Twenties don't seem to match the bleak mood of Depression era New York Captivated by Nora from her first electric touch Joe despairs when he tries to walk her home and she disappears Finding her again and again will become the focus of his love and his life Nora an aspiring artist and fiercely independent is shocked to find she's somehow been trapped her presence in the terminal governed by rules she cannot fathom It isn't until she meets Joe that she begins to understand the effect that time is having on her and the possible connections to the workings of Grand Central and the astrological phenomenon known as Manhattanhenge As thousands of visitors pass under the famous celestial blue ceiling each day Joe and Nora create a life unlike any they could have imagined With infinite love in a finite space they take full advantage of the Terminal City within a city dining at the Oyster Bar visiting the Whispering Gallery and making a home at the Biltmore Hotel But when the construction of another historic landmark threatens their future Nora and Joe are forced to test the limits of freedom and love

The Classical Age of Islam Marshall G.S. Hodgson, 2024-05-31 First in the comprehensive three volume history of Islamic culture and religion from the award winning scholar and world historian This is a nonpareil work not only because of its command of its subject but also because it demonstrates how ideally history should be written The New Yorker The Venture of Islam has been honored as a magisterial work of the mind since its publication in early 1975 In this three volume study illustrated with charts and maps Marshall G S Hodgson traces and interprets the historical development of Islamic civilization from before the birth of Muhammad to the middle of the twentieth century This work grew out of the famous course on Islamic civilization that Hodgson created and taught for many years at the University of Chicago Volume 1 The Classical Age of Islam analyzes the world before Islam Muhammad's challenge and the early Muslim state between 625 and 692 Hodgson then discusses the classical civilization of the High Caliphate This volume also contains a general introduction to the complete work and a foreword by Reuben Smith who as Hodgson's colleague and friend finished the Venture of Islam after the author's death and saw it through to publication The Venture of Islam Conscience and History in a World Civilization The Classical Age of Islam 1 The Expansion of Islam in the Middle Periods 2 The Gunpowder Empires and Modern Times 3

After the Map William Rankin, 2016-07-01 For most of the twentieth century maps were indispensable They were how governments understood managed and defended their territory and during the two world wars they were produced by the hundreds of millions Cartographers and journalists predicted the dawning of a map minded age where increasingly state of the art maps would become everyday tools By the century's end however there had been decisive shift in mapping practices as the dominant methods of land surveying and print publication were increasingly displaced by electronic navigation systems In After the Map William Rankin argues that although this shift did not render traditional maps obsolete it did radically change our experience of geographic knowledge from the God's eye view of the map to the embedded subjectivity of GPS Likewise older concerns with geographic truth and objectivity have been upstaged by a new emphasis on simplicity reliability and convenience After the Map shows how this change in geographic perspective is ultimately a transformation of the nature of territory both social and political
