Europower The Essential Guide To Europes Economic Transformation In 199:

Europower Nicholas Colchester, David Buchan, 1990 With the Single European Act the last trade barriers within the European community will finally come down in 1992 In Europower two of Europe's leading journalists provide an authoritative inside view of the concept of a truly barrier free Europe and to what degree it is likely to be achieved The Future of Europe Frances K. Scott, 2001 In support of the Academy Assembly the Directorate of Libraries Dean of the Faculty produces a special bibliography of Air Force Academy library materials relevant to the current year's theme The theme for the 2001-2002 academic year is The Future of Europe Integration or Fragmentation This year's bibliography number 98 in the library's Special Bibliography Series was prepared by Frances K Scott Social Sciences Bibliographer and Reference Librarian who has prepared the annual Academy Assembly bibliography for the past ten years Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library, 2001 State-building in Europe Volker Bornschier, 2000-10-05 Why and how was the process of Western European integration relaunched in the 1980s and 1990s This volume suggests a new framework of analysis of the European statebuilding tradition Based on qualitative research including more than 30 interviews with protagonists from EU member states and detailed case studies and policy analyses the genesis of the Single Market programme and the Single European Act ESPRIT technology corporatism biotechnology EU regional and social policy the authors show that new forms of cooperation between political and economic actors have developed both at transnational and supranational level The book shows how the European Commission bureaucratic cabinets national diplomats transnational companies pressure groups and representatives of the regions have set in motion a process that is changing statehood in Europe dramatically This discussion of the origins of this process is a valuable contribution to the debate on the future of Europe in the world system Special Bibliography Series, 1957 European Integration and Supranational Governance Wayne Sandholtz, Alec Stone Sweet, 1998-09-24 The European Union began in 1957 as a treaty among six nations but today constitutes a supranational polity one that creates rules that are binding on its 15 member countries and their citizens This majestic study confronts some of the most enduring questions posed by the remarkable evolution of the EU Why does policy making sometimes migrate from the member states to the European Union And why has integration proceeded more rapidly in some policy domains than in others A distinguished team of scholars lead by Wayne Sandholtz and Alec Stone Sweet offers a fresh theory and clear propositions on the development of the EU Combining broad data and probing case studies the volume finds solid support for these propositions in a variety of policy domains The coherent theoretical approach and extensive empirical analyses together constitute a significant challenge to approaches that see the EU as a straightforward product of member state interests power and bargaining This volume clearly demonstrates that a nascent transnational society and supranational institutions have played decisive roles in constructing the European Union

The Political Economy of Development and Underdevelopment in Africa Toyin Falola, Jessica Achberger, 2013-06-07 While

Africa is too often regarded as lying on the periphery of the global political arena this is not the case African nations have played an important historical role in world affairs It is with this understanding that the authors in this volume set out upon researching and writing their chapters making an important collective contribution to our understanding of modern Africa Taken as a whole the chapters represent the range of research in African development and fully tie this development to the global political economy African nations play significant roles in world politics both as nations influenced by the ebbs and flows of the global economy and by the international political system but also as actors directly influencing politics and economics It is only through an understanding of both the history and present place of Africa in global affairs that we can begin to assess the way forward for future development

Preparing America's Foreign Policy for the 21st Century

David Boren,Edward Joseph Perkins,1999 A select group of analysts practitioners and scholars assembled in 1997 and 1999 at the University of Oklahoma to lay the groundwork for a new foreign policy This carefully edited collection includes those major policy statements and discussions by the best minds of our time Index

European Societies

Thomas Boje,Thomas P. Boje,Bart van Steenberg,Sylvia Walby,1999 This book brings together many of the leading experts in the field to ask whether recent developments in Europe have brought about a higher level of integration or are causing increased divergence and differences between countries

Politics, Subsidies and Competition

Kostas A. Lavdas,Maria M. Mendrinou,1999 Politics Subsidies and Competition focuses on the interplay of political economic and institutional legal factors in the formation of European competition policy with particular emphasis on European Union control of national subsidies This book demonstrates the increasing significance of the EU in the management of European economies It argues that state subsidization is the only remaining effective form of state intervention because in the integrated European market state aid ranging from investment and export aid to special tax concessions has become the only instrument that can be used to favour and protect national industries This makes the control of state subsidization more important than ever and the European Community s attempts to increase this control since the mid 1970s tell an intriguing story of fierce intergovernmental bargaining business lobbying and increasingly assertive EC EU institutions The argument is supported by evidence of the evolution of European policy and by case studies of sectoral aid regimes and their transformation in interaction with EU policy This book will be of use to students and scholars of the economics and politics of Western Europe and regional and public policy
