Give Your Child A Better Start:

Start Your Business in 7 Days James Caan, 2012-03-01 Work for yourself in just one week with Britain's most dynamic entrepreneur Everybody wants to be an entrepreneur Every single day of my life I am bombarded by people with pitches But 90% of new businesses fail because their founders failed to ask themselves the simplest of questions I can save you years of wasted time and thousands of pounds of wasted money by giving you the ammunition to ask the right questions and helping you make the decision that is right for you I will show you how to spend a maximum of seven days deciding if your idea is workable and bankable How to say I'm in but equally importantly to have the courage to say I'm out How to become your own Dragon Each piece of advice in this book is based on my thirty years of starting businesses You will find all the fundamental ingredients for any new company whatever sector you want to be in whatever size of business you have in mind along with the tools to make it work Answer all the tough questions I am going to get you to ask yourself and you will have a business that genuinely has a chance of success You can be one of the 10% of businesses that do make it James Caan James Caan is one of the UK's most successful and dynamic entrepreneurs having built and sold businesses since 1985 After dropping out of school at sixteen and starting his first business in a Pall Mall broom cupboard armed with little more than charm and his father's advice Caan went on to make his fortune in the recruitment industry founding the Alexander Mann Group a company with a turnover of 130m A 2003 graduate of Harvard Business School Caan's most recent endeavour has been to set up private equity firm Hamilton Bradshaw Caan hit our screens when he joined the panel of the BBC's Dragons Den in 2007 He is a regular in the national and business press advises on various Government programmes and initiates numerous philanthropic projects via the James Caan Foundation

Principles Of Abilities And Human Learning Michael J.A. Howe, 2012-10-02 This book is about human abilities and the ways in which people acquire and extend them It contains many useful facts about people's learning and the mental processes that make it possible Chapter one looks at the kinds of events that create learning and identifies some important general principles of human learning Chapter two examines the capabilities that children gain in their early years They acquire a number of basic capacities that they can draw upon throughout life These include language reading and numerical abilities The acceleration of early abilities is also considered Chapter three raises a number of intriguing questions about abilities What exactly are they What are their most important characteristics How can different capabilities and items of knowledge become joined to one another The answers are surprisingly different from what common sense predicts Chapter four Considers The Important Contributions Of Motivation A Person Has To Have good reasons for engaging in learning activities Motivation supplies incentives for doing whatever is necessary in order to make learning happen Chapter five investigates more advanced attainments It looks at the effects of practising and other ways in which individuals extend their expertise The use of memory aids and learning techniques is examined Other topics include the influence of intelligence creativity the possible roles of innate gifts and talents and child prodigies and geniuses The best way to apply discoveries concerning learning and the acquisition of abilities is to use them for our own daily activities Chapter six addresses the question of how to learn and study more effectively It introduces ways of reading more effectively and gives advice on improving writing skills and studying for exams The aim here is to help the reader to succeed better at gaining needed capabilities
