Gizelle Save The Children:

"Gizelle, Save the Children!" Gizelle Hersh, Peggy Mann, 1980 Gizelle Hersh inspired by her mother's parting words attempts to save her three younger sisters and a brother from death in the Auschwitz concentration camp at the close of World War II Proclaiming Raoul Wallenberg to be an Honorary Citizen of the United States United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, 1981 A Nightmare in History Miriam Chaikin, 1987 Traces the history of anti-Semitism from biblical times through the twelve years of the Nazi era 1933-1945 and describes Hitler's plans to annihilate European Jews by focusing on the Warsaw Ghetto and the Auschwitz Birkenau concentration camps Also discusses the continuing effort to remember the horrors of the Holocaust A Novice's Guide through the Jewish Holidays Rabbi Helene Weintraub Averbach, 2014 A Novice's Guide Through the Jewish Holidays explores the traditions historical events along with Hebrew blessings in transliteration of the holidays for all people of diverse faiths and learning skills The book engages and encourages the reader to become comfortable practicing the observances of the holidays This guide will inspire and enlighten multi-generational and interfaith families to learn together There are recipes and decorations to enhance the richness and beauty of each holiday The special gift of this book is to bring a better understanding of the Jewish people's rich heritage May your thirst for knowledge never be quenched Children with a Star Deborah Dwork, 1991-01-01 The book is based on hundreds of oral histories conducted in Europe and North America with survivors who were children in the Holocaust primary documentation uncovered by the author including diaries letters photographs and family albums and archival records Drawing on these sources Dwork reveals the feeling daily activities and perceptions of Jewish children who lived and died in the shadow of Holocaust She reconstructs and analyzes the many different experiences the children faced In the early years of Nazi domination they lived at home increasingly oppressed by rising anti-Semitism Later some went into hiding while others attempted to live openly on gentile papers As time passed more and more were forced into transit camps ghettos and death and slave labour camps Although nearly 90 percent of the Jewish children in Nazi Europe were murdered we learn in this history not of their deaths but of the circumstances of their lives Writing and Rewriting the Holocaust James Edward Young, 1988-10-22 A carefully prepared historiographical work interprets the meaning of Holocaust literature as it examines the perpetuation of Holocaust memory and understanding in several forms of media studied Includes an extensive bibliography of works Holocaust Persecution Wendy Koenig, Nancy Rupprecht, Nancy E. Rupprecht, 2020-06-01 This anthology of selected thematic articles is a unique approach to Holocaust Studies because it focuses on the responses to and consequences of Holocaust persecution rather than on the fact of it After a brief overview of the Holocaust itself the book is divided into two sections Responses to Holocaust Persecution and Consequences of Holocaust Persecution Each section of the book begins with a scholarly essay by an internationally recognized scholar Robert Satloff Executive Director of the Washington Institute for Near East Policy and author of Among the Righteous Lost Stories of the Holocaust's Long Reach Into Arab Lands contributes a scholarly essay to the Responses section of this volume called Countering Holocaust Denial in the Middle East A New Approach Satloff maintains that Holocaust denial in Arab regions may be more effectively countered if recognition is given to Arabs who helped Jews during the Holocaust and if the fate of Jews in Arab lands particularly during World War II is given a more thorough consideration Two additional essays in this segment of the book focus on Arab or Muslim reactions to the Holocaust In addition the Responses section includes articles concerning both collaboration with the German occupiers and Jewish rescue of Jewish victims as well as essays that discuss political and personal responses to Nazi persecution Gerhard L Weinberg author of the magnum opus A World at Arms A Global History of World War II is generally considered to be the world's most important authority on the Second World War He contributes the primary article in the Consequences section of this volume The Holocaust and the Nuremberg Trials His essay argues that the evidence presented at the Nuremberg tribunal as well as the legal principles established at Nuremberg have set important precedents in international law that also influence the course of contemporary politics as well as both Holocaust and genocide studies Subsequent articles in this section of the book discuss the legal personal moral and political consequences of the Holocaust

Morality on the Edge Jolanta Saldukaitytė, Luc Anckaert, This volume couples and examines Modernity and the Holocaust in Lithuania through the lens of Western moral philosophy especially the ethics of Emmanuel Levinas The Holocaust appears not as an abstract event but as a real situation involving real choices real actions of real people In rethinking moral problems and dilemmas the volume draws on various diaries written in the Vilnius and Kaunas ghettos as historical testimonies These sources reveal in all their concreteness the fragility of human freedom the difficulty of ethical choice and the vulnerability of human beings Contributing authors also seek to understand the responsibility of philosophy itself how it is tested and what it has to say when confronted with violence and evil At the far edge of extremity the Holocaust surely tests the limits of our concepts our language and our theoretical and practical paradigms The evil of the Holocaust after all is not a theoretical or hypothetical question but rather concerns the concrete death of millions of people No doubt the Holocaust is a tragedy suffered by the Jewish people but it is as well a traumatic event for all humanity it is our issue

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations

Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes Kasztner's Train Anna Porter, 2009-05-26 The heroic story of the Hungarian Oscar Schindler who saved thousands of Hungarian Jews from certain death at the hands of the Nazis only to be accused of collaboration and assassinated in Israel twelve years after WWII ended Oscar Schindler's and Raoul Wallenberg's efforts to save people from Nazi extinction are legendary Rezso Kasztner by contrast is practically unknown even though he may have been the greatest rescuer of Jews during World War II He was also the most controversial and that along with the relative lack of focus on events in Hungary toward the end of the war has no doubt led to his anonymity Now with the publication of Anna Porter's remarkable chronicle Kasztner's achievements are in full view Based on interviews with those who were on the train and with family members of those denied a place on it as well as documents and correspondence not previously published Anna Porter tells the dramatic full story of one of the heroes of the twentieth century

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context Eastern Europe in Children's Literature Frances Povsic, 1986-07-16 Not only does this book fill a gap in ethnic literature but the extensive annotations the three separate indexes and the inclusion of folk and fairy tales add to its reference value Recommended for public libraries and university libraries that have children's literature programs Choice

Reading Auschwitz Mary Lagerwey, 1998-10-27 My mind refuses to play its part in the scholarly exercise I walk around in a daze remembering occasionally to take a picture I've heard that many people cry here but I am too numb to feel The wind whips through my wool coat I am very cold and I imagine what the wind would have felt like for someone here fifty years ago without coat boots or gloves Hours later as I write I tell myself a story about the day hoping it is true and hoping it will make sense of what I did and did not feel _From the Foreword Most of us learn of Auschwitz and the Holocaust through the writings of Anne Frank and Elie Wiesel Remarkable as their stories are they leave many voices of Auschwitz unheard Mary Lagerwey seeks to complicate our memory of Auschwitz by reading less canonical survivors Jean Amery Charlotte Delbo Fania Fenelon Szymon Laks Primo Levi and Sara Nomberg Przytyk She reads for how gender social class and ethnicity color their tellings She asks whether we can_ whether we should _make sense of Auschwitz And throughout Lagerwey reveals her own role in her research tells of her own fears and anxieties presenting what she a non Jew born after the fall of Nazism can only know second hand For any student of the Holocaust for anyone trying to make sense of the final solution Reading Auschwitz represents a powerful struggle with what it means to read and tell stories after Auschwitz     The Holocaust National Jewish Resource Center (U.S.),1985     Catalog of the Gerald K.
