Giving Up Poetry With Allen Ginsberg At Hollyhock:

Giving Up Poetry Trevor Carolan, 2001 In May 1985 author Trevor Carolan was offered the chance to attend a workshop with Allen Ginsberg at Hollyhock Farm on Cortes Island British Columbia For Carolan a journalist aspiring poet and fan of Ginsberg's poetics the opportunity couldn't be turned down Giving Up Poetry recounts Carolan's transformation under Ginsberg's influence and reveals an intimate portrait of Ginsberg as an icon and inspiring leader as well as a man of appetites disappointments wisdom and lusts

I Celebrate Myself Bill Morgan, 2007-09-25 In the first biography of Ginsberg since his death in 1997 and the only one to cover the entire span of his life Ginsberg's archivist Bill Morgan draws on his deep knowledge of Ginsberg's largely unpublished private journals to give readers an unparalleled and finely detailed portrait of one of America's most famous poets Morgan sheds new light on some of the pivotal aspects of Ginsberg's life including the poet's associations with other members of the Beat Generation his complex relationship with his lifelong partner Peter Orlovsky his involvement with Tibetan Buddhism and above all his genius for living

The Beats and the Academy Erik Mortenson, Tony Trigilio, 2023-04-01 The Beats and the Academy marks the first sustained effort to train a scholarly eye on the dynamics of the relationship between Beat writers and the academic institutions in which they taught Rather than assuming the relationship between Beat writers and institutions of higher education was only a hostile one The Beats and the Academy begins with the premise that influence between the two flows in both directions Beat writers' suspicion of established institutions was a significant aspect of their postwar countercultural allure Their anti-establishment aesthetic and countercultural stance led Beat writers to be critical of postwar academic institutions that tended to dismiss them as a passing social phenomenon Even today Beat writing still meets resistance in an academy that questions the relevance of their writing and ideas But this picture like any generalization is far too easy The Beat relationship to the academy is one of negotiation rather than negation Many Beats strove for academic recognition and quite a few received it And despite hostility to their work both in the postwar era and today Beat works have made it into syllabi conference presentations journal articles and monographs The Beats and the Academy deepens our understanding of this relationship by emphasizing how institutional friction between the Beats and institutions of higher education has shaped our understanding of Beat Generation literature and culture and what this relationship between Beat writers and the academy might suggest about their legacy for future scholars

The Goddess in the Garden Carolyn Zonailo, 2002 We're back in the garden but something's changed This is the Garden of the Great Mother Goddess where the drama of relationships between women as daughters mothers sisters and between women and men as lovers and friends casts a surprising light on the concept of Paradise Celtic Highway Trevor Carolan, 2002 Celtic Highway is a memory book a poetic journey in search of roots from Hawaii and China to the Yorkshire moors and B C s rugged coast Trevor Carolan s poems celebrate familial love fatherhood work and a poet s engagement with life at the edge of the West Coast rainforest Canadian Book Review Annual , 2003 Quill & Quire , 2001 Io celebro me stesso.
