Girl Wars Cheryl Dellasega, Charisse Nixon, 2007-11-01 The only book with a program that is proven to solve the problem of female bullying a controversial issue first exposed in the bestselling Reviving Ophelia. Stop the Hurting Mary Pipher's bestselling Reviving Ophelia triggered widespread interest in the culture of preteen and teenage girls and the seeming epidemic of relational aggression bullying among them. Gossip teasing forming cliques and other cruel behaviors are the basis of this bullying which harms both victim and aggressor. Until now no one has been able to offer practical and effective solutions that stop girls from hurting each other with words and actions. But in Girl Wars two experts explain not only how to prevent such behavior but also how to intervene should it happen as well as overcome the culture that breeds it. Illustrated by compelling true stories from mothers and girls the authors offer effective easy to implement strategies that range from preventive to prescriptive such as how to Adopt a help don't hurt strategy. Provide positive role models. Teach communication skills online and off. Stress assertiveness not aggressiveness. Learn conflict resolution skills. Identify alternatives to bullying behavior. With their combined experience in offering and evaluating programs that combat bullying the authors show that girls not only want to help rather than hurt each other they can do so with guidance from concerned adults. Owning Up Curriculum Rosalind Wiseman, 2009 Separate sessions for girls and for boys combine group discussions games role playing and other activities to engage students in understanding the complexities of adolescent social culture. Students learn to recognize that they have a responsibility to treat themselves and others with dignity and to speak out against social cruelty and injustice. A CD of reproducible program forms and student handouts is included with the curriculum. From publisher description.
