Another Way Stephen Lewis, Matthew Wesley Williams, Dori Grinenko Baker, 2020-01-22 Another Way describes a new way of leadership for the 21st Century one that inspires people to delve deeply into their own selves and that creates a mysterious relatedness among strangers When this leadership happens we remember people are created to experience community to find joy in one another and to create a better world out of a deep reservoir where the soul resides Written by the leaders of the Forum for Theological Exploration the internationally recognized leadership incubator for emerging Christian leaders Another Way will shape the way you look at yourself your leadership and the communities that hold you accountable to making the world a better place

Prechtel, 2012-04 Much has been written about the practice of one to one spiritual directions but much less about small group communities that offer in depth mutual spiritual support and guidance to its members But small groups are most likely the more usual setting for spiritual companionship and have strong biblical theological and historical foundation in the Christian tradition This book offers a detailed presentation of ten small group models plus guidance in group leadership dynamics It also presents material related to group retreat work spiritual guidance with organizations and peer supervision consultation model for supporting leaders of spiritual companionship groups and retreats Church leaders spiritual directors and educators are looking for the kinds of resources this book provides to assist them in understanding and leading groups and retreats

Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus Joseph H. Hellerman, 2017-11-09 Many of us long to experience the fullness of God and his purpose for our lives Not a whole lot of us ever do The reason is that we have departed in some significant ways from the biblical view of Christian life and growth The New Testament highlights the communal missional and eschatological aspects of our walk with God We grow in our faith as individual Christians to the degree that we are a deeply rooted relationally in a local church community that is b passionately playing its part in God's grand story of Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration and c intently anticipating the summing of all things in Christ when Jesus returns In recent decades American evangelicals have traded away community outreach and the Bible's teaching about eternity future for the pursuit of individual religious experience in the here and now Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus traces this departure from biblical Christianity through recent decades of popular evangelical trends and reminds us that faith centered on community mission and the story line of Scripture remains the key to the spiritual formation of the individual Christian I'd Say Yes God If I Knew What You Wanted Nancy Reeves,2001 What do you want from me God If you have ever struggled with this question but have not found a way to answer it then this book is for you Real life stories from 75 men and women open up a world of spiritual discernment practices inviting you to find one that works for you Easy to read yet rich with information this book draws on faith traditions as diverse as Baha I Buddhist Christian Islamic Jewish Sikh and Sufi Stories from every day people living everyday lives are interspersed with biographical accounts from C S Lewis Albert Schweitzer Shoghi Effendi Mahatma Ghandi Matsuo Basho Thomas Merton and Mother Teresa Over 40 discernment concepts and methods are illustrated including prayer worship pilgrimage labyrinth Enneagram I Ching pendulum angels the medicine wheel and the use of sacred texts Suitable for individual use this book lends itself to group settings such as workshops or retreats Blessing Our Goodbyes Kathie Quinlan,2011-05-01 When it is our time is there any one of us who would not hope for a gentle ending to our lives and a peaceful death Yet for many this longing remains elusive Fears and apprehensions cloud our understanding of what is involved in the getting there Many of us choose not to think about death or even consider preparing for this second of our universal human experiences This death unease can lead to our avoiding being with a dying family member or friend sadly missing the precious chance to say goodbye It may also prevent us from taking on the challenging but vastly rewarding role of caregiver It is important to know you do not have to be alone These lessons learned from the dying themselves will show you how the final journey lived fully can be the most extraordinary of your life And yes your goodbyes can be blessed in ways you could never have imagined Leadership and Listening Donald E. Zimmer,2011-06-22 Church leaders must fundamentally change the way they view leadership governance and management in their organizations if they are to take seriously the need to listen to God s desires before acting In Leadership and Listening readers will find encouragement and specific suggestions for re imagining church governance and management Zimmer observes that the contemporary church is rooted in both the kingdom of God and the systems and cultures of government and business Most people who serve in governing and management roles in the church in the United States today have been formed in the corporate world and acculturated to parliamentary process As a result many church governing boards are about business rather than their primary task discerning God s desires for the part of the church they serve Through research with more than one hundred church leaders Zimmer learned that the church and the business community possess many insights and resources that can help boards shift toward a focus on seeking first the desires of God s heart and then responding effectively By drawing on the guidance Zimmer offers a church board can transform itself from a group that manages the day to day affairs of the church to one that makes listening prayer worship reflection and community the first priority Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 Today's Parish ,1988 AB Bookman's Weekly ,1996 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1987 Random Harvest James Hilton,1961 Random Harvest John S.
