

Give Me a Clue Game Instructions

You will need:

- headbands template
- picture cards
- glue/tape
- scissors
- booklet

How to play

This game is perfect for developing learners' inference skills. One learner must wear a picture card on their head and try to guess what it is as if their partners will be based on the clues provided by their peers.

1. Cut out the headbands template and glue/tape the ends together to make a headband.
2. Cut out the picture cards and shuffle them into a random order, putting them in a booklet.
3. Ask one learner to pick a picture card and place on a headband for the first player to wear. The player must not see the card.
4. The player who will be guessing can now feel the headband on.
5. Those without the headband on must provide the player with clues about the picture card.
6. When the player guesses correctly, the headband and a new card can be given to a new player.
