The Metamorphoses of Kinship Maurice Godelier, 2012-03-03 With marriage in decline divorce on the rise the demise of the nuclear family and the increase in marriages and adoptions among same sex partners it is clear that the structures of kinship in the modern West are in a state of flux In The Metamorphoses of Kinship the world renowned anthropologist Maurice Godelier contextualizes these developments surveying the accumulated experience of humanity with regard to such phenomena as the organization of lines of descent sexuality and sexual prohibitions In parallel Godelier studies the evolution of Western conjugal and familial traditions from their roots in the nineteenth century to the present The conclusion he draws is that it is never the case that a man and a woman are sufficient on their own to raise a child and nowhere are relations of kinship or the family the keystone of society Godelier argues that the changes of the last thirty years do not herald the disappearance or death agony of kinship but rather its remarkable metamorphosis one that ironically is bringing us closer to the traditional societies studied by ethnologists

The Flow of Life James J. Fox, 1980 Indonesia east of Bali is perhaps the least known of all major cultural areas of Southeast Asia Yet the anthropology of the region has long held a prominent place in the development of structuralist theories of marital exchange and symbolic classification Falling in a distinguished lineage running from van Wouden to Levi Strauss to Rodney Needham The Flow of Life presents a comprehensive set of essays by a distinguished group of international scholars which provides both a full picture of this culturally rich area and an important extension of earlier structuralist theory This volume is bound to become the standard source on the social anthropology of eastern Indonesia But it is a work of more than regional significance providing a variety of empirical resources to address the questions which lie at the bottom of much structuralist thought about mind and society what is the nature of symbolic thought how does consciousness intertwine with society and ecology what is the difference between primitive and modern society

THE GOLF PRO HAS Heart: Secrets of Couples Still in Love After 50 Years & A Private Look Behind the Curtain of The Professional Golf Tour John A. Gehrisch, 2023-11-01. Readers have referred to this book as The most important relationship book ever written. Naming only a few, this book identifies secrets on: How to identify a perfect mate, How to improve a struggling relationship, How to potentially prevent a relationship from collapsing, How to improve and keep exciting an existing relationship, How to build a more solid foundation for faithful happiness, The formula for Happy Loving Long Term Relationships. Have you ever wondered how some unique couples could be married for over 50 years and still be so much in love? What is the secret? Tour Professional John A. Gehrisch, inspired by his parents' half-century relationship, turned his personal challenges into a success formula by studying such couples. The process exposed 18 common traits in all those relationships. He shares those findings and a lot more within. As children, we learn that trying to put a square object in a round hole of the same size will never work. A piece of wrong shape and description just will not fit together, even if we try to force it. When we pause and analyze what works, what does not work, and why, we begin to assemble the piece in perfect harmony. Anticipating that the same can be applied to human relationships, John sets out to track down and understand the secrets formula that only a few couples experience in life and reveals it within. Having played tour golf, John includes a look behind the curtain of professional golf, including stories with tour champions like Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Butch Baird, Gary Player, Bill Johnston, Shelley Hamlin, Anne Marie Palli, and others, making it an interesting read for golfers and non-golfers alike.
