

"Our Investment in friendships' we call our Second Car"

THREE years ago my husband gave me one of my cars," is a common remark. "Of course, I was thrilled at possessing it, but if never changed, some worst happens it was nothing."

Three years ago, Mrs. Mary Maxwell, who lives in the suburbs of New York City, during every afternoon, I was almost confined to my own yard after my husband drove off to town. I made new friends. I could not get to work for other meetings, and I think I missed most of all the activities of the church. I passed the hours with a worried car.

Now, after having my car for two years, I am a different person. I am more busy as a club member, and in the church. Talking and working with other women, hearing their problems, telling them mine, has given me a new zest of life. We all get to know each other and sympathize from their words that we go back to our homecoming with light hearts.

"My husband says that he even sat in a hotel without much he could not do because of his car."

and he calls his "investment in friendships" and that's just what it is!"
