Evaluation Of The Illinois Department Of Corrections Gang Free Environment Program:

An Evaluation of the Illinois Dept. of Corrections' Gang-Free Environment Program Laura Gransky, Ernest L.

Cowles, 2000-08 Historically Illinois has reported one of the highest concentrations of prison gang members in the nation In response the Illinois Dept of Corrections IDOC has experimented with a number of gang mgmt strategies In 1996 the IDOC established the state s first experimental gang free prison at the Taylorville Correctional Ctr where only inmates identified as non gang members are housed This study documents the development implementation and operation of this prison Emphasis was placed on documenting the underlying assumptions that guided the development of the gang free environment and assessing the implementation process

51 Michael Tonry, Sandra Bucerius, 2023-01-04 Volume 51 is a thematic volume on Prisons and Prisoners Since 1979 the Crime and Justice series has presented a review of the latest international research providing expertise to enhance the work of sociologists psychologists criminal lawyers justice scholars and political scientists The series explores a full range of issues concerning crime its causes and its cures In both the review and the occasional thematic volumes Crime and Justice offers an interdisciplinary approach to address core issues in criminology Volume 51 of Crime and Justice is the first to reprise a predecessor Prisons Volume 26 1999 edited by series editor Michael Tonry and the late Joan Petersilia In Prisons and Prisoners editors Michael Tonry and Sandra Bucerius revisit the subject for several reasons In 1999 most scholarly research concerned developments in Britain and the United States and was published in English Much of that was sociological focused on inmate subcultures or psychological focused on how prisoners coped with and adapted to prison life Some principally by economists and statisticians sought to measure the crime preventive effects of imprisonment generally and the deterrent effects of punishments of greater and lesser severity In 2022 serious scholarly research on prisoners prisons and the effects of imprisonment has been published and is underway in many countries That greater cosmopolitanism is reflected in the pages of this volume Several essays concern developments in places other than Britain and the United States Several are primarily comparative and cover developments in many countries Those primarily concerned with American research draw on work done elsewhere The subjects of prison research have also changed Work on inmate subcultures and coping and adaptation has largely fallen by the wayside Little is being done on imprisonment s crime preventive effects largely because they are at best modest and often perverse An essay in Volume 50 of Crime and Justice examining the 116 studies then published on the effects of imprisonment on subsequent offending concluded that serving a prison term makes ex prisoners on average more not less likely to reoffend In 1999 little research had been done on the effects of imprisonment on prisoners families children or communities or even except for recidivism on ex prisoners later lives family life employment housing physical and mental health or achievement of a conventional law abiding life The first comprehensive survey of what was then known was published in the earlier Crime and Justice Prisons volume An enormous literature has since emerged as essays in this volume demonstrate Comparatively little work had been done by 1999 on the distinctive prison experiences of women and members of non White minority groups That too has changed as several of the essays make clear What is not clear is the future of imprisonment Through more contemporary and global lenses the essays featured in this volume not only reframe where we are in 2022 but offer informed insights into where we might be heading On Good Authority ,1998
