Gli Etruschi:

Etruscology Alessandro Naso, 2017-09-25 This handbook has two purposes it is intended 1 as a handbook of Etruscology or Etruscan Studies offering a state of the art and comprehensive overview of the history of the discipline and its development and 2 it serves as an authoritative reference work representing the current state of knowledge on Etruscan civilization The organization of the volume reflects this dual purpose The first part of the volume is dedicated to methodology and leading themes in current research organized thematically whereas the second part offers a diachronic account of Etruscan history culture religion art archaeology and social and political relations and structures as well as a systematic treatment of the topography of the Etruscan civilization and sphere of influence The Archaeology of Etruscan Society Vedia Izzet, 2007-12-13 The late sixth century was a period of considerable change in Etruria this change is traditionally seen as the adoption of superior models from Greece In a re alignment of agency this book examines a wide range of Etruscan material culture mirrors tombs sanctuaries houses and cities in order to demonstrate the importance of local concerns in the formation of Etruscan material culture Drawing on theoretical developments the book emphasises the deliberate nature of the smallest of changes in material culture form and develops the concept of surface as a unifying key to understanding the changes in the ways Etruscans represented themselves in life and death This concept allows a uniquely holistic approach to the archaeology of Etruscan society and has the potential for other archaeological investigations The book will interest all scholars and students of classical archaeology Caere Nancy Thompson de Grummond, Lisa Pieraccini, 2016-08-09 The Etruscan city of Caere and eleven other Etruscan city states were among the first urban centers in ancient Italy Roman descriptions of Etruscan cities highlight their wealth beauty and formidable defenses Although Caere left little written historical record outside of funerary inscriptions its complex story can be deciphered by analyzing surviving material culture including architecture tomb paintings temples sanctuaries and materials such as terracotta bronze gold and amber found in Etruscan crafts Studying Caere provides valuable insight not only into Etruscan history and culture but more broadly into urbanism and the development of urban centers across ancient Italy Comprehensive in scope Caere is the first English language book dedicated to the study of its eponymous city Collecting the work of an international team of scholars it features chapters on a wide range of topics such as Caere s formation and history economy foreign relations trade networks art funerary traditions built environment religion daily life and rediscovery Extensively illustrated throughout Caere presents new perspectives on and analysis of not just Etruscan civilization but also the city s role in the wider pan Mediterranean basin The Oxford Handbook of Pre-Roman Italy (1000-49 BCE) Marco Maiuro, Jane Botsford Johnson, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Pre Roman Italy provides a comprehensive account of the many peoples who lived on the Italian peninsula during the last millennium BCE Written by more than fifty authors the book describes the diversity of these indigenous cultures their languages interactions and reciprocal influences It gives emphasis to Greek colonization the rise of aristocracies technological innovations and the spread of literacy which provided the urban texture that shaped the history of the Italian peninsula      Modern Etruscans Chiara Zampieri, Martina Piperno, Bart Van den Bossche, 2023-10-16 L trurie est la mode French archaeologist Salomon Reinach bluntly stated in 1927 Since the beginning of the nineteenth century Etruria had not only been attracting the attention of archaeologists and specialists of all sorts but it had also been a fascinating and in some cases captivating destination for poets novelists painters and sculptors from all over Europe This volume deals with the impact of the constantly expanding knowledge on the Etruscans and their mysterious civilisation on Italian French English and German literature arts and culture with particular regard to the modernist period 1890 1950 The volume brings a distinctive point of view to the subject by approaching it from an interdisciplinary and comparative perspective and by looking at a quite diverse range of topics and artefacts which includes but is not limited to the study of drawings art works travel essays novels cooking recipes schoolbooks photographs and movies By exploring a new paradigm to understand ancient cultures beyond the traditional ideas and models of reception of the classics and by challenging the alleged fracture between the so called two cultures of humanities and natural sciences Modern Etruscans will be of interest to scholars from various disciplines Designed as a learning tool for university courses on the interplay between literature and science in the twentieth century it is suited as recommended reading for students in the humanities      ,      The Etruscan World Jean MacIntosh Turfa, 2014-11-13 The Etruscans can be shown to have made significant and in some cases perhaps the first technical advances in the central and northern Mediterranean To the Etruscan people we can attribute such developments as the tie beam truss in large wooden structures surveying and engineering drainage and water tunnels the development of the foresail for fast long distance sailing vessels fine techniques of metal production and other pyrotechnology post mortem C sections in medicine and more In art many technical and iconographic developments although they certainly happened first in Greece or the Near East are first seen in extant Etruscan works preserved in the lavish tombs and goods of Etruscan aristocrats These include early portraiture the first full length painted portrait the first perspective view of a human figure in monumental art specialized techniques of bronze casting and reduction fired pottery the bucchero phenomenon Etruscan contacts through trade treaty and intermarriage linked their culture with Sardinia Corsica and Sicily with the Italic tribes of the peninsula and with the Near Eastern kingdoms Greece and the Greek colonial world Iberia Gaul and the Punic network of North Africa and influenced the cultures of northern Europe In the past fifteen years striking advances have been made in scholarship and research techniques for Etruscan Studies Archaeological and scientific discoveries have changed our picture of the Etruscans and furnished us with new specialized information Thanks to the work of dozens of international scholars it is now possible to discuss topics of interest that could never before be researched such as Etruscan mining and metallurgy textile production foods and agriculture In this volume over 60 experts provide insights into all these aspects of Etruscan culture and more with many contributions available in English for the first time to allow the reader access to research that may not otherwise be available to them Lavishly illustrated The Etruscan World brings to life the culture and material past of the Etruscans and highlights key points of development in research making it essential reading for researchers academics and students of this fascinating civilization

Abundance of Life Stephan Steingraber, 2006 Abundance of Life traces the stylistic and iconographic evolution of Etruscan wall paintings over their 500 year history The text also examines what the paintings reveal about the daily life politics and religion of this ancient society

Burial and Social Change in First Millennium BC Italy Elisa Perego, Rafael Scopacasa, 2016-11-30 In the first millennium BC communities in Italy underwent crucial transformations which scholars have often subsumed under the heading of state formation namely increased social stratification the centralization of political power and in some cases urbanization Most research has tended to approach the phenomenon of state formation and social change in relation to specific territorial dynamics of growth and expansion changing modes of exploitation of food and other resources over time and the adoption of selected socio ritual practices by the ruling elites in order to construct and negotiate authority In contrast comparatively little attention has been paid to the question of how these key developments resonated across the broader social transect and how social groups other than ruling elites both promoted these changes and experienced their effects The chief aim of this collection of 14 papers is to harness innovative approaches to the exceptionally rich mortuary evidence of first millennium BC Italy in order to investigate the roles and identities of social actors who either struggled for power and social recognition or were manipulated and exploited by superior authorities in a phase of tumultuous sociopolitical change throughout the entire Mediterranean basin Contributors provide a diverse range of approaches in order to examine how power operated in society how it was exercised and resisted and how this can be studied through mortuary evidence Section 1 addresses the construction of identity by focusing mainly on the manipulation of age ethnic and gender categories in society in regions and sites that reached notable power and splendor in first millennium BC Italy These include Etruria Latium Campania and the rich settlement of Verucchio in Emilia Romagna Each paper in Section 2 offers a counterpoint to a contribution in Section 1 with an overall emphasis on scholarly multivocality and the multiplicity of the theoretical approaches that can be used to read the archaeological evidence

Textile Production in Pre-Roman Italy Margarita Gleba, 2008-11-05 Older than both ceramics and metallurgy textile production is a technology which reveals much about prehistoric social and economic development This book examines the archaeological evidence for textile production in Italy from the transition between the Bronze Age and Early Iron Ages until the Roman expansion 1000 400 BCE and sheds light on both the process of technological development and the emergence of large urban centres with specialised crafts Margarita Gleba begins with an overview of the prehistoric Apennine peninsula which featured cultures such as the Villanovans and the Etruscans and was connected through colonisation and trade with the other parts of the Mediterranean She then focuses on the textiles themselves their appearance in written and iconographic sources the fibres and dyes employed how they were produced and what they were used for we learn for instance of the linen used in sails and rigging on Etruscan ships and of the complex looms needed to produce twill Featuring a comprehensive analysis of textiles remains and textile tools from the period the book recovers information about funerary ritual the sexual differentiation of labour the spinners and weavers were usually women and the important role the exchange of luxury textiles played in the emergence of an elite Textile production played a part in ancient Italian society s change from an egalitarian to an aristocratic social structure and in the emergence of complex urban communities The Villa Giulia National Etruscan Museum Museo nazionale di Villa Giulia,2001 Classics Pamphlet Collection ,1892 Divining the Etruscan World Jean MacIntosh Turfa,2012-07-16 The Etruscan Brontoscopic Calendar is a rare document of omens foretold by thunder It long lay hidden embedded in a Greek translation within a Byzantine treatise from the age of Justinian The first complete English translation of the Brontoscopic Calendar this book provides an understanding of Etruscan Iron Age society as revealed through the ancient text especially the Etruscans concerns regarding the environment food health and disease Jean MacIntosh Turfa also analyzes the ancient Near Eastern sources of the Calendar and the subjects of its predictions thereby creating a picture of the complexity of Etruscan society reaching back before the advent of writing and the recording of the calendar ENCICLOPEDIA ECONOMICA ACCOMODATA ALL' INTELLIGENZA FRANCESCO. PREDARI,1860 Catalogue of the Etruscan Gallery of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology Jean MacIntosh Turfa,2010-11-24 Combining a guide for the Museum visitor with scholarly discussions of all objects on display this catalogue provides background on the society history technology and commerce of the Etruscan and Faliscan cultures from the ninth through the first centuries B C Several groups of material illustrate social historical and technological phenomena currently at the forefront of scholarly debate and study such as the crucial period of the turnover from Iron Age hut villages to the fully urbanized princely Etruscan cities the development and extent of ancient literacy and the position of women and children in ancient societies Many special objects seldom found or generally inaccessible in the United States include Faliscan tomb groups Etruscan inscriptions helmets and trade goods The catalogue presents and analyzes objects of warfare weaving animals religious beliefs architectural and terracotta roofing ornaments Etruscan bronze working for utensils weapons and artwork and fine generic portraiture It discusses the symbolic meaning of such objects deposited in tombs as a chariot buried with a Faliscan lady at Narce a senator s folding stool buried in a later tomb at Chiusi and a pair of horse bits with the teeth of a chariot team still adhering to them where the teeth fell when sacrificed for a funeral in the fifth century necropolis at Tarquinia much later than the horse sacrifice was previously known in Etruria Children in Antiquity Lesley A. Beaumont,Matthew Dillon,Nicola Harrington,2020-12-30 This collection employs a multi disciplinary approach treating ancient childhood in a holistic manner according to diachronic regional and thematic perspectives This multi disciplinary approach encompasses classical studies Egyptology ancient history and the broad spectrum of archaeology including iconography and bioarchaeology With a

Connections in the Ancient Mediterranean Peter van Dommelen, A. Bernard Knapp, 2010-09-23 Material Connections eschews outdated theory tainted by colonialist attitudes and develops a new cultural and historical understanding of how factors such as mobility materiality conflict and co presence impacted on the formation of identity in the ancient Mediterranean Fighting against hyper specialisation within the subject area it explores the multiple ways that material culture was used to establish maintain and alter identities especially during periods of transition culture encounter and change A new perspective is adopted one that perceives the use of material culture by prehistoric and historic Mediterranean peoples in formulating and changing their identities It considers how objects and social identities are entangled in various cultural encounters and interconnections The movement of people as well as objects has always stood at the heart of attempts to understand the courses and process of human history The Mediterranean offers a wealth of such information and Material Connections expanding on this base offers a dynamic new subject of enquiry the social identity of prehistoric and historic Mediterranean people and considers how migration colonial encounters and connectivity or insularity influence social identities The volume includes a series of innovative closely related case studies that examine the contacts amongst various Mediterranean islands Sardinia Corsica Sicily Crete Cyprus the Balearics and the nearby shores of Italy Greece North Africa Spain and the Levant to explore the social and cultural impact of migratory colonial and exchange encounters Material Connections forges a new path in understanding the material culture of the Mediterranean and will be essential for those wishing to develop their understanding of material culture and identity in the Mediterranean

A Companion to the Etruscans Sinclair Bell, Alexandra A. Carpino, 2016-02-23 This new collection presents a rich selection of innovative scholarship on the Etruscans a vibrant independent people whose distinct civilization flourished in central Italy for most of the first millennium BCE and whose artistic social and cultural traditions helped shape the ancient Mediterranean European and Classical worlds Includes contributions from an international cast of both established and emerging scholars Offers fresh perspectives on Etruscan art and culture including analysis of the most up to date research and archaeological discoveries Reassesses and evaluates traditional topics like architecture wall painting ceramics and sculpture as well as new ones such as textile archaeology while also addressing themes that have yet to be thoroughly investigated in the scholarship such as the obesus etruscus the function and use of jewelry at different life stages Greek and Roman topoi about the Etruscans the Etruscans reception of ponderation and more Counters the claim that the Etruscans were culturally inferior to the Greeks and Romans by emphasizing fields where the Etruscans were either technological or artistic pioneers and by reframing similarities in style and iconography as examples of Etruscan agency and reception rather than as a deficit of local creativity
