Every Man For Herself:

everyman M Shelly Conner,2021-07-20 Eve Mann arrives in Ideal Georgia in 1972 looking for answers about the mother who died giving her life A mother named Mercy A mother who for all of Eve s twenty two years has been a mystery and a quest Eve s search for her mother and the father she never knew is a mission to discover her identity her name her people and her home Eve s questions and longing launch a multigenerational story that sprawls back to the turn of the twentieth century settles into the soil of the South the blood and souls of Black folk making love and life and fleeing in a Great Migration into the savage embrace of the North Eve is a young woman coming of age in Chicago against the backdrop of the twin fires and fury of the civil rights and Black Power movements a time when everything and everyone it seems longs to be made anew At the core of this story are the various meanings of love how we love and most of all whom we love everyman is peopled by rebellious Black women straining against the yoke of convention and designated identities explorers announcing their determination to be and to be free There is Nelle Eve s best friend and heart who claims her right both to love women and to always love Eve as a sister and friend Brother Lee Roy professor and mentor gives Eve the tools for her genealogical search while turning away from his own bitter harvest of family secrets Mama Ann the aunt who has raised Eve and knows everything about Mercy offers Eve a silence that she defines as protection and care But it is James and Geneva two strangers whom Eve meets in Ideal who plumb the depths of their own hurt and reconciliations to finally give Eve the gift of her past a reimagined present and finally her name

The Play of Everyman Hugo von Hofmannsthal,1917 The Fortunes of Everyman in Twentieth-century German Drama Brian Murdoch,2022 Death still comes to Everyman but this study of three twentieth century German plays shows the harder challenge of living without salvation in an age of war and unprecedented mass destruction Death comes to everyone and in the late medieval morality play of Everyman the familiar skeleton forces the universalized central figure to come to terms with this Only his inner resources in the forms of Good Deeds and Knowledge ensure that he repents and is redeemed Three important twentieth century German plays echo Everyman Toller s Hinkemann Borchert s The Man Outside and Frisch s The Arsonists Firebugs but the unprecedented scale of killing in the First and Second World Wars changed the view of death while in the Cold War the nuclear destruction literally of everyone became a possibility Brian Murdoch traces the heritage of Everyman in the three plays in terms of dramatic effect changes in the image of Death and especially the problem of living with existential guilt Death now over fed still has to be faced but Everyman has the harder problem of living with the awareness of human wickedness without the possibility of salvation All three plays have tended to be viewed in their specific historical contexts but by viewing them less rigidly and as part of a long dramatic tradition Murdoch shows that all present a message of lasting and universal significance They pose directly to the theater audience questions not just of how to cope with death but how to cope with life
