Part of the Signature Series line of Thomas Nelson Bibles. Kitawa Literary Fragments Giancarlo M. G. Scoditti, 2025-03-31. The Nowau oral texts collected in this volume were recorded by Scoditti during the several years of fieldwork on Kitawa Island, Papua New Guinea, devoted mainly to understanding the mental mechanisms followed by the image creators that are the makers of the kula ceremonial canoes, the poets, the magicians, the female and male singers who perform a poetic text orally written by a poet to an oral score composed by a musician. With these early works, Scoditti identifies within Kitawa culture a clear distinction between the author and the performer, interpreter of a given oral text, be it a verbal and a non-verbal one, a distinction that has called into question the hypothesis that in a culture that does not know or use any form of phonetic writing, a text is composed at the time of its performance so that composition and performance would coincide. A first result of his interpretation is Kitawa: A linguistic and aesthetic analysis of visual art in Melanesia 1990, De Gruyter Mouton; then Kitawa oral poetry. An example from Melanesia 1996, ANU Press; Notes on the cognitive texture of an oral mind: Kitawa, a Melanesian culture 2012, Sean Kingston Publishing; and now Kitawa Literary Fragments: How Storytelling Shapes Spacetime in a Melanesian Matrilineal Culture.

My Shouting, Shattered, Whispering Voice Patrice Vecchione, 2020-05-05. The ultimate writing guide that is a helping hand to anyone who dreams of telling their truth through words on a page. Ellen Bass, author of Indigo. This book gives us endless ways to access our creative selves and shows us how to shape our experiences into poetry. This book reassured me that we all have the capacity to create something beautiful. Marcelo Hernandez Castillo, author of Children of the Land. Ever had an emotion or experience you wanted to express but didn't know how? This guide by Patrice Vecchione encourages new writers of all ages to find their voices, step up and speak their truths and articulate what matters to them most, both personally and politically, whether it be boldly to an outside audience or just privately for themselves. Young adults are reading and writing and performing poetry more than ever before. Written in short, easy-to-digest chapters by the editor of Ink Knows No Borders, My Shouting, Shattered, Whispering Voice includes prompts and inspiration, writing suggestions and instruction, brief interviews with some current popular poets such as Kim Addonizio, Safia Elhillo, and others, and poem excerpts scattered throughout the book. My Shouting, Shattered, Whispering Voice offers ways to express rage, frustration, joy, and sorrow, and to substitute apathy with creativity, usurp fear with daring, counteract anxiety with the joy of writing one word down and then another to express vital but previously unarticulated thoughts. Most importantly, here you can discover the value of your own voice and come to believe that what you have to say matters. Haggai and Malachi Stacy Davis, 2015-11-10. Reading Haggai and Malachi in conversation with feminist theory, rhetorical criticism, and masculinity.

studies reveals two communities in different degrees of crisis The prophet Haggai successfully persuades a financially strapped people to rebuild the temple but the speaker in Malachi faces sustained resistance to his arguments in favor of maintaining the priestly hierarchy Both books describe conflicts among men based upon social class and those who claim to speak for God find their claims and with them God's presumably unquestionable authority as the ultimate male contested From the Wisdom Commentary series Feminist biblical interpretation has reached a level of maturity that now makes possible a commentary series on every book of the Bible It is our hope that Wisdom Commentary by making the best of current feminist biblical scholarship available in an accessible format to ministers preachers teachers scholars and students will aid all readers in their advancement toward God's vision of dignity equality and justice for all The aim of this commentary is to provide feminist interpretation of Scripture in serious scholarly engagement with the whole text not only those texts that explicitly mention women A central concern is the world in front of the text that is how the text is heard and appropriated by women At the same time this commentary aims to be faithful to the ancient text to explicate the world behind the text where appropriate and not impose contemporary questions onto the ancient texts The commentary addresses not only issues of gender which are primary in this project but also those of power authority ethnicity racism and classism which all intersect Each volume incorporates diverse voices and differing interpretations from different parts of the world showing the importance of social location in the process of interpretation and that there is no single definitive feminist interpretation of a text
