

Employees quiet quit because —

- They feel no one cares about them
- They feel no one encourages their growth
- They see no opportunities to learn and grow
- There is ambiguity among remote and hybrid workers on what is expected of them at work.

 number of AIDS affected youth in the United States the plight of these young people has been largely disregarded This book presents the stories of several young people whose mothers had AIDS or had died from the disease They speak directly about their experiences and their concerns Individual and common themes in their stories are analyzed to gain insight into their problems and to develop an understanding of how best to respond to their needs Some prominent themes shared by the participants are longstanding unstable living arrangements serious conflict with their mothers multiple losses in the youth s lives even before the AIDS crisis the mother s past drug use behavioral problems and difficulties with limits in the family school and the community unsafe sexual behavior and childbearing within a year of the mother s death These issues are exacerbated by the poverty discrimination and violence in the communities in which these and many AIDS affected young people live School Is A Joke Immaculata Chukwunyere,2021-10-28 School Is a Joke Ethnography of Inner City Public School Students Perception and Sensemaking of School and Schooling explored minority and low SES inner city high school students perception and sense making of school schooling learning academic behaviors and academic achievement through an integrated theory of human development learning and achievement The author sought an understanding of the reason behind the persistent academic failure of inner city minority and low SES high school students as well as the academic achievement gap within and between this subgroup of students Conducted in a high poverty high minority comprehensive inner city high school in the south of the United States of America the aim of the study was threefold First the author explored the factors operating in high school students thoughts feelings actions and reactions to school and academic achievement Second she examined the mechanisms by which these factors operate Third she utilized an integrated humanistic paradigm in analyzing student learning and academic behavior the interaction between student characteristics and school processes and the school culture that emerged from the interaction The integrated framework for the study comprised of Bronfenbrenner s bioecological model of human development Bandura s sociocognitive theory of learning and Bourdieu s concept of habitus The study s findings have implication for student learning academic behavior and academic achievement school organization and functioning as well as administrative behavior and school culture Hearings United
