Glance Of Countess Hahn Hahn Down The Danube:

The Glance of Countess Hahn-Hahn (down the Danube) Peter Esterhazy, 1999-11 In The Glance of Countess Hahn Hahn down the Danube Peter Esterhazy blends magic realism and travel narrative to dazzling effect Esterhazy's hero is a professional Traveller commissioned like Marco Polo by Kubla Khan to undertake a voyage of discovery and to prepare a travelogue about the Danube Communicating his experiences through terse and at times surreal telegrams to his employer the Traveller weaves a rich tapestry of narratives evoking the dreamlike past and the precarious present of a disappearing world Moving from the Black Forest to the Black Sea Esterhazy takes the reader on a fascinating European journey of the imagination down the Danube River through Vienna Budapest and beyond the delta where the mighty river empties into the sea Filled with allusion fable fantasy history and autobiography The Glance of Countess Hahn Hahn down the Danube is Peter Esterhazy at his scintillating adventurous best The Glance of Countess Hahn-Hahn Péter Esterházy, 1994 A professional Traveler sends reports back to his employer about his journey down the Danube The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers European Cinema after the Wall Leen Engelen, Kris Van Heuckelom, 2013-11-21 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 transnational European cinema has risen not only in terms of production but also in terms of a growing focus on multiethnic themes within the European context This shift from national to trans European filmmaking has been profoundly influenced by such historical developments as the collapse of the Iron Curtain and the subsequent ongoing enlargement of the European Union In European Cinema after the Wall Screening East West Mobility Leen Engelen and Kris Van Heuckelom have brought together essays that critically examine representations of post 1989 migration from the former Eastern Bloc to Western Europe uncovering an array of common tropes and narrative devices that characterize the influences and portrayals of immigration Featuring essays by contributors from backgrounds as divergent as film studies Slavic and Russian studies comparative literature sociology contemporary history and communication and media studies this volume will appeal to scholars of film European history and those interested in the impact of migration diaspora and the global flow of cinematic culture The Oxford Guide to Contemporary World Literature John Sturrock, 1997 opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2004-05-28 National literary histories based on internally homogeneous native traditions have significantly contributed to the construction of national identities especially in multicultural East Central Europe the region between the German and Russian hegemonic cultural powers stretching from the Baltic states to the Balkans History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe which covers the last two hundred years reconceptualizes these literary traditions by de emphasizing the national myths and by highlighting analogies and points of contact as well as hybrid and marginal phenomena that traditional national histories have ignored or deliberately suppressed The four volumes of the History configure the literatures from five angles 1 key political events 2 literary periods and genres 3 cities and regions 4 literary institutions and 5 real and imaginary figures The first volume which includes the first two of these dimensions is a collaborative effort of more than fifty contributors from Eastern and Western Europe the US and Canada The four volumes of the History comprise the first volume in the new subseries on Literary Cultures

Geocriticism B. Westphal, 2011-05-23 Geocriticism provides a theoretical foundation and a critical exploration of geocriticism an interdisciplinary approach to understanding literature in relation to space and place Drawing on diverse thinkers Westphal argues that a geocritical approach enables novel ways of seeing literary texts and of conducting literary studies Globalizing Eastern Europe Gilad Ben-Nun, Katja Castryck-Naumann, Lena Dallywater, 2025-08-21 For far too long views of Eastern Europe as a negligible and peripheral region have shaped popular perceptions of this part of the world Presenting new research Globalizing Eastern Europe Politics Culture and Economics from the 18th to the 21st Century offers refreshing arguments to counter such misconceptions Global politics and international law have been profoundly shaped by the experiences and expertise that emanated from this region Migration to and from Eastern Europe has fostered deep ties with neighbouring and distant societies as have this area s literature and music The importance of its agricultural development has reverberated in the global economy This volume recasts Eastern Europe as a global region It shows how people from this part of the world shaped the global and how in turn the global shaped them Authors from a range of disciplines chart century long traditions of entanglements and contemporary interactions In doing so this book further enriches the perennial debates regarding this region s spatial boundaries Blue River, Black Sea Andrew Eames, 2011-02-08 The Danube is Europe s Amazon It flows through more countries than any other river on Earth from the Black Forest in Germany to Europe's farthest fringes where it joins the Black Sea in Romania Andrew Eames journey along its length brings us face to face with the Continent's bloodiest history and its most pressing issues of race and identity As he travels by bicycle horse boat and on foot Eames finds himself seeking a bed for the night with minor royalty hitching a ride on a Serbian barge captained by a man called Attila and getting up close and personal with a bull in rural Romania He meets would be kings and walks with gypsies and finally rows his way beyond the borders of Europe entirely Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Europe Since 1945 Bernard A.
