World War the term technology came to signify both the anxieties of possible annihilation in a rapidly changing world and the exhilaration of accelerating cultural change Technomodern Poetics examines how some of the most well known writers of the era described the tensions between technical literary and media cultures at the dawn of the Digital Age Poets and writers such as Allen Ginsberg Charles Olson Jack Kerouac and Frank O Hara among others anthologized in Donald Allen's iconic The New American Poetry 1945 1960 provided a canon of work that has proven increasingly relevant to our technological present Elaborating on the theories of contemporaneous technologists such as Norbert Wiener Claude Shannon J C R Licklider and a host of noteworthy others these artists express the anxieties and avant garde impulses they wrestled with as they came to terms with a complex array of issues raised by the dawning of the nuclear age computer based automation and the expansive reach of electronic media As author Todd Tietchen reveals even as these writers were generating novel forms and concerns they often continued to question whether such technological changes were inherently progressive or destructive With an undeniable timeliness Tietchen's book is sure to appeal to courses in modern English literature and American studies as well as among fans of Beat writers and early Cold War culture      Evergreen Review, 1966      Library

Julian Pefanis presents a new view of the history of poststructuralism heterology and the origins of postmodernism by analyzing three important French theorists Georges Bataille Jean Baudrillard and Jean Fran ois Lyotard Beginning with the introduction of Hegel in French postmodernist thought largely but not exclusively through the thought of Georges Bataille Pefanis argues that the core problematics of postmodern aesthetics history exchange representation and writing are related to Bataille's reconceptualization of the Hegelian framework Pefanis explores how Bataille was influenced by Hegel Marcel Mauss Freud and Nietzsche and traces the effects of this influence on the analyses and critiques of later postmodernists most notably Lyotard and Baudrillard Finally employing these postmodernists along with Freud and Jacques Lacan Pefanis discusses discourse on postmodernism and its relation to Freud's concept of the death drive This intellectual history makes valuable contributions to the debates over what the postmodern may mean for intellectual and political activity      The

Reading the Obscene

Jordan Carroll,2021-11-23 With Reading the Obscene Jordan Carroll reveals new insights about the editors who fought the most famous anti censorship battles of the twentieth century While many critics have interpreted obscenity as a form of populist protest Reading the Obscene shows that the editors who worked to dismantle censorship often catered to elite audiences composed primarily of white men in the professional managerial class As Carroll argues transgressive editors such as H L Mencken at the Smart Set and the American Mercury William Gaines and Al Feldstein at EC Comics Hugh Hefner at Playboy Lawrence Ferlinghetti at City Lights Books and Barney Rosset at Grove Press taught their readers to approach even the most scandalizing texts with the same cold calculation and professional reserve they employed in their occupations Along the way these editors kicked off a middle class sexual revolution in which white collar professionals imagined they could control sexuality through management science Obscenity is often presented as self shattering and subversive but with this provocative work Carroll calls into question some of the most sensational claims about obscenity suggesting that when transgression becomes a sign of class distinction we must abandon the idea that obscenity always overturns hierarchies and disrupts social order Winner of the 2022 MLA Prize for Independent Scholars sponsored by the Modern Language Association
