Gitamrtam The Ebential Teachings Of The Bhagavadgita:

Gitāmrtam Anantanand Rambachan,1993-01-01 Gitamrtam is a concise and insightful discussion of the central themes of the Bhagavadgita Beginning with the Gita s teaching about the nature and role of the incarnation Dr Rambachan identifies kama a state of desiring and wanting as life s fundamental problem The proper resolution of this human dissatisfaction is to be found in the understanding of oneself to be the full and complete self atman Such knowledge Dr Rambachan vigorously argues enables one to act in the world from a deep sense of inward peace and fulfilment Self knowledge transforms human motivation and liberates us from the narrow confines of selfish action to the freedom of serving others Dr Rambachan establishes that the Bhagavadgita ideal is not indifference to the world and the severing of human relationships but love and compassion born out of the identity of oneself with all beings In a lucid and accessible style Dr Rambachan shows how the Gita s teaching makes possible a love which embraces all and infuses each act with compassion Gitamrtam Srila B.
