The Monthly Literary Advertiser ,1859      Winslow Homer and the Illustrated Book David Tatham,1992 This volume examines the illustrations of American artist Winslow Homer 1836 1910 Homer s paintings and illustrations have both received much attention but the author focuses his attention on Winslow s book illustrations alone Although the author does not deny that Winslow s illustrations are uneven in quality he points out many fine qualities of the best ones and argues that Homer's approach to painting was greatly influenced by his work as an illustrator. Chapters on Homer's illustrations for juvenile fiction, poetry history etc. illustrate this point. This work further discusses Homer's art in relation to the publishers' demands, reading fashions among the book buying public and the technology of printing. The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, 1981. The English catalogue of books, 1864. The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1864. Volumes for 1898-1968 include a directory of publishers. Books that Shaped Our Minds University of British Columbia. Library. Special Collections and University Archives Division, 1998. The UBC Library houses several collections of old rare and significant children's books now totalling some ten thousand items. Books That Shaped Our Minds is a fully annotated listing of three hundred and sixty-four treasures primarily from Britain and the United States. They were chosen and arranged to document the effect of particular works on the psyche and the sociology of the child from the late seventeenth century to the present. Independently, the books described are pieces of social history. Taken together, the notes in the catalogue constitute a narrative history of the books that have formed young minds for centuries. In conjunction with the same compilers previously published Canadian Children's Books 1799-1939, this catalogue permits a comprehensive and comparative view of the development of English language books for children.
