and social tensions and also opportunities for joy hope and empathy Featuring an exciting ensemble of both established and new writers the stories invite readers to think seriously about the world around them with urgent contemporary challenges such as social inequality and mental health as well as age old frictions in personal relationships and friendships As this slate of characters grapples with crisis loss and what it means to hold each other close in a rapidly changing Singapore we are invited to ponder if this is indeed how we live now should we continue in this vein

Writing War, Writing Lives Kate McLoughlin, Lara Feigel, Nancy Martin, 2018-04-19 War affects life writing and lives affect war writing The traditional forms of life writing memoir biography letters diaries buckle under the strain of war War writing has fewer traditional forms but exists at a similar extreme The eight chapters in this book written by leading and up and coming scholars in the field illuminate the creative innovations improvisations and implosions which happen when the demands of writing war and writing lives collide Central to all is the question of authenticity how can wars and lives be known and who can speak of them with authority This volume has a generous chronological and generic range beginning in the early 1800s and stretching to 21st century texts and covering letters diaries fiction fakeries poetry biography testimony songs objects and digital media The mix of authors is similarly varied Thomas Hardy W H Auden and Elizabeth Bowen rub shoulders with Yousif M Qasmiyeh a contemporary Palestinian poet Farah Baker a Gazan teenager and the writers behind the pen names Araki Yasusada and Jiri Kajan This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice

Love Stories Adam Sexton, 2003 The love affair between the book world and the tennis world has become legendary For years great authors have lauded the storylike quality of this beloved sport Like a great novel tennis features a protagonist and antagonist a clear conflict and resolution and a beginning middle and an end Love Stories a literate and eloquent collection of short stories excerpts from novels and screenplays brings together some of the most evocative writing on tennis by the best of these masters Written by classic novelists like Vladimir Nabokov and John Updike as well as rising young stars many of these stories dramatize issues of class and status to this day competitors at Wimbledon are referred to as Ladies and Gentleman as well as exploring issues of race and love and sex These writings are arranged by topic with sections on men s and women s singles mixed doubles even a round robin of on court murders selected from tennis mysteries Love Stories will engage all tennis fans and fiction lovers with sparkling reflections from such superstar writers as Ellen Gilchrist from The Land of Dreamy Dreams on Country Club Competition Martin Amis from The Information on Gentleman s Singles Margaret Atwood The Man from Mars on Ladies Singles John Updike Separating on Match Point David Foster Wallace from Infinite Jest on Junior Tennis Anne Lamott from Crooked Little Heart on Cheating

Good and Balanced Ethan Laughman, 2020-03-01 Set on the field of play or maybe just its memory these stories of the sporting life range beyond the expected to include such pursuits as yoga billiards horse racing cards and boxing Here even iconic sports like football basketball and baseball get a fresh take through stories that might feature a losing coach a woman hoopster or a groundskeeper rather than a star player Whether front and center as a story's driving force or as a backdrop for other concerns the skill, cunning, and aggression on display here are familiar to all of us as players, willing or not, in all manner of contests.
