Feminism and Tradition in Aesthetics Peggy Zeglin Brand, Carolyn Korsmeyer, 2010-11-01 Dismantling the Dream Factory Hester Baer, 2012-02 The history of postwar German cinema has most often been told as a story of failure a failure paradoxically epitomized by the remarkable popularity of film throughout the late 1940s and 1950s Through the analysis of 10 representative films Hester Baer reassesses this period looking in particular at how the attempt to dismantle the dream factory of Nazi entertainment cinema resulted in a new cinematic language which developed as a result of the changing audience demographic In an era when female viewers comprised 70 per cent of cinema audiences a women s cinema emerged which sought to appeal to female spectators through its genres star choices stories and formal conventions In addition to analyzing the formal language and narrative content of these films Baer uses a wide array of other sources to reconstruct the original context of their reception including promotional and publicity materials film programs censorship documents reviews and spreads in fan magazines This book presents a new take on an essential period which saw the rebirth
