Glitters Flight:

The Glitter Man Suzie Leigh, 2010-04 Hannah Matthew's smooth olive skin turned pasty white and flat. It pulled tightly over her frame leaving behind a flawless but unnatural finish that closely resembled a mannequin's. She reached up to touch her face but her arm locked at the elbow freezing her limb away from her side at a ninety degree angle. It lodged squarely refusing to move any further. She tried to speak but no words would form. A cheesy smile had welded itself onto her lips one that would lead any passer by to believe she was quite content. She could still speak but she couldn't wipe the grin off her face. Her eyes remained frightened and frustrated despite the story her face told. She had become trapped in the body of a mannequin. Others had been destroyed in this building as well. Nick Pearson had come here not long ago and his entire body had become covered in thick scars. It happens to all of us. Every day we live we die a little more. Something makes us scarred and lethargic stealing our vivacity and our quality of life. Is it circumstances or is it our choices. History proves we can't prevent our own demise. But what if there was someone who could. Disaster has followed him from his earliest years when he accidentally shattered a ten carat diamond he was about to cleave. He follows the women home after their first successful major theft and gains their sympathy after an accident. Both women are drawn to the pitiful man with no friends. The second heist involves Sukie Mae Fremont's rubies in Dallas then Claudia Fanchon's sapphires in New Orleans.
