships and intimacy Reading Like a Girl explains the construction of narrator reader relationships in recent American novels written about adolescent women and marketed to adolescent women Sara K Day explains though that such levels of imagined friendship lead to contradictory cultural expectations for the young women so deeply obsessed with reading these novels Day coins the term narrative intimacy to refer to the implicit relationship between narrator and reader that depends on an imaginary disclosure and trust between the story's narrator and the reader Through critical examination the inherent contradictions between this enclosed imagined relationship and the real expectations for adolescent women's relations prove to be problematic In many novels for young women adolescent female narrators construct conceptions of the adolescent woman reader constructions that allow the narrator to understand the reader as a confidant a safe and appropriate location for disclosure At the same time such novels offer frequent warnings against the sort of unfettered confession the narrators perform Friendships are marked as potential sites of betrayal and rejection Romantic relationships are presented as inherently threatening to physical and emotional health And so the narrator turns to the reader for an ally who cannot judge The reader in turn may come to depend upon narrative intimacy in order to vicariously explore her own understanding of human expression and bonds Reading Success, Grade 5, 2008-08-26 Provide focused practice for fifth graders in areas such as comprehension vocabulary language and reasoning Grade appropriate flash cards completion chart and skills matrix are also provided Meets NCTE standards Story Hour Readers — Book Three Ida Coe, Alice Christie Dillon, 2019-11-22 Diving into the heart of children's literature Story Hour Readers Book Three is a compelling anthology that captures the essence of imaginative storytelling Featuring a wide range of literary styles this collection transcends conventional narratives by weaving tales that spark curiosity and wonder With thematic nuances ranging from the joyous to the instructional these narratives blend beautifully to highlight the universal experiences of youth and learning Notable selections within this volume offer profound insights each contributing to the rich tapestry that celebrates the joy of reading and the transformative power of stories The anthology is the work of Ida Coe and Alice Christie Dillon whose editorial vision stitches together a diverse array of voices that draw upon an extensive tradition of children's literature Through their careful curation this volume not only entertains but also educates aligning itself with early 20th century pedagogical movements in literacy and child development Their collective expertise ensures that each narrative becomes a gateway to new worlds fostering an appreciation for varied cultural and literary influences within the genre Their work continues to resonate encouraging young minds to explore question and imagine Story Hour Readers Book Three is a must read for educators students and enthusiasts of children s literature This collection offers readers a unique opportunity to delve into an anthology that traverses time and culture linking past traditions with modern pedagogical insights It promises an educational journey through a medley of perspectives and styles inciting a conversation that extends beyond the printed page Immerse yourself in this treasury of tales where each story stands as a testament to the transformative power of storytelling knowledge and imagination
