

The Pleasure Of Plains, A Chinese Poem Of Li Shangyin In Translation

I feel queasy when evening comes I drive my carriage on ancient roads in plains and love to watch the sunset, so beautiful But it goes down only when the dust

clouds are in the air.

-rendered from the web pages:

Toward evening thought not well Drive carriage ascend old plain Sunset sun without limit good Only be near yellow dusk

Giving People Poems Asian Poetry In Translation:

Giving People Poems 人間詩集, 2005 Poetry Asian American Studies Translated from the Japanese by William I Elliott and Kawamura Kazuo In Japan where even the imperial couple are required to turn off poems as part of their official functions it is not surprising that there is a long tradition of purely perfunctory poetry Nonetheless Japan's most popular living poet Tanikawa Shuntaro has always been known for upsetting the apple carts of Japan's formulaic society Here he does it again sacralizing poetry in its purely perfunctory forms as a gift that may be appropriate for any occasion Lifting occasional poetry to a higher plane here are poems about hunger and books the recently constructed longest bridge in Japan cherry blossoms two dead friends Mozart and weeds making love to various women various observations on cats and diving into a swimming pool to wash off the lies of the world

Translation and Global Asia Uganda Sze-pui Kwan, Lawrence Wang-chi Wong, 2014-12-15 The present volume originates from The Fourth Asian Translation Traditions Conference held in Hong Kong in December 2010 The conference generated stimulating discussions relating to the richness and diversity of nonWestern discourses and practices of translation focusing on translational exchanges between nonWestern languages and the change and continuity in Asian translation traditions Translation and Global Asia shows a rich diversification of historical and geographical interests and covers a broad array of topics ranging from nineteenth century Buddhist translation in Tibet to twenty-first century political translation in Malaysia This collection is strikingly rich Its authors deal with a wide range of topics in geographically diverse locations from India Thailand Japan Korea and the Philippines to different parts of China They evoke different linguistic and historical contexts from ancient times right up to the contemporary period and take a variety of approaches strongly supported by current theories in translation and cultural studies Presenting vital case studies this essential volume illustrates the importance of examining translation from a historical perspective of taking account of power relations and of studying the unique role of translators in initiating change and transmitting new ideas

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata, 2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore

Translatology, Translation and Interpretation - Toward a New Scientific Endeavor Noury Bakrim,2024-02-07 This book brings together scholarly contributions to question model and reshape translatology as the scientific discipline studying language translation The chapters emphasize the hypothesis of a real domain of observability and objectivity through experimental and applied perspectives The authors offer a balanced view of adequacy and coherence between the empirical and theoretical components of the book The chapters include a good deal of individual language data from both source and target approaches with a focus on typologically and culturally diverse spaces such as the African context Domains of inquiry such as terminology and the cognitive dimension of the process exemplify the ability to create a dialogue between multidisciplinary intersections and translatological attempts of laws and generalizations

Receptions of Greek and Roman Antiquity in East Asia ,2019-01-04 Receptions of Greek and Roman Antiquity in East Asia is an interdisciplinary collaborative and global effort to examine the receptions of the Western Classical tradition in a cross cultural context The inclusion of modern East Asia in Classical reception studies not only allows scholars in the field to expand the scope of their scholarly inquiries but will also become a vital step toward transcending the meaning of Greco Roman tradition into a common legacy for all of human society

Producing China in Southeast Asia Chih-yu Shih, 2017-03-21 This book presents studies on Chinese intellectuals in Southeast Asia and how they understand China and Chineseness in the 21st century It posits through analyses of works and oral histories of a number of Chinese scholars in the region that the dominant but distinctive approaches adopted by them are those that are rooted in humanism and pragmatism In doing so the book explores the significant population local conditions and strategy of survival among the Southeast Asian Chinese as factors that influence their views and perspectives Studies presented in the book simultaneously implicate subjectivity where authors and their readers position themselves among ethnic national and civilizational identities It highlights that while national level identity necessarily involves dangerous self interrogation and at times politics that is often suppressive and confrontational intellectual writings on China that stick to the ethnic and civilizational levels provide more sensible exits With that the book then goes on to make the argument that in Southeast Asian Chinese studies the humanities usually prevail over the social sciences at these two alternative levels Lastly the book also shows how the humanities can be instrumental to Southeast Asian Chinese scholars choice of identity strategy which makes pragmatism an important theme The book will be of interest to students and researchers involved in Southeast Asian and Chinese studies Indian Traces in Korean Culture Renata

Czekalska, 2024-10-24 Indian traces in Korean Culture examines the enduring cross cultural discourse between India and Korea over the centuries emphasizing the transformative power of cultural exchange beyond geographical and temporal constraints The book analyses how symbols transcend sensory realms and embody spiritual content and suggests that Indian associations in Korean culture reflect a hybridized nature seamlessly blending cultural elements The author presents various facets of the cultural exchange between India and Korea covering Princess Hwang ok s legendary Indian origins shaping Korean identity Ily n s strategic documentation of Buddhism s transmission the influence of Indian figures such as Gandhi and Tagore an exploration of literature from ancient Buddhist verse to modern poets like Kim Yang shik and Shiva Ryu and a study of cultural exchange in K pop Facilitating a possible alternative to Huntington s theory of the clash of civilisations this book provides evidence that the multifaceted encounters between cultures are a historical process that co shapes civilisational change on a global scale The first monograph solely dedicated to India Korea cultural connection from antiquity to the present this book offers a paradigm shift inviting readers to explore fresh insights and reshape their understanding of cultural exchanges It will be of interest to researchers in intercultural communication Cultural Studies Cultural History and Asian Studies in particular Korea and India Chapters 1 and 5 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

English Translations from Ancient and Modern Poems, 1810 Cathay Ezra Pound, 2018-12-04 Finalist Pegasus Award for Poetry Criticism Ezra Pound s Cathay 1915 is a masterpiece both of modernism and of world literature The muscular precision of images that mark Pound s translations helped establish a modern style for American literature at the same time creating a thirst for classical Chinese poetry in English Pound s dynamic free verse translations in a modern idiom formed the basis for T S Eliot s famous claim that Pound was the inventor of Chinese poetry for our time Yet Pound achieved this feat without knowing any Chinese relying instead on word for word cribs left by the Orientalist Ernest Fenollosa whose notebooks reveal a remarkable story of sustained cultural exchange This fully annotated critical edition focuses on Pound s astonishing translations without forgetting that the original Chinese poems are masterpieces in their own right On the one hand the presentation of all that went into the final Cathay makes it possible for the first time to appreciate the magnitude and the nuances of Pound s poetic art At the same time by bringing the final text together with the Chinese and Old English poems it claims to translate as well as the manuscript traces of Pound s Japanese and American interlocutors the volume also recovers practices of poetic circulation resituating a Modernist classic as a work of world literature The Pound text and its intertexts are presented with care clarity and visual elegance By providing the first accurate and unabridged transcriptions of Fenollosa s notebooks along with carefully edited Chinese texts the volume makes it possible to trace the movements of poetic ideas and poetic expression as they veer toward and away from Pound s creations In supplying the full Fenollosa texts the volume overturns decades of scholarship that has mystified Pound s translation process as a kind of clairvoyance displaying instead the impressive amount of sinological learning preserved in Fenollosa s hard to read notebooks and by detailing every deviation from the probable sense of the originals The edition also supplies exhaustive historical critical and textual notes clarifying points that have sometimes lent obscurity to Pound s poems and making the process of translation visible even for readers with no knowledge of Chinese Cathay A Critical Edition includes the original fourteen Chinese translations as well as Pound s unique version of The Seafarer which is fully annotated alongside its Anglo Saxon source Also included are Pound s fifteen additional Chinese translations from Lustra and other contemporary publications his essay Chinese Poetry 1919 a substantial textual Introduction and original essays by Christopher Bush and Haun Saussy on international modernism the mediation of Japan and translation The meticulous treatment and analysis of the texts for this landmark edition will forever change how readers view Pound's Chinese poems In addition to discoveries that permanently alter the scholarly record and force us to revise a number of critical commonplaces the critical apparatus allows readers to make fresh discoveries by making available the specific networks through which poetic expression moved among hands languages and media Ultimately this edition not only enables us more fully to appreciate a canonical work of Modernism but also resituates the art of Pound's translations by recovering the historical circulations that went into the making of a multiply authored and intrinsically hybrid masterpiece

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation
