Global Community And The Need For Universal Responsibility:

The Global Community & the need for Universal Responsibility His Holiness the XIVth Dalai Lama ,2015-01-01 His Holiness the Dalai Lama is admired and respected world wide as a man of peace As spiritual leader of the Tibetan people he has consistently championed policies of non violence even in the face of great aggression an approach that in 1989 won him the Nobel Peace Prize In lectures and tours around the world he has touched the hearts of people of different cultures and religions with the simplicity profundity and universality of his message that of greater understanding mutual respect and compassion amongst the nations and people of this world In this booklet His Holiness offers a way of approaching the new political challenges of our rapidly changing world based on a genuine feeling of global and universal responsibility His statement also affords insight into the way of thinking of one of today s truly great world leaders

The Global Community and the Need for Universal Responsibility Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho,1992 Sourcebook of the World's Religions Joel Beversluis,2011-02-08 Now in its third edition this is the most comprehensive work available on the rich variety of paths available to today s spiritual seekers More than an academic reference it explores how religions can collaborate to help the world Essays exploring the realm of building an interfaith community add to the book s detailed portraits of the major religious traditions The Sourcebook also contains essays on spiritual practices as diverse as theosophy wicca and indigenous religions This revised edition of the Sourcebook offers an unparalleled look at where spirituality is headed in the coming millennium

The Global Sustainability Challenge Gerard Magill,James Benedict,2020-04-14 This collection of essays is based on presentations given at the 4th conference in an annual endowed series held at Duquesne University USA It addresses emerging concerns and pivotal problems about our planet s environment and ecology The contributions gathered here highlight the inter relation of topics and expertise regarding science and philosophy ethics religion global issues and generational perspectives The book concludes with an ethical analysis of the multiple and overlapping challenges that require urgent attention and long term resolution It will appeal to scholars and students in a variety of disciplines and fields that deal with the earth s survival and flourishing

Dialogue Among the Faith Communities Lucien F. Cosijns,2008 After twenty five centuries of rapid human evolution dialogue has now come to be a word and concept of daily use in the media and a theme of discussion all over the world In this current period of our human history the centuries long struggle for survival and our belligerent confrontation with each other is being replaced by a new era of collaboration in dialogue The most intriguing aspect of this new dialogue is that the interfaith conversation has extended worldwide within the past fifteen years Ultimately this new conversation has resulted in efforts towards a corroborative dialogue between the world of faiths and the political world This book s aim is to sketch this striking movement in its philosophical and religious evolution and expression

The INTRAFaith Conversation: How Do Christians Talk Among Ourselves About INTERfaith Matters? Susan Strouse,2016-03-18 This crisp and cogent book by the Rev Dr Strouse is published at a time when both interfaith and intrafaith dialogue are critical to the vitality of spiritual life in our nation As a parish pastor in a small struggling congregation I have become increasingly aware of the insularity and isolation of many of our parishioners This seems less the result of inadequate parish education as it is the byproduct of too many people getting their information from biased TV networks so called social media or word of mouth We parish pastors need to examine our internal intra congregational conversations about diverse faith traditions and how they bear on congregational mission I was particularly impressed by the author s use of footnotes and her extensive bibliography The book is a walking talking workshop in print with its detailed reflection discussion questions and suggestions for further reading Thank you Pastor Strouse for such a comprehensive presentation of how to approach constructively this timely and important conversation

Review by Richard G Eddy      The Community of Religions Wayne Teasdale, George Cairns, 2016-10-06 The papers in this volume form a record of the 1993 Parliament of the World s Religions which was one of the largest interfaith gatherings ever held Representatives from minority ethnic and tribal religions took the podium as equals alongside representatives from the world s largest religious traditions This volume contains major addresses and reflections of this parliament set in context by an introduction and conclusion by the editors      Universal Responsibility Ramesh Chandra Tewari, 1996      Imagine All the People Dalai Lama, Anne Benson, Fabien Ouaki, 2016-02-23 If you could sit down with the Dalai Lama and talk with him about anything what would you discuss Fabien Ouaki a prominent French businessman was granted such an opportunity and asked the Dalai Lama for his thoughts on the everyday issues that fill our newspapers and our lives This is the record of these varied and remarkable conversations Covered are a wide spectrum of topics political social personal and spiritual including the media and education marriage and sex and disarmament and compassion Blessed by His Holiness buoyant and insightful thoughts Imagine All the People allows readers to glimpse the spontaneous workings of an extraordinary mind at once of and above this world Includes the full text of The Global Community and the Need for Universal Responsibility If you could sit down with the Dalai Lama and talk with him about anything what would you discuss Fabien Ouaki a prominent French businessman was granted such an opportunity and asked the Dalai Lama for his thoughts on the everyday issues that fill our newspapers and our lives This is the record of these varied and remarkable conversations Covered are a wide spectrum of topics political social personal and spiritual including the media and education marriage and sex and disarmament and compassion Blessed by His Holiness buoyant and insightful thoughts Imagine All the People allows readers to glimpse the spontaneous workings of an extraordinary mind at once of and above this world Includes the full text of The Global Community and the Need for Universal Responsibility

The Global Community Yearbook of International Law and Jurisprudence 2010 Volume II Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo, 2012-03-14 a The set generally Please note that the following description applies to both volumes in the 2010 Yearbook not solely to Volume II The Global Community Yearbook is a one stop resource for all researchers studying international law generally or international criminal tribunals specifically The Global Community Yearbook appears annually in two volume editions of carefully chosen primary source material and corresponding expert commentary. The general editor Professor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo employs her vast expertise in international law to select excerpts from important court opinions and also to choose experts from around the world who contribute essay guides to illuminate those cases. Although the main focus is recent case law from the major international tribunals and regional courts, the first volume of each year's edition always features expert articles by renowned scholars who address broader themes in international law themes that appear throughout the case law of the many courts covered by the series as a whole. b This particular edition 2010 Beginning with the 2010 edition, the Yearbook will include the new section Forum Jurisprudential Cross Fertilization: An Annual Overview. This section aims to compare and analyze the interconnections between the decisions of international courts and tribunals as a way of exploring and examining judicial dialogue and the development of common legal principles and concepts in all branches of international law. The Yearbook is the first academic journal to present an annual overview of the process of jurisprudential cross fertilization between the courts based on the drafting and systematic classification of legal maxims, i.e. points of law decided by various international courts, in the section entitled Decisions of International Courts and Tribunals. A comprehensive and complete survey by eminent international law scholars exploring, evaluating, and documenting this process has the potential to enhance our contribution and thus further guide our understanding of how to reduce conflicts and create an effective exchange of legal reasoning between different courts. The aim is to promote a favorable environment for the courts to advance the process of judicial cooperation with a view to the possible harmonization of legal principles governing the global community. c Individual volumes Volume 1 The 2010 edition of the Global Community Yearbook presents three categories of material wholly beneficial to any international law researcher: International tribunals' court opinions excerpted with scholarly skill by General Editor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo; expert guidance on those cases in the form of commentary by globally recognized luminaries whom Ziccardi has chosen personally; and more broadly focused introductory essays by similarly prominent scholars whom Ziccardi has also selected for that purpose. In the introductory essays, those scholars take on current topics such as global intellectual property law and policy, the nature of international law and human development, and the legal/political connotation of material support to terrorism. These incisive and knowledgeable introductory articles help frame the debates currently raging in international law. Before this edition, the reader is led on to expert commentary on the noteworthy cases from this past year's dockets of the following tribunals: The International Court of Justice, The International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, WTO Dispute Settlement System, International Criminal Court, International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, Court of Justice of the European Union. Ziccardi has arranged the sections of this volume according to that list of tribunals, and she has included a short, targeted index for each of those sections, making any research in this volume efficient and fruitful. The 2010 edition of the Global Community Yearbook also gives researchers an illuminating tour through the varied and dynamic law of regional and organizational courts In the court opinion excerpts and expert commentary that fill this volume researchers will find detailed guidance on a rich diversity of legal topics On these questions and a host of others this volume provides to students scholars and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates The courts covered in this edition include The Court of Justice The European Court of Human Rights Inter American Court of Human Rights International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes

Obligations Erga Omnes and International Crimes André de Hoogh, 2023-12-18 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the law of State responsibility It addresses fundamental questions such as which subjects of international law are entitled to invoke the responsibility of the author state the forms of reparation demands which may be made and the means and counter measures including the use and level of force which may be employed to enforce demands Audience Academics and researchers in international law

Global Health and International Community John Coggon, Swati Gola, 2013-09-12 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Global health arguably represents the most pressing issues facing humanity Trends in international migration and transnational commerce render state boundaries increasingly porous Human activity in one part of the world can lead to health impacts elsewhere Animals viruses and bacteria as well as pandemics and environmental disasters do not recognize or respect political borders It is now widely accepted that a global perspective on the understanding of threats to health and how to respond to them is required but there are many practical problems in establishing such an approach This book offers a foundational study of these urgent and challenging problems combining critical analysis with practically focused policy contributions The contributors span the fields of ethics human rights international relations law philosophy and global politics They address normative questions relating to justice equity and inequality and practical questions regarding multi organizational cooperation global governance and international relations Moving from the theoretical to the practical Global Health and International Community is an essential resource for scholars students activists and policy makers across the globe International Documents on Corporate Responsibility Stephen Tully, 2008-01-01 International Documents on Corporate Responsibility includes the principal international regional and national instruments drafted by intergovernmental organisations or states as well as codes of conduct formulated by industry associations trade unions and non governmental organisations The coverage includes the fields of human rights international criminal and environmental law labour standards international trade armed conflict sustainable development corruption consumer protection and corporate governance Each document is accompanied by a brief explanatory commentary outlining the historical origins of the instrument the principal actors involved controversial negotiation issues applicable implementation procedure and identifies further reference material The Global Community Yearbook of International Law and Jurisprudence 2014 (Volume 1) Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo, 2015-09-15 The 2014 edition of The Global Community Yearbook both updates readers on the important work of long standing international tribunals and introduces readers to more novel topics in international law This edition includes expert introductory essays by prominent scholars in the realm of international law on topics as diverse and current as the intervention of the United States and coalition partners in territories under the control of the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant ISIL to the weak area in the institutional and normative framework of the Revised Treaty of Chaguaramas The Responsibility to Protect in International Law Susan Breau, 2016-03-02 This book will consider a rapidly emerging guiding general principle in international relations and arguably in international law the Responsibility to Protect This principle is a solution proposed to a key preoccupation in both international relations and international law scholarship how the international community is to respond to mass atrocities within sovereign States There are three facets to this responsibility the responsibility to prevent the responsibility to react and the responsibility to rebuild This doctrine will be analysed in light of the parallel development of customary and treaty international legal obligations imposing responsibilities on sovereign states to the international community in key international law fields such as international human rights law international criminal law and international environmental law These new developments demand academic study and this book fills this lacuna by rigorously considering all of these developments as part of a trend towards assumption of international responsibility This must include the responsibility on the part of all states to respond to threats of genocide crimes against humanity ethnic cleansings and large scale war crimes The discussion surrounding aggravated state responsibility is also explored with the author concluding that this emerging norm within international law is closely related to the responsibility to protect in its imposition of an international responsibility to act in response to an international wrong This book will be of great interest to scholars on international law the law of armed conflict security studies and IR in general

International 'Criminal' Responsibility Ottavio Quirico, 2019-02-12 In the course of the 20th and 21st centuries major offences committed by individuals have been subject to progressive systematisation in the framework of international criminal law Proposals developed within the context of the League of Nations coordinated individual liability and State responsibility By contrast international law as codified after World War II in the framework of the United Nations embodies a neat divide between individual criminal liability and State aggravated responsibility However conduct of State organs and agents generates dual liability Through a critical analysis of key international rules the book assesses whether the divisive approach to individual and State responsibility is normatively consistent Contemporary situations such as the humanitarian crises in Syria and Libya 9 11 and the Iraq wars demonstrate that the matter still gives rise to controversy a set of systemic problems emerge The research focuses on the substantive elements of major offences notably aggression genocide core war crimes core crimes against humanity and terrorism as well as relevant procedural implications The book is a useful resource for practitioners policymakers academics students researchers and anyone interested in international law and politics

The Global Politics of Human Rights Miguelángel Verde Garrido, Philani Mthembu, Adam S. Wilkins, 2020-07-13 Now available online The Global Politics of Human Rights Bringing the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR into the 21st Century 2020 a publication from the Berlin Forum on Global Politics BFoGP in collaboration with the Institute for Global Dialogue and the RECLAIM Universal Human Rights Initiative The Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR even more than 70 years after its adoption continues to provide the foundation for national and international laws concerned with human dignity and the universal and inalienable freedoms and claims of every person A living document the core principles enshrined in the UDHR are as relevant as ever to better the human condition and societies worldwide This collected volume is an open knowledge publication freely accessible under a Creative Commons license which includes 24 articles written by numerous well informed stakeholders from across the globe who include human rights scholars and practitioners experts and activists researchers and members of civil society and non governmental organizations It addresses particular aspects of the history of the UDHR the expansion and implementation of its Articles its role in the prevention of violence and its potential to address a changing world As a whole the publication serves two goals on the one hand it clarifies why the UDHR continues to be strongly relevant to the contemporary values dynamics and conditions of human rights in the 21st century and on the other hand it illustrates how the UDHR and its Articles can be further adapted and implemented to uphold and safeguard human rights even in times when global politics often follow the siren songs of populism authoritarianism nativism and extremism

Beyond the Responsibility to Protect in International Law Angeliki Samara, 2020-09-01 This book offers a critical appraisal of the international legal idea of the Responsibility to Protect The idea that the international community has a responsibility to protect populations at risk has become the prominent mode and structure of address in response to mass human atrocities gross human rights violations and large scale loss of life Although the international community of liberal international law and of legal cosmopolitanism for the most part projects a self assured collective project this book maintains that it transforms global ethical responsibility into a project of governance management and control Pursuing this argument and drawing on critical legal literature critical international relations and on ideas of responsibility and ethical relationality in the work of Jacques Derrida and Judith Butler the book develops a concept of irresponsibility This concept is then juxtaposed to the dominant Responsibility to Protect discourse By exposing and acknowledging the sites of irresponsibility of the Responsibility to Protect the book argues that irresponsibility itself can become the condition of ethical responsibility and the possibility of justice This original approach to an increasingly important topic will prove invaluable to those working in international law international relations politics and legal theory     Institutionalizing State Responsibility Vincent-Joël Proulx, 2016-05-05 Since the 9 11 attacks international organizations have become actively engaged in devising counterterrorism strategies and frameworks This monograph examines the role UN organs can play in implementing the law of State responsibility in global security contexts using transnational terrorism as its principal case study The institutional mechanisms utilized by the UN in implementing State responsibility are assessed in detail shedding light on how the ICJ the General Assembly and the Security Council contribute to the implementation of State responsibility in the context of global security By acknowledging the Security Council s role as a post 9 11 legislator this book argues that the Council can play an important and sometimes determinant role in implementing a State s legal responsibility for failing to prevent terrorism both inside and outside the Chapter VII framework Featuring a discussion of the more controversial consequences flowing from State responsibility this monograph also explores the prospect of injured States adopting forcible measures against responsible States for their failures to prevent terrorism The book investigates whether self defence and other forcible reactions envisaged both inside and outside the Council can be reconciled with State responsibility principles
