Principals of Dynamic Schools Sharon F. Rallis, Ellen B. Goldring, 2000-04-15 The second edition continues with Sharon Rallis and Ellen Goldring providing lively and inspiring views of school leadership that is both grounded in reality and compellingly hopeful that this reality can be redefined for the better This book packs more useful ideas about what leadership is and how it works in successfully restructuring schools than any other book now available The authors speak to this topic with a voice that is as passionate and sensitive as it is reasoned and authoritative Rallis and Goldring tell a story based on their extensive case studies and survey studies and on a thorough overview of the research of others They define anew what it means for principals to be in charge The principals they studied were much less concerned with controlling what people did and how they did it and much more concerned with controlling the conditions that enabled others to function in ways that increased the likelihood shared goals would be reached Rallis and Goldring describe and illustrate the behavior of these new principals and the forces that shape their activities Principal Succession Ann Weaver Hart, 1993-01-01 This book examines major issues in theory and research related to leader succession It looks at the persistent problems confronted by people assigned to lead established social and professional groups like those found in schools The author demonstrates how interaction between new leaders and established school organizations shape succession events with illustrations drawn from educational administration and provides a framework for understanding succession as a dynamic and interactive process The Journal of Professional Legal Education , 1993 Core List of Books and Journals in Education Nancy P. O'Brien, Emily Fabiano, 1991-01-09 This list assembles a selected group of approximately 1000 books and journals currently available in the field of education mostly published in the late 1980s All works are in English and almost all are American American government documents and monographs published by UNESCO have also been included

Restructuring Schools W. Lowe Boyd, 2005-08-17 Education reform has become part of a political imperative in a number of developed countries around the world The simultaneous movement to reform schooling and the administrative structures which deliver educational services therefore needs to be studied in order to lay bare its fundamental assumptions This movement has been labelled restructuring and reform although the words carry different meanings in different countries The authors question why this reconstruction occurred at the same time in different places What common themes are emerging in the restructuring movement And in the 1990s where will the movement lead schooling and what essential changes will it effect They explore these questions by examining developments in the USA Canada the UK Australia New Zealand and Japan Preparing Leaders of Nonprofit Organizations William A Brown, Matthew Hale, 2022-07-14 There are more than 1 8 million nonprofits in the United States and at least 3 times that many internationally Workers in these
