G. Jones, 2013-03-21 Originally published in 1938 this book presents a social history of eighteenth century elementary education The main focus is on the different reactions of philanthropists in England Scotland Ireland and Wales to the movement for establishing schools on a religious basis for the children of the poor Intended to draw attention to an often marginalised area the text provides a detailed analysis of the ideologies behind charity schools and the various difficulties they encountered A detailed bibliography appendices and illustrative figures are also included This book will be of value to anyone with an interest in eighteenth century history and the role of charity schools in the development of education Notes and Queries , 1929 Farming, Fascism and Ecology Philip Coupland, 2016-09-19 The life of Jorian Jenks 1899 1963 has great potential to upset settled assumptions Why did a sensitive and intelligent man from a liberal family become a fascist How did a Blackshirt go green The son of an eminent academic from his childhood onwards Jenks instead longed to farm Lacking the means to do so he worked as a farm bailiff and then in New Zealand as a government agricultural instructor Finally a legacy permitted him to come home and become a tenant farmer Struggling to survive in the economic depression of the 1930s he became an author and activist for rural reconstruction Then having lost faith in the established parties he joined the British Union of Fascists Becoming one of the Blackshirts leading figures he was imprisoned without trial during the war On his release Jenks returned to the struggle this time in the cause of ecology becoming a pioneer of today s organic movement and a founder of the Soil Association This book draws on an extensive range of sources a large proportion of which were previously unseen by historians For the first time it portrays the private and public life of this unusual man revealing many hitherto un glimpsed facets of Jenks life the charity school movement , Cotswold Arts and Crafts Architecture Catherine Gordon, 2020-01-24 Between 1890 and 1930 Arts and Crafts architecture proliferated within the Cotswolds The range and quality of the buildings was exceptional as the region provided the perfect environment for the Movement s ideals and principles to flourish Arts and Crafts architects relished the robust vernacular precedent that served to focus their ideas and stimulate their creativity Its rational basis and dependence on craft skills had lasting relevance and it was no coincidence that the most influential aspect of their work was its emphasis on conservation This new and updated paperback edition provides a guide to the general characteristics of Cotswold Arts and Crafts structures with chapters on the various types of new commissions to be found as well as repair and remodeling projects The final chapter discusses the late flowering of Arts and Crafts work that occurred during the interwar period and beyond and the legacy of this important body of work at a local and national level The English Year Steve Roud,2008-01-31 This enthralling book will take you month by month day by day through all the festivities of English life From national celebrations such as New Year's Eve to regional customs such as the Padstow Hobby Horse procession cheese rolling in Gloucestershire and Easter Monday bottle kicking in Leeds it explains how they originated what they mean and when they occur A fascinating guide to the richness of our heritage and the sometimes eccentric nature of life in England The English Year offers a unique chronological view of our social customs and attitudes Transactions of the Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society for ... Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society,1927 The Economic History Review Ephraim Lipson,Michael Moïsey Postan,H.
