Contemporary Literature from Northeast India Amit Baishya, 2018-10-03 The Northeast Indian borderlands a cultural crossroads between South Southeast and East Asia constitute an important post colonial exception to the narratives of nation troubling the common perception of India as an ostensibly liberal regime This book is the first to consider the representations of the effects of political terror and survival in contemporary literature from Northeast India Fictions from this polyglot region offer alternative representations that show the post colonial nation state to engage in acts of aggression that parallel colonial regimes The militarization of everyday life and the subsequent growth of cultures of impunity has left a lasting impact on ordinary existence in this border zone Like in the much more widely discussed case of Kashmir the governance of the Northeast region is not characterized so much by the management of life the domain of what Michel Foucault calls biopolitics but rather around the preponderance and distribution of death what the postcolonial critic Achille Mbembe calls necropolitics Not surprisingly along with Mbembe s theorizations the influential works of the Italian philosopher Giorgio Agamben on bare life have provided fruitful pathways to a study of the sovereign politics of death and political terror in this region The author draws upon the conceptual literature on political terror and sovereign power through a reading of Anglophone fictions alongside Assamese fictional narratives all published after 1990 but shifts the onus from the why of violence to the how of lived experience An original study of contemporary survivalist fictions that explores survival under conditions of civil and military threat this book is a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary global literature focusing on cartographies of death and sovereign terror and postcolonial literature
