Performances of Capitalism, Crises and Resistance Marilena Zaroulia, Philip Hager, 2015-07-27 Discussing crises through diverse examples including the UK s National Theatre public art installations Occupy LSX repatriation ceremonies and performances of the everyday this book asks how performance captures and resists what is considered politically ideologically culturally or socially inside or outside Europe The Metropolitan Revolution Ion C. Teaford, 2006 In this absorbing history Jon C Teaford traces the dramatic evolution of American metropolitan life At the end of World War II the cities of the Northeast and the Midwest were bustling racially and economically integrated areas frequented by suburban and urban dwellers alike Yet since 1945 these cities have become peripheral to the lives of most Americans Edge cities are now the dominant centers of production and consumption in post suburban America Characterized by sprawling freeways corporate parks and homogeneous malls and shopping centers edge cities have transformed the urban landscape of the United States Teaford surveys metropolitan areas from the Rust Belt to the Sun Belt and the way in which postwar social racial and cultural shifts contributed to the decline of the central city as a hub of work shopping transportation and entertainment He analyzes the effects of urban flight in the 1950s and 1960s the subsequent growth of the suburbs and the impact of financial crises and racial tensions He then brings the discussion into the present by showing how the recent wave of immigration from Latin America and Asia has further altered metropolitan life and complicated the black white divide Engaging in original research and interpretation Teaford tells the story of this fascinating metamorphosis Science: 1994 British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics, 1995-12-08 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences The New Security Helen Forbes-Mewett, 2018-04-24 The New Security places the concept of security under the spotlight to analyse its meaning in an original and contemporary context In so doing Forbes Mewett revisits the notion from the perspectives of individuals and communities to understand what security means in our culturally diverse contemporary society Chapters highlight the extent of the shift of traditional uses of the term from the established perspective of international relations to a more commonly used concept which now broadly relates to many aspects of peoples everyday experiences Based on empirical studies of security in relation to housing employment food personal security and campus settings in times of perceived heightened risk this book presents new and different ways of thinking about security to demonstrate how we need to expand the dialogue surrounding the concept Drawing on empirical research to describe analyse and reposition the concept of security to have meaning in diverse everyday contexts this methodological and insightful text will be of particular interest to scholars and students of criminological theory security studies and sociology Putting the State on Trial Margaret E. Beare, Nathalie Des Rosiers, Abigail C. Deshman, 2015-04-01 Canada is often lauded as a model democracy that values the constitutional rights of its citizens So when over a thousand people most of whom were peaceful protesters or hapless bystanders were violently arrested and then detained without charge during the G20 Summit in Toronto in 2010 many Canadians felt shock and outrage Putting the State on Trial The Policing of Protest during the G20 Summit examines the political social and economic conditions that allowed the policing of the summit to culminate in human and civil rights violations Written by a multi disciplinary group of scholars and legal practitioners this book contextualizes events before during and after the summit from a range of perspectives Although the G20 protests serve as a point of departure in every chapter the contributing authors engage with larger questions about the control of dissent the impact of the securitization and internationalization of Canadian politics the implications of legal uncertainty and the accountability vacuum Handbook on Law and Political Economy John D. Haskell, 2025-09-10 This thoroughly revised second edition examines the current state of literature in law and political economy drawing on scholarship across a variety of subject areas geographies and orientations Capturing recent developments in the field it expands upon the range of debates and themes explored by the previous edition to include growing cross disciplinary and cross jurisdictional perspectives Economic Law Mariela de Amstalden, Niall Moran, Henok Asmelash, 2023-12-12 This volume considers novel emerging issues in international economic law as well as new methodological approaches to more familiar topics It brings together a diverse range of contributors from five continents who share invaluable perspectives on a wide range of issues in international economic governance. In doing so this volume delves deeply into some of the most challenging emerging areas in international economic law approaching them from an interdisciplinary perspective that brings together legal economic and political analysis Intended for academics and practitioners at all stages of their careers many of the areas considered in this volume are either entirely new or are being revisited after periods of dormancy It is our hope that these contributions will yield fresh insights into these new and classic areas of IEL We consider diversity and inclusivity foundational values in IEL The wealth of ideas showcased in this volume present us with an opportunity to appreciate different facets of originality and rigour in legal academic writing further highlighting the range of methodological and stylistic preferences of emerging legal scholars in IEL In June 2022 forty emerging international economic law scholars were selected to present their papers at PEPA SIEL where they received feedback from senior members of the SIEL community and beyond The discussions were lively stimulating and enriching leading the editors of this volume to propose putting a selection of the papers into a published book New Tunisian Cinema Robert Lang, 2014-04-08 Tunisian cinema is often described as the most daring of all Arab cinemas a model of equipoise between East and West and the defender of a fierce sovereign style Even during the repressive regime that ruled Tunisia from 1987 to 2011 a generation of filmmakers produced allegories of resistance that defied their society s increasingly illiberal trends In New Tunisian Cinema Robert Lang reads eight contemporary Tunisian films many by some of the nation s best known directors including Man of Ashes 1986 Bezness 1992 and Making Of 2006 by

Nouri Bouzid Halfaouine 1990 by F rid Boughedir The Silences of the Palace 1994 by Moufida Tlatli Essa da 1997 by Mohamed Zran Bedwin Hacker 2002 by Nadia El Fani and The TV Is Coming 2006 by Moncef Dhouib He explores the political economy and social historical and psychoanalytic dimensions of these works and the strategies filmmakers deployed to preserve cinema's ability to shape debates about national identity. These debates Lang argues not only helped initiate the 2011 uprising that ousted Ben Ali s regime but also did much to inform and articulate the social political and cultural aspirations of the Tunisian people in the new millennium Central Banks, Democratic States and Financial Power Jocelyn Pixley, 2018-10-11 When the Federal Reserve European Central Bank and Bank of England purchased bank and state debt during the 2007 2008 crisis it became apparent that when technically divorced from fiscal policy monetary policy cannot revive but only prevent economic activity deteriorating further Pixley explains how conflicting social forces shape the diverse complex relations of central banks to the money production of democracies and the immense money creation by capitalist banking Central banks are never politically neutral and despite unfair demands are unable to prevent collapses to debt deflation or credit asset inflation They can produce debilitating depressions but not the recoveries desired in democracies and unwanted by capitalist banks or war finance logics Drawing on economic sociology and economic histories this book will appeal to informed readers interested in studying democracies banks and central banking s ambivalent positions via Legal and Political Foundations of Capitalism Jamee K. comparative and distributive perspectives Moudud, 2025-03-19 Institutions matter is a common refrain among all economists including many who have proposed progressive alternatives to free market fundamentalism However this sentiment does not go far enough This book draws principally on the Original Institutional Economics and American Legal Realist traditions to propose a theory of legal institutionalism or institutional political economy By arguing that society is a political community it challenges the private law versus public law or state versus markets distinction Focusing on property money and credit constitutional law and corporations this book argues that laissez faire has never existed and that state intervention versus de regulation and market failures versus free markets are false dichotomies This book proposes the need to engage with legal economic theory and history to understand what institutions are what economic regulation means law s intrinsic connection to the economy and the distribution of power relations within capitalism This book will be of interest to readers of economics law public policy international and development studies and all those seeking to explore progressive alternatives in this period of multiple Introducing Human Geographies, Second Edition Paul Cloke, Philip Crang, Mark Goodwin, 2013-01-11 crises Introducing Human Geographies is a comprehensive stimulating and innovative introduction to human geography This second edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to build upon the success of the acclaimed first edition Now in full colour and with sixteen new chapters discussion points and glossary definitions in the margin it is even more accessible Part one discusses the principal ideas through which human geographers understand and shape their subject Part two examines Lipsmeyer, Guy D. Whitten, 2018-10-18 Budgeting is a key aspect of governmental behaviour Research on budgeting has taken various theoretical and methodological approaches and these differences have prevented scholars from discussing their common topic In this collection we have gathered a group of prominent scholars to explore the intermingling of budgets and politics from an assortment of theoretical and methodological perspectives It highlights not only the breadth of current research but also the range of what remains underexplored This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy Anxieties of Empire and the Fiction of Intrigue Yumna Siddigi, 2008 Focusing on late nineteenth and twentieth century stories of detection policing and espionage by British and South Asian writers Yumna Siddiqi presents an original and compelling exploration of the cultural anxieties created by imperialism She suggests that while colonial writers use narratives of intrigue to endorse imperial rule postcolonial writers turn the generic conventions and topography of the fiction of intrigue on its head launching a critique of imperial power that makes the repressive and emancipatory impulses of postcolonial modernity visible Siddigi devotes the first part of her book to the colonial fiction of Arthur Conan Doyle and John Buchan in which the British regime s preoccupation with maintaining power found its voice The rationalization of difference pronouncedly expressed through the genre's strategies of representation and narrative resolution helped to reinforce domination and in some cases allay fears concerning the loss of colonial power In the second part Siddigi argues that late twentieth century South Asian writers also underscore the state s insecurities but unlike British imperial writers they take a critical view of the state s authoritarian tendencies Such writers as Amitav Ghosh Michael Ondaatje Arundhati Roy and Salman Rushdie use the conventions of detective and spy fiction in creative ways to explore the coercive actions of the postcolonial state and the power dynamics of a postcolonial New Empire Drawing on the work of leading theorists of imperialism such as Edward Said Frantz Fanon and the Subaltern Studies historians Siddigi reveals how British writers express the anxious workings of a will to maintain imperial power in their writing She also illuminates the ways South Asian writers portray the paradoxes of postcolonial modernity and trace the ruses and uses of reason in a world where the modern marks a horizon not only of hope but also of economic military and ecological disaster Sciences Index ,2000 CQ Press Guide to Radical Politics in the United States Susan Burgess, Kate Leeman, 2016-03-11 This unique guide will provide an overview of radical U S political movements on both the left and the right sides of the ideological spectrum with a focus on analyzing the origins and trajectory of the various movements and the impact that movement ideas and activities have had on mainstream American politics The work is organized thematically with each chapter focusing on a prominent arena of radical activism in the United States The chapters will trace the chronological development of these extreme leftist and rightist movements throughout U S history Each chapter will include a discussion of central individuals organizations and events as well as their impact on popular opinion political discourse and public policy For movements that have arisen multiple times throughout U S history nativism religious radical labor separatists the chapter will trace the history over time but the analysis will emphasize its most recent manifestations Sidebar features will be included in each chapter to provide additional contextual information to facilitate increased understanding of The Mediterranean In The Age Of Globalization Natalia Ribas Mateos, The Mediterranean in the Age of the topic Globalization is a welcome corrective to the tendency to present globalization as a homogenous concept and the failure to describe how it operates in specific regions Ribas Mateos examines globalization and migration across the Mediterranean using an innovative integrated framework so as to map social places by describing how social political cultural and economic forces are embedded within a globalizing environment. The author articulates an original and compelling narrative mapping the Mediterranean as a global place where international and regional forces are intertwined in multiple threads In doing so she identifies two key components of globalization affecting specifically forms of welfare and issues of mobility in the context of a weakening European welfare state and the relocation and reinforcement of Mediterranean borders Nine Mediterranean cities are investigated as gateway cities which shape two major effects of globalization welfare and mobility The book challenges conventional North South perspectives and focuses and systematizes the way international migration should be conceptualized The originality of the book results from the author's fieldwork which is rich in descriptive detail and from a theory centered around global perspectives Seven case studies in Southern Europe Algeciras Athens Barcelona Lisbon

Naples Turin and Thrace deal with issues related to migration and the welfare state She also includes two ethnographies that represent two Mediterranean gateways in the North South Mediterranean division Tangiers in Morocco and Durres in Albania which are mapped as border cities in the global Mediterranean context Because of its intrinsically multidisciplinary nature this superb volume will be of particular interest to academics and social science researchers as well as policymakers and international agencies Natalia Ribas Mateos is a Marie Curie fellow at the Mediterranean Laboratory of Sociology Aix en Provence France Among her recent books are Una invitacin a las sociologa de las migraciones and El debate sobre la Cape Verde, Let's Go Derek Pardue, 2015-11-15 Musicians rapping in kriolu a hybrid of Portuguese and West African languages spoken in Cape Verde have recently emerged from Lisbon's periphery They popularize the struggles with identity and belonging among young people in a Cape Verdean immigrant community that shares not only the kriolu language but its culture and history Drawing on fieldwork and archival research in Portugal and Cape Verde Derek Pardue introduces Lisbon's kriolu rap scene and its role in challenging metropolitan Portuguese identities Pardue demonstrates that Cape Verde while relatively small within the Portuguese diaspora offers valuable lessons about the politics of experience and social agency within a postcolonial context that remains poorly understood As he argues knowing more about both Cape Verdeans and the Portuguese invites clearer assessments of the relationship between the experience and policies of migration That in turn allows us to better gauge citizenship as a balance of individual achievement and cultural ascription Deftly shifting from domestic to public spaces and from social media to ethnographic theory Pardue describes an overlooked phenomenon transforming Portugal one sure to have parallels in former colonial powers across twenty first century Europe

Neoliberalism, Economic Radicalism, and the Normalization of Violence Vicente Berdayes, John W. Murphy, 2015-12-11 This compelling volume analyzes the wide scale societal impact of neoliberal economic policy on contemporary life and behavior Synthesizing perspectives from politics and economics with insights from psychology and linguistics it argues that market driven public institutions promote antisocial thinking discourage critical reflection and inure individuals to inequity and cruelty Chapters cite the ubiquity of violence in modern society from the marketing of the military to impersonal mass upheavals in the job market as devaluing human worth and thus self worth But the editors also assert that these currents are not terminal and the book concludes by identifying conditions potentially leading to a more civil and egalitarian future Included in the coverage The language of current economics social theory the market and the disappearance of relationships Neoliberalism and education the disfiguration of students Slicing up societies commercial media and the destruction of social environments Neoliberalism and the transformation of work Economics the network society and the ontology of violence A new economic order without violence Given the centrality of economic events on the global stage Neoliberalism Economic Radicalism and the Normalization of Violence stands out as both a springboard for discussion and a call to action to be read by political and cultural economists political scientists and sociologists

Trafficking Chains Sylvia Walby, Karen A. Shire, 2024-04-22 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND license This book offers a theory of trafficking and modern slavery with implications for policy Despite economic development modern slavery persists all around the world The issue is not only one of crime but the regulation of the economy better welfare and social protections Going beyond polarized debates on the sex trade an original empirical analysis shows the importance of profit taking Although individual experience matters the root causes lie in intersecting regimes of inequality of gender regimes capitalism and the legacies of colonialism This book shows the importance of coercion and the societal complexities that perpetuate modern slavery
