turbulent Sixties Sereni embraced the struggle for women's rights social justice and political reform championing Eduardo Galeano's notion that utopia always stands at the horizon and one must keep walking to reach it. Activist journalist writer translator but also musician disability rights champion home maker and wife her multiple and often conflicting roles emerge in a rich and multifaceted writing increasingly balanced between the public and the private history with a capital H and personal memoir. Her first major success Casalinghitudine Keeping House explores the juncture of the public and the personal as important historical moments merge with her workaday memories of cooking. Her remarkable historical novel Il Gioco dei Regni The Game of Kingdoms traces her family history from the early 20th century through the post war period chronicling their personal lives and their involvement in Italian politics and Jewish intellectual life. Subsequent works such as Taccuino di un ultimista Notebook of a Meek Woman and Passami il sale Pass me the Salt tackle the difficulties of negotiating life as a political figure wife and mother of a disabled son. In works such as Eppure And Yet Le Merendanze Afternoon Snacks and Una storia chiusa A Closed Story as well as Il lupo mercante The Mongering Wolf and Via Ripetta 155 155 Ripetta Street she again intertwines private experiences and public circumstances raising questions related to gender class disability the elderly and sustainability. This is the first volume that brings together the critical aspects of Clara Sereni's work providing a comprehensive view of the writer the intellectual the politician and the woman. As we reflect on the 20th century Sereni's long spanning writing career stands as an important document of its struggles its conflicts and like Sereni herself its enduring idealism.

Hybridity in Life Writing Arnaud Schmitt, 2024-04-28 This book offers new perspectives on text image hybridity in the context of life writing. Each chapter explores the very topical issue of how writers and artists combine two media in order to enhance the autobiographical narrative and experience of the reader. It questions the position of images in relation to text both on the page and in terms of the power balance between media. It also shows how hybridity operates beyond a semantic and cultural balance of power as the combination of text and images are able to produce content that would not have been possible separately. Including a range of life writing and different visual media from paintings and photography to graphic memoirs and social media this edited collection investigates the point at which an image whether fixed or moving enters the autobiographical act and confronts the verbal form.

The Legacy of the Italian Resistance Philip Cooke, 2011-05-09 This book adds to this growing body of scholarship on the Italian Resistance by analysing for the first time how the three wars are represented over the broad spectrum of Resistance culture from 1945 to the present day. Furthermore it makes this contribution to scholarship by bridging the gap between historical and cultural analysis. Whereas historians frequently use literary texts in their writings they are often flawed by an insufficiently nuanced understanding of what a literary text is. Likewise literary critics who have discussed writers such as Calvino and Vittorini or films such as Pais and La notte di San Lorenzo only refer in passing to the historical context in which these works were produced. By fusing historical and cultural analysis author Philip Cooke makes a unique contribution to our understanding of a key period of Italian history and culture The Legacy of Empire Sharon Worley,2018-11-14 The shadow of Napoleon never left the nineteenth century and continued to haunt the histories and wars that followed in curious and circuitous ways The empires of Napoleon I and his nephew Napoleon III set the stage for the pendulum swing of time from revolution to its antithesis empire The Anglo Italian style developed as a reaction to these empires the widespread devastation caused by power and the monuments it created Lord Byron Percy Bysshe Shelley Margaret Fuller Elizabeth Barrett Browning Harriet Hosmer William Wetmore Story Nathaniel Hawthorne Henry James and Vernon Lee responded to recurring themes in Italian Risorgimento politics and culture in the post Napoleonic era and Second Empire periods Many of them were ex patriots who adopted Italy as their new home Their unique contribution aligns them with a style that is distinguished by the themes of national independence feminism the abolition of slavery and republicanism They perceived their own time in terms of parallel dimensions in which the past and present converged in national histories at home in America and England and in Italy their new ideal state The language of their new nationalism evolved from the chronological study of Ancient Rome up to the Renaissance and the style of both revolution and empire neoclassicism while their perspective was largely shaped by a reactionary contrast between the empires of Napoleon I and III and an ideal state they envisioned for Italy New Saints in Late-Mediaeval Venice, 1200-1500 Karen E. McCluskey,2019-10-08 This book focuses on the comparatively unknown cults of new saints in late mediaeval Venice These new saints were near contemporary citizens who were venerated by their compatriots without official sanction from the papacy In doing so the book uncovers a sub culture of religious expression that has been overlooked in previous scholarship The study highlights a myriad of hagiographical materials both visual and textual created to honour these new saints by members of four different Venetian communities The Republican government the monastic orders mostly Benedictine the mendicant orders and local parishes By scrutinising the hagiographic portraits described in painted vita panels written vitae passiones votive images sermons and sepulchre monuments as well as archival and historical resources the book identifies a specifically Venetian typology of sanctity tied to the idiosyncrasies of the city s site and history By focusing explicitly on local typological traits the book produces an intimate and complex portrait of Venetian society and offers a framework for exploring the lived religious experience of late mediaeval societies beyond the lagoon As a result it will be of keen interest to scholars of Venice lived religion hagiography mediaeval history and visual culture Italian Crime Fiction Giuliana Pieri,2011-10-15 Italian Crime Fiction is the first study in the English language to focus specifically on Italian detective and noir fiction from the 1930s to the present The eight chapters include studies on some of the founding fathers of the Italian tradition and mainstream writers The volume has a particular focus on the new generation of crime writers Women's Studies Index, 2000 Gale Group,2001-08 The Arrivals Naomi Gladish Smith,2004 This novel follows the journey of a group of souls as they arrive in the afterlife and discover that it s not quite what they expected it would be Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02
