kinship networks Each entry point concerns the destructive productive constitution of family life where neglected responsibilities obligations and trust lead not only to broken relationships but also and inevitably to the innovative creation of new ones By connecting the micro politics of the migrant family with the macro politics of the nation state and global conjunctures in general the book argues that securitization and suspicion launched in the name of integration escalate internal community dynamics and processes of family upheaval in unpredicted ways Jaranan Clara van Groenendaal,2012-12-11

The dramatic genre of the horse dance jaranan is part of an age old Javanese tradition displaying wide local and regional variations A striking feature of the performances of the majority of horse dance groups is the appearance of trance dancers These are used as a means of establishing contact with the spirits of the ancestors who continue to play an important part in the lives of their descendants as moral beacons in the solution of problems and the fulfillment of wishes As a consequence of the modernization of society in almost every aspect of life vigorously propagated as it was by the Suharto regime in the period 1966 1998 the trance in horse dancing has been strongly discouraged as an anachronism This has prompted a search for new ways of preserving this dramatic genre for future generations The way the administration of Kediri and a number of local horse dance companies set about solving this problem constitutes a dominant theme of this book To bring the phenomenon of the horse dance in Java into sharper focus a brief account is given of its history as well as a description of the great variety of horse dance groups of and a range of aspects of this genre Archive of Tongues

Moon Charania,2023-06-30 In Archive of Tongues Moon Charania explores feminine dispossession and the brown diaspora through a reflection on the life of her mother Drawing on her mother s memories and stories of migration violence sexuality queerness domesticity and the intimate economies of everyday life Charania conceptualizes her mother s tongue as an object of theory and an archive of brown intimate life By presenting a mode of storytelling that is sensual and melancholic piercing and sharp Charania recovers otherwise silenced modes of brown mothers survival disobedience and meaning making that are often only lived out in invisible intimate spaces and too often disappear into them In narrating her mother s tongue as both metaphor for and material reservoir of other ways of knowing Charania gestures to the afflictions limits and failures of feminist queer and postcolonial scholarly interrogations and the consequences of closing the archive of the brown mother Still Standing Natalie Queiroz,2019-06-13

Natalie Queiroz was eight months pregnant when she was stabbed by her partner in the most vicious attack imaginable In the space of nine minutes and in broad daylight Natalie was stabbed twenty four times with a carving knife She suffered horrific wounds to her lungs liver stomach and uterus whilst the knife missed her baby by a margin of two millimeters before the arteries in her wrists were methodically severed by the hooded attacker she finally realised was her partner and the father of her unborn child After heroic intervention by passers by and police the attack was brought to an end but her ordeal was not over An air ambulance rescue was launched and against all medical odds Natalie and her baby survived but not without life changing physical and emotional damage Still

Standing is the story of one life shattering event what came before that fateful day what happened on it and how one woman and her baby survived to rebuild and heal together after it At once a shocking story of evil manipulation and violence and a truly moving reminder that a life can be pieced back together no matter how bad the damage this book will empower and inspire anyone who has ever faced true adversity to rise up and stand tall Balancing Two Worlds Andrew

Garrod, Robert Kilkenney, 2007 Balancing Two Worlds highlights themes surrounding the creation of Asian American identity This book contains fourteen first person narratives by Asian American college students most of whom have graduated during the first five years of the twenty first century Their engaging accounts detail the students very personal struggles with issues of assimilation gender religion sexuality family conflicts educational stereotypes and being labeled the model minority Some of the students relate stories drawn from their childhood and adolescent experiences while others focus more on their college experiences at Dartmouth Art & Letters: Indian and Pakistan , 1951 Vols for 1925 include the society s annual reports and accounts of meetings 15th
