Assessment And Testing In The Primary School Colin Conner, 2003-10-04 First Published in 2004 The terms assessment and testing conjure up all sorts of images in most people s minds Rows of desks in quiet halls working to the clock trying to remember the answers to obscure and sometimes irrelevant questions Recent invitations to teachers to reflect upon an occasion when they remember being assessed or tested drew up long forgotten memories of the 11 plus or taking a first driving test Often these were memories tinged with unhappiness sadness and a feeling of failure Assessment for many of us has been an emotional experience and it is not surprising that we should reject facing children with such experiences too early in their lives This book looks at assessment as a positive experience in the primary classroom as a fundamental feature of teaching and successful learning

Understanding Assessment in Primary Education Sue Faragher, 2014-08-04 Understanding assessment and being able to use it effectively is at the heart of successful primary teaching Aware of current policy and research this book looks at the role and purpose of assessment within education as well as providing detailed practical guidance on the main types of classroom assessment including formative summative formal and informal methods Real classroom examples and activities illustrate the practical uses benefits and limitations of each form of assessment enabling you to feel confident about implementing these strategies in your own teaching Coverage includes The assessment planning cycle Innovative forms of assessment including portfolios debates role play and mind mapping Assessment of learners with diverse needs including SEN and EAL The use of technology in assessment Engaging children through self assessment and peer assessment This is essential reading for all primary initial teacher education courses including university based PGCE PGDE BA QTS BEd school based SCITT School Direct Teach First and employment based routes into teaching and beginning teachers Sue Faragher is Head of Al Basma British School a large private school in Abu Dhabi

Assessment and Learning Edward Conrad Wragg, 1997 The assessment of what children have learned has become an important issue in education in the last few years and this book addresses both formal and informal ways of assessing children's work and progress. The inclusion of practical activities, discussion topics, photographs, cartoons and case examples makes this a very user friendly book for both trainee and experienced teachers in primary and secondary schools.

Assessment in the Primary Classroom Sarah Earle, 2019-05-20 Essential reading to support principled assessment decisions in the classroom. Assessment has become an increasingly complex area for primary schools in recent years with schools and academy trusts trying to create their own ways of assessing without levels. Trainee teachers find it hard to understand key principles in assessment when practice in each of their school experiences is so varied. This essentials text supports trainee and beginning teachers to understand the current context and consider essential principles for good practice in primary assessment. The book features explanations of key terminology, includes practical examples from classrooms and schools, supports teacher assessment literacy, explores the assessment system as a whole, covers formative and summative assessment, pupil progress data and moderation.

Assessment in Primary and Middle Schools MARTEN. SHIPMAN, 2021-09-05 Effective evaluation of a pupil's performance and of resources available is a vital part of successful teaching. Originally published in 1983, this non-statistical guide aims to help teachers organise their work so as to improve their assessment of their pupils and also to analyse their own management efforts. A model is developed showing how teachers can progressively structure their work to increase the objectivity of their assessment. The use of published tests and the production of tests by teachers is covered, but the focus throughout is on the part played by assessment in the organisation of learning. The steps recommended are arranged so that the first yield the largest return. But none requires any statistical expertise or a large investment of time. The second part of the book shows how schools can be evaluated by their staff. School organisation, staff development and the curriculum are given special attention in this step by step guide to effective and rewarding school assessment.

Evaluation for School Development David Hopkins, 1989 Teachers and other educationalists are increasingly expected to carry out evaluations of new initiatives. David Hopkins provides a guide to evaluations, the primary focus of which is on practice.

The New Handbook of Teacher Evaluation Jason Millman, Linda Darling-Hammond, 1989-12-01 Now available in paper, this version is the first comprehensive look at the process of selecting, assessing and assisting teachers in nearly a decade. Since the publication of the first Handbook, the profession of teaching has witnessed dramatic change, including a greater awareness of teacher accountability, an increase in teacher testing and the development of teaching incentives. At the same time, the political, social and organizational factors affecting the performance and evaluation of teachers have been subjects of intensive scrutiny. Reflecting these changes, the new Handbook contains 25 new chapters and explores current practices, issues and controversies related to the evaluation of teachers at elementary and secondary levels.

Assessment in Action in the Primary School Colin Conner, 2003-09-02 Assessment has become one of the key issues in primary education over the past 10 years. This edited volume of essays brings together perspectives from all the significant participants involved in assessment in the primary school teachers headteachers LEA advisors inspectors pupils academics and researchers The contributions illustrate effective assessment and examine how it is and can be achieved It will be of interest to school assessment co ordinators deputies and heads following NPQH courses and lecturers on IE courses

Measurement and Evaluation David A. Erlandson, James Mc Namara, Maryanne Mc Namara, 2013-10-31 Written in a conversational style for principals who are not statisticians this book will help you use measurement and evaluation to propel your school towards educational excellence

The Implementation of Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development in Primary Education in Taiwan Chao-Wen Liu, 2011-02-14 Teacher evaluation is an activity of assessing teachers performance It is equivalent to teacher appraisal teacher performance management in England This study explores the complexities of implementing Teacher Evaluation in primary schools in Taiwan It concentrates principally on the development of Teacher Evaluation in Taiwan in the light of international research especially that relating to the English context The philosophical perspective with which this study is most closely aligned is constructivism In particular using qualitative methods of documentary analysis and interviews it explores the nature of Teacher Evaluation and the meaning held by implementers Government publications including books journals and other documentation from public institutions were examined to trace the development of Teacher Evaluation in Taiwan and how it might be influenced by globalisation Interviews were carried out with 3 head teachers and 7 teachers from 3 primary schools in Taiwan and 3 officers from different levels of official organisations A Recommended Model of Teacher Evaluation was synthesised from the review of international research Using the Recommended Model of Teacher Evaluation to evaluate the implementation of Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development in Taiwan the effectiveness of the project was demonstrated However by looking at the empirical data some limitations were observed including deficiencies in the administrative system teachers heavy workload the reluctance of teachers to accept changes and insufficient knowledge of the relevant policy Other obstacles were noted including inadequately trained evaluators the lack of a mechanism for professional dialogue and the incoherence of the educational policy This study shows that most teachers agree with the measures in the Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development implemented by the Ministry of Education although some supplementary measures need to be established in a more sophisticated manner before it can be implemented fully Finally this study further proposes suggestions for a Teacher Evaluation model based on the Recommended Model of Teacher Evaluation the implementation of the current Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development and ideal models mentioned by the interviewees
