Every Man His Way Readings In Cultural Anthropology:

Every Man His Way Alan Dundes, 1968 Collection of articles on many subjects Dictionary of Concepts in Cultural Anthropology Robert H. Winthrop, 1991-11-18 The field of cultural anthropology describes and interprets the thought and behavior of contemporary and near contemporary societies Inherently pluralistic it offers a framework in which the distinctive perspectives of each cultural world can be appreciated Robert Winthrop's dictionary describes the major concepts that have shaped the discipline both historically and theoretically It sets modern anthropology in its proper context within the broader intellectual tradition Eighty entries review the key concepts culture race nature symbolism adaptation the primitive etc that have established the fundamental problems and issues guided research and served as the focus for debate in key areas of the discipline The entries which range from 2 000 to 6 000 words in length are both thorough in treatment and contemporary in relevance Some entries are primarily of historical significance while others describe recent developments Each entry contains an annotated bibliography and a guide to additional reading on the subject While this is not primarily a technical lexicon many terms have been glossed and explained Designed to be useful to students of anthropology this dictionary will assist those in other disciplines to find their way through the anthropological labyrinth

The Psychoanalytic Study of Society, V. 18 L. Bryce Boyer, Ruth M. Boyer, Stephen M. Sonnenberg, 2018-12-07 Opening with a critical appreciation of Alan Dundes M Carroll and Dundes's own cross cultural study of the cockfight Volume 18 includes chapters on psychoanalysis and Hindu sexual fantasies W Doniger the modern folk tale The Boyfriend's Death M Carroll a gruesome Eskimo bedtime story R Boyer the homosexual implications of Argentinean soccer M Suarez Orozco and the symbolism of a Malaysian religious festival E Fuller The ^ATruth of Myth Tok Thompson, Gregory Schrempp, 2020-02-03 This series presents an innovative and accessible overview of the world's mythological traditions The inaugural volume provides a theoretical introduction to the study of myth while the individual case studies from throughout time and around the world help guide the reader through the wondrous complexity and diversity of myths and their widespread influences in human cultures societies and everyday lives I Heard It Through the Grapevine Patricia A. Turner, 2023-11-15 I Heard It Through the Grapevine explores how rumors that run rife in African American communities concerning such issues as AIDS the Ku Klux Klan and FBI conspiracies translate white oppression into folk warnings and are used by the community to respond to a hostile dominant culture I Heard It Through the Grapevine explores how rumors that run rife in African American communities concerning such issues as AIDS the Ku Klux Klan and FBI conspiracies translate white oppression into folk warnings and are used by the community to resp Interpreting Folklore Alan Dundes, 1980-08-22 Dundes has produced a work which will be useful to both students and teachers who wish to broaden their understanding of modern folklore Center for Southern Folklore Magazine It is impossible ever to remain unimpressed with Dundes' excursions however much one may be in disagreement or not with his conclusions Forum for Modern Language

Studies Often controversial Alan Dundes's scholarship is always provocative perceptive and intelligent His concern here is to assess the material folklorists have so painstakingly amassed and classified to interpret folklore and to use folklore to increase our understanding of human nature and culture Literature, Science, and a New Humanities J.

Gottschall,2008-09-29 Literary studies are at a tipping point There is broad agreement that the discipline is in crisis that it is aimless that its intellectual energy is spent that all of the trends are bad and that fundamental change will be required to set things right But there is little agreement on what those changes should be and no one can predict which way things will ultimately tip Literature Science and a New Humanities represents a bold new response to the crisis in academic literary studies This book presents a total challenge to dominant paradigms of literary analysis and offers a sweeping critique of those paradigms and sketches outlines of a new paradigm inspired by scientific theories methods and attitudes The Universal Pattern Within History Rachamim Dayan,2002-09-23 This book is a work of synthesis which argues that an all encompassing blueprint governs the evolution of all parts of our universe In its first half it discerns interdisciplinary symmetry in the early development of history and six other disciplines It then uses this discovery to formulate testable predictions about the form and content of later history In its second half the book attempts to verify these intimations of our more recent past and to envision the human future that lies ahead Contents INTRODUCTION 13 Part I EARLY HISTORY 1

Contemporary Theatre in Mayan Mexico Tamara L. Underiner, 2010-01-01 From the dramatization of local legends to the staging of plays by Shakespeare and other canonical playwrights to the exploration of contemporary sociopolitical problems and their effects on women and children Mayan theatre is a flourishing cultural institution in southern Mexico Part of a larger movement to define Mayan self identity and reclaim a Mayan cultural heritage theatre in Mayan languages has both reflected on and contributed to a growing awareness of Mayans as contemporary cultural and political players in Mexico and on the world's stage In this book Tamara Underiner draws on fieldwork with theatre groups in Chiapas Tabasco and Yucatán to observe the Maya peoples in the process of defining themselves through theatrical performance She looks at the activities of four theatre groups or networks focusing on their operating strategies and on close analyses of selected dramatic texts She shows that while each group works under the rubric of Mayan or indigenous theatre their works are also in constant dialogue confrontation and collaboration with the wider non Mayan world Her observations thus reveal not only how theatre is an agent of cultural self definition and community building but also how theatre negotiates complex relations among indigenous communities in Mayan Mexico state governments and non Mayan artists and researchers

Claiming Space Sheila Bock, 2023-10-09 Claiming Space examines the growing tradition of decorating mortarboards at college graduations offering a performance centered approach to these material sites of display Taking mortarboard displays seriously as public performances of the personal this book highlights the creative playful and powerful ways graduates use their caps to fashion their personal engagement with notions of self community education and the unknown future Claiming the space of these graduation caps is a popular and widespread way that individuals make their voices heard or rather seen in the visual landscape of commencement ceremonies The forms and meanings of these material displays take shape in relation to broader ongoing conversations about higher education in the United States conversations grounded in discourses of belonging citizenship and the promises of the American Dream Integrating observational fieldwork with extensive interviews and surveys author Sheila Bock highlights the interpretations of individuals participating in this tradition She also attends to the public framings of this tradition including how images of mortarboards have grounded online enactments of community through hashtags such as LatinxGradCaps and LetTheFeathersFly as well as what rhetorical framings are employed in news coverage and legal documents in cases where the value of the practice is both called into question and justified As university administrators and cultural commentators seek to make sense of the current state of higher education these forms of material expression offer insight into how students themselves are grappling with higher ed s promises and shortcomings Claiming Space is a meaningful contribution to folklore cultural studies media studies and education

Ecology of the Body Joseph Lyons,1987 Ecology of the Body presents an argument for describing our behavior in accordance with the ways we experience our bodies Increasingly psychologists are recognizing that human beings show great diversity in the ways they perform the vast repertoire of human behaviors such as perceiving reasoning remembering forgetting that we may well possess not simply different levels of intelligence but also different forms of it in varying combinations just as we show differing degrees of emotion goal directed activity and creativity Lyons puts forward a hypothesis in which he argues for the utility of understanding these differences as stylistic variations that are inseparable from our physical experience of ourselves

Folk narrative among Ukrainian-Canadians in western Canada Robert B. Klymasz,1973-01-01 This paper presents a survey of the Ukrainian Canadian folk narrative corpus as recorded in Western Canada in the 1960s The four introductory chapters discuss the various changes illustrated by the collected field materials A total of seventy four selected folk narratives and other samples of oral traditions appear in the appendices Published in English

The Spirituality of the Igbo People of Nigeria as an Example of Religious Modernization in a Global World Henry CHUKWUDI OKEKE,2020-02-18 If there is no religion in the world the world would more or less become a jungle The world will be inhuman Religion touches all aspects of human life Identifying God s will in our world today has become a major problem for many religions of the world In the past in Igbo Traditional Religion human sacrifice as well as the killing of twins were practised For the Igbo traditionalists then that was the will of the deities and equally not against God s will But following the encounter of Igbo Traditional Religion with Christianity these are no longer practised Misinterpretation of God s will by some religions of the world has given rise to religious violence religious extremism fanaticism and terrorism we are experiencing today in the world For these problems to be resolved it is pertinent that the study of various religions be taken seriously This study should be aiming at better understanding co existence respect for one another and frequent inter religious dialogues among the various religions of the world When this is achieved the believers of various religions would realize that many are worshipping one God and their desire is to communicate with Him although they may approach Him differently

The Theory of Archetypes James S. Larson,2004 The central thesis of the book is that man s perception of mind body and spirit has influenced his thinking in the social sciences Mind body and spirit serve as archetypes for social thinking and social institutions The book applies these concepts to major theories in the social sciences and also suggests ways to improve social institutions and practices by understanding the relationships between mind body and spirit

Explaining Traditions Simon Bronner,2011-08-26 Why do humans hold onto traditions Many pundits predicted that modernization and the rise of a mass culture would displace traditions especially in America but cultural practices still bear out the importance of rituals and customs in the development of identity heritage and community In Explaining Traditions Folk Behavior in Modern Culture Simon J Bronner discusses the underlying reasons for the continuing significance of traditions delving into their social and psychological roles in everyday life from old time crafts to folk creativity on the Internet Challenging prevailing notions of tradition as a relic of the past Explaining Traditions provides deep insight into the nuances and purposes of living traditions in relation to modernity Bronner s work forces readers to examine their own traditions and imparts a better understanding of raging controversies over the sustainability of traditions in the modern world

The Importance of Not Being Earnest Wallace Chafe, 2007-02-01 The thesis of this book is that neither laughter nor humor can be understood apart from the feeling that underlies them This feeling is a mental state in which people exclude some situation from their knowledge of how the world really is thereby inhibiting seriousness where seriousness would be counterproductive Laughter is viewed as an expression of this feeling and humor as a set of devices designed to trigger it because it is so pleasant and distracting Beginning with phonetic analyses of laughter the book examines ways in which the feeling behind the laughter is elicited by both humorous and nonhumorous situations It discusses properties of this feeling that justify its inclusion in the repertoire of human emotions Against this background it illustrates the creation of humor in several folklore genres and across several cultures Finally it reconciles this understanding with various already familiar ways of explaining humor and laughter
