European Union Lobbying Changes In The Arena:

European Union Lobbying R. Pedler, 2002-01-30 This book presents 14 case studies of lobbying campaigns recently directed towards influencing policy and decisions in the EU and illustrates the effects of recent wideranging change Treaty revisions have modified the decision making process and balance of power between the EU institutions Company lobbying has changed as cross border mergers have concentrated their activity The balance of power between member state governments and their devolved regions has shifted and the regions are increasingly active players The ability of NGOs to take a recognised part in policy formulation has increased and this change is accelerating The included cases have been selected to illustrate the range of interest groups who lobby and to broaden the coverage of lobbying cases in Europe EU Lobbying: Empirical and Theoretical Studies David Coen, 2013-10-31 EU Lobbying Empirical and Theoretical studies offers an analysis of large empirical studies of interest group politics and Lobbying in Europe Recognising the continued European economic integration globalisation and the changing role of the state it observes significant adaptations in interest mobilisation and strategic behaviour This book assesses the logic of collective and direct action the logic of access and influence the logic of venue shopping and alliance building It addresses specific issues such as the emergence of elite pluralism in EU institutions the pump priming of political action by EU institutions and the growing political sophistication of private and public interests in Brussels Through these issues the book explores how interest groups lobby different European institutions along the policy process and how the nature of policy dictates the style and level of lobbying This book was previously published as a special issue of Journal of European Public Policy Lobbying in the European Parliament Maja Kluger Dionigi, 2016-12-01 This book explains when and how interest groups are influential in the European Parliament which has become one of the most important lobbying venues in the EU Yet we know little about the many ways in which interest groups and lobbyists influence parliamentary politics The author offers insights on four key cases of lobbying based on the analysis of EU documents lobbying letters and 150 interviews She argues that lobbying success depends on a number of factors most notably the degree of counter lobbying issue salience and committee receptiveness These factors are brought together in the framework of Triple I interests issues and institutions to determine the success or failure of lobbying This book will be of use to students and scholars interested in EU politics and governance EU decision making and interest group politics along with policy makers and practitioners Sustaining Industrial Competitiveness after the Crisis L. Ciravegna, 2012-05-22 Adopting a multi disciplinary approach and using the case of the automotive industry as a starting point this volume discusses how industrial companies can remain competitive in spite of the current economic downturn Local Government in the European Union Marius Guderjan, Tom Verhelst, 2021-09-30 This book addresses the bigger picture of local European relations and adds a new dimension to existing studies on multilevel governance and the Europeanisation of local government Drawing from a combination of European integration theories and operational approaches it introduces the idea of an integration cycle in which local government responds to the top down impact of the EU internally horizontally and vertically This volume presents a wide range of empirical examples to demonstrate how local authorities across Europe have changed their practices orientation and preferences and adapted their institutions and organisation Not only do cities towns and counties cooperate with each other across borders and through transnational networks and partnerships but by mobilising formally and informally local actors participate in and influence European governance and contribute to the future trajectories of European integration thereby completing the integration cycle

The Political System of the European Union Simon Hix,Bjørn Høyland,2011-03-01 The 3rd edition of this bestselling core textbook continues to give an innovative approach to analyzing researching and teaching the European Union Starting from the observation that the EU now possesses many of the attributes of modern political systems Hix and H yland argue that we should use the general theories of political science to help understand how the EU works For each of the main processes in the EU political system executive legislative and judicial politics public opinion interest groups and democracy and regulatory monetary and foreign policies the book introduces the key political science tools reviews the relevant theories and applies the knowledge in detailed descriptive analysis The third edition of this highly acclaimed and groundbreaking text has been fully revised and rewritten throughout As well as incorporating new data and the latest research it examines the consequences of key developments in the EU from enlargement to the Lisbon treaty and the 2009 European Parliament election To enhance teaching and learning our companion website is packed with resources for both teachers and lecturers Used together this creates an indispensable and accessible companion to all upper level undergraduate and Master s courses with a focus on EU Politics The methodology used in this book seeks to make the make the political system of the EU accessible to political science students as a whole as well as those specifically studying the EU New to this Edition Fully updated to cover impact of the Lisbon Treaty and latest European Parliament elections More emphasis on explanation and debates in presentation of empirical information More concise and accessible presentation of the latest research and data

Influence and Interests in the European Union Jenny Fairbrass,Alex Warleigh,2003-09-02 Clearly discusses the impact and uses of interest representation in the development of the EU system Examines the complexities of representation at EU level a vital issue for potential lobbyists and interest groups Charts new trends and issues such as enlargement Europeanization and Central and Eastern Europe Contributions by acknowledged experts with a proven track record of research and publication in this field including seven current and past practitioners of EU politics with experience as lobbyists from either institutional NGO or corporate perspectives Places interest representation in its historical and theoretical context The European Union John McCormick,Jonathan Olsen,2013-08-06 A thoroughly revised concise and comprehensive introduction to the structure institutions and policy development of the European Union

Globalisation and EU Policy-making Ian Bartle,2005 Assesses and contrasts the roles of globalisation institutions and ideas on policy making in the EU Views the creation of liberalised European single markets in the telecommunications and electricity supply sectors out of national monopolies as an example of the dramatic transformation of economic organisation across Europe in the last twenty years Connects micro policy making processes in two industrial sectors to macro international political economy Covers the period from the mid 1980s when the single market came on the agenda through the liberalising initiatives in the 1990s to the new regulatory framework in communications in 2002 and the 2003 directive on the full liberalisation of electricity by 2007 Will be of interest to anyone studying globalisation European integration and policy making regulation and policy in utility sectors     Handbook of Public Affairs Phil Harris,Craig S Fleisher,2005-07-15

Drawing on the expertise of leading figures in the field this handbook provides an overview of public affairs and government relations for students CEOs association executives politicians lobbyists and business managers     Interest Group Politics in Europe Jan Beyers,Rainer Eising,William A. Maloney,2013-09-13 Interest organizations have always assumed a prominent place in European politics because they link states with citizens institutionalize the resolution of social conflicts regulate important sectors of the economy and society contribute to workable policy outcomes and socialize members into democratic politics However the plethora of interest group studies that exist have not consolidated our understanding of these actors These analyses have been subject to the vagaries of different theoretical perspectives and vary greatly in their conceptual and methodological frameworks Consequently a not always complementary and fragmented series of findings has emerged This book is a systematic and comprehensive effort at investigating and integrating the state of the art in European interest group research Combining the analysis of interest group politics in the EU with the comparative study of interest organizations the book seeks to identify the areas about which there is consolidated knowledge that are marked by controversies in which considerable uncertainty exists that have been omitted from research programs and that ought to be part of future studies Thereby it provides a general reflection on how the study of interest group politics can be improved by linking it to the comparative study of governance This book was published as a special issue of West European Politics

Civil Society and Governance in Europe William A. Maloney,Jan W. Van Deth,2008-01-01 The research presented in this book based on new primary data demonstrates that in terms of civil society actors adapting to the European political space the Europeanization process has an uneven development This innovative book integrates top down approaches for the study of relationships within the developing EU multilevel system i e the consequences of Europeanization for civil society at the local level and bottom up approaches i e the consequences of civil society for the process of European integration and democracy in the EU The contributors argue that exploration of these recursive linkages requires a rethinking of the relationships between local national and trans national civil society on the one hand and multi level governance on the other In analyzing the opportunities for civil society associations to contribute to European integration and decision making from various perspectives the following findings are presented amongst others engagement with and confidence in the EU compared to national institutions is relatively weak among associational members party elites play a key gatekeeper role in the European space the EU and interest groups have had limited success in stimulating the development of citizen engagement civil society and social capital in various countries In the rapidly expanding field of research on democratic decision making in Europe this book will be welcomed by academics and scholars alike at postgraduate levels and above Experts working in the field of European decision making such as lawyers and lobbyists who are looking for conclusions based on high quality empirical research will also find much in this book to engage them

Britain and the European Union Alistair Jones, 2016-03-07 This updated guide examines the different relationships between the various tiers of government in the UK and the EU and how the EU's powers affect the UK from a range of perspectives It evaluates the role of the media political parties pressure groups social media and the ever changing position of public opinion and places the relationship in its historical context to show how it has evolved over time Each chapter includes an introduction learning goals a glossary likely exam questions helpful websites and suggestions for further reading This new edition has two new chapters Europeanisation and The British Media and the EU includes the fallout from the 2015 UK Parliament general election and the 2014 European Parliament election and draws on freshly updated examples tables and figures updated throughout

Handbook of European Societies Stefan Immerfall, 2009 European integration is one of the most ambitious and socially far reaching developments in world politics and in world economics Against growing opposition and despite increasing social heterogeneity the European Union continues to expand and to acquire new competences But to what extent is the self proclaimed ever closer union among the peoples of Europe a social reality In which ways is the political European project anchored in social developments How does social change impinge upon political integration Societal trends in multi cultural multi ethnic multi lingual and socially diverse Europe have never been studied systematically Handbook of European Societies Social Transformations in the 21st Century sets to rectify this neglect of societal developments in Europe providing a groundwork for the sociology of European integration The book portrays social life and social relations in the enlarged Europe and gives a perspective on the European Union as an evolving social entity Handbook of European Societies is a pioneering source book analyzing the current social patterns on the continent It covers a representative selection of major topics of social concern and sociological relevance such as Collective Action Consumption Identity Power Structure Sexuality Stratification and Well being Each contribution probes key developments in a strictly comparative manner The Handbook thus offers a detailed look into the intricacies of the national societies of Europe and into the prospect of an emerging European society The Editors have enlisted leading researchers to synthesize existing knowledge and to make use of many different data sources in a straight forward style The contributions stay away from jargon simple labeling and sweeping assertions Instead they provide solid and accessible information on a wide variety of social trends and processes within and across European societies

scale study of lobbying strategies and outcomes in the United States and the European Union two of the most powerful political systems in the world Every day tens of thousands of lobbyists in Washington and Brussels are working to protect and promote their interests in the policymaking process Policies emanating from these two spheres have global impacts they set global standards they influence global markets and they determine global politics Armed with extensive new data Christine Mahoney challenges the conventional stereotypes that attribute any differences between the two systems to cultural ones the American a partisan and combative approach and the European a consensus based one Mahoney draws from 149 interviews involving 47 issues to detail how institutional structures the nature of specific issues and characteristics of the interest groups combine to determine decisions about how to approach a political fight what arguments to use and how to frame an issue She looks at how lobbyists choose lobbying tactics public relations strategies and networking and coalition activities Her analysis demonstrates that advocacy can be better understood when we study the lobbying of interest groups in their institutional and issue context This book offers new insights into how the process of lobbying works on both sides of the Atlantic

Bridges between Science, Society and Policy Michael Decker, Miltos Ladikas, 2013-03-09 The Europäische Akademie zur Erforschung von Folgen wissenschaftlich technischer Entwicklungen Bad Neuenahr Ahrweiler GmbH european academy is concerned with the scientific study of the consequences of scientific and technological advance for the individual and social life and for the natural environment The main focus is to examine foreseeable mid and long term processes that are especially influenced by natural and engineering sciences and the medical disciplines The academy fulfills this task by organizing interdisciplinary expert discussions Another important issue of the work of the Europäische Akademie concerns the methodology of Technology Assessment as a general issue This is the main reason that the european academy organized during the past two years a project funded by the European Commission on Technology Assessment Methods and Impact TAMI Together with partners from all over Europe a common understanding of what Technology Assessment TA is supposed to do was developed Most importantly it was acknowledged that the core of any TA activity has to be a sound scientific understanding of the relevant phenomena Communication then is of cordial importance to reach the relevant decision makers as well as the general public It is true that this phase of the TA process has been treated with too little attention for many years The communication processes between scientific advisers and policy makers have hence to be further scrutinized
