A Course of Study Containing Thirty-two Typical Questions [no. 433-464]. J. S. Lindsey, 1904 A History of Sixteenth Century France, 1483-1598 Janine Garrisson, 1995-06-14 A masterful new survey of sixteenth century France which examines the vicissitudes of the French monarchy during the Italian Wars and the Wars of Religion It explores how the advances made under a succession of strong kings from Charles VIII to Henri II created tensions in traditional society which combined with economic problems and emerging religious divisions to bring the kingdom close to disintegration under a series of weak kings from Francois II to Henri III The political crisis culminated in France's first succession conflict for centuries but was resolved through Henri IV's timely reconnection of dynastic legitimacy with religious orthodoxy Memory's Library Jennifer Summit, 2008-11-15 In Jennifer Summit's account libraries are more than inert storehouses of written tradition they are volatile spaces that actively shape the meanings and uses of books reading and the past Considering the two hundred year period between 1431 which saw the foundation of Duke Humfrey's famous library and 1631 when the great antiquarian Sir Robert Cotton died Memory's Library revises the history of the modern library by focusing on its origins in medieval and early modern England Summit argues that the medieval sources that survive in English collections are the product of a Reformation and post Reformation struggle to redefine the past by redefining the cultural place function and identity of libraries By establishing the intellectual dynamism of English libraries during this crucial period of their development Memory's Library demonstrates how much current discussions about the future of libraries can gain by reexamining their past
