From Conflict to Crisis Jeanne M. Haskin, 2012 The rich understand that capitalism is a game of musical chairs It's systemic class warfare conducted on a grand scale to discourage solidarity across lines that might otherwise threaten the system and with each market reset arranged by the Federal Reserve more of the country's resources fall into wealthy hands Examining what happens when a society favors old money over new and breaks all the rules to make the world safe for finance author Jeanne Haskin predicts increasing volatility and violence in the United States if we do not significantly change course For a preview of what lies ahead for the U.S. the author takes us for a quick exemplary trip through Central America A society that is reared on competition will face unsettling challenges to authority if it doesn't set certain functions outside the arena of battle via systematic enrichment of the affluent minority that has always had the power to topple and ruin the system Today's preoccupation with America's revolutionary history is not just a piece of theater At the heart of America's outrage is an inability to lash out and demand redemption from the source of its distress because the pain is inflicted not by hatred but by the fundamental lack of stability built into our way of life Now that a fifth of the population is suffering job loss foreclosures or exclusion from employment due to prejudice poor credit a lack of skills or education a glut of competition and insufficient opportunity the failure to provide for the helpless majority means the system is at an impasse Because the system can't or won't perform the Tea Party's rise was preemptive with all its implied violence and real American theater as the means to channel our anger into voting out Obama so reform can proceed unimpeded with all its inherent dangers After reviewing some foreign examples that erupted in the environments of colonialism and post colonialism neoliberalism militarism and oligarchies the author filters through the head spinning social and political noise that stands in for responsible debate in America today Ms Haskin's richly documented essay sees a bonfire prepared as social tensions are increased and inter group pressures are encouraged to mount So much for One nation Social Evolution & History ,2007 Space Life Sciences M. P. Bernstein,Rafael Navarro-González,F. Raulin,2005 American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique ,2000 The Selfcreating Mind Graeme Donald Snooks,2007 In this ambitious and imaginative work noted social and biological theorist Graeme Donald Snooks explores the origin development and role of the self conscious mind He does so by employing a realist general dynamic theory his celebrated dynamic strategy theory based on a large scale systematic observation of the broad patterns of life and human society The outcome of this exploration is the discovery of the selfcreating mind the mind that created itself through the response of countless organisms to the ever changing demands of their dynamic societies They are driven to do so by the need to survive and prosper which Snooks calls strategic desire the shaping force of all animal instincts The Selfcreating Mind which displaces the mind hypothesized by psychoanalytic Darwinian and complexity theorists provides a new perspective on human nature the origin nature and purpose of the self conscious mind the reasons for its continuing breakdown in a significant minority of the population and on the surest road to mental recovery It also explores questions about the future of brain genetics artificial intelligence and the possible elimination of mental disorders Read about Graeme Snooks The Collapse of Darwinism Or The Rise of a Realist Theory of Life available from Lexington Books The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000 Choice ,2000 How Will Capitalism End? Wolfgang Streeck,2025-08-26 One of the Best Books of the Year Guardian Financial Times Times Higher Education A major collection of essays that questions whether contemporary capitalism will end with a bang or a whimper from a leading political economist and the author of Buying Time After years of ill health capitalism is now in a critical condition Growth has given way to stagnation inequality is leading to instability and confidence in the money economy has all but evaporated In How Will Capitalism End the acclaimed analyst of contemporary politics and economics Wolfgang Streeck argues that the world is about to change The marriage between democracy and capitalism ill suited partners brought together in the shadow of World War II is coming to an end The regulatory institutions that once restrained the financial sector s excesses have collapsed and after the final victory of capitalism at the end of the Cold War there is no political agency capable of rolling back the liberalization of the markets Ours has become a world defined by declining growth oligarchic rule a shrinking public sphere institutional corruption and international anarchy and no cure to these ills is at hand Manufacturers Record ,1925 Industrial Development and Manufacturers' Record ,1917 The Painter and Decorator ,1915 Role of Private Voluntary Organizations in the U.S. Foreign Assistance Program United States.
