Evaluating Urban and Regional Plans Mark Seasons, 2021-03-01 Effective practitioners in any field understand that lessons from the past underlie successes in the future Which practices have worked before and which haven't What went wrong and what does that teach us Too often however urban and regional planners simply don't know whether or how well planning policies were carried out Evaluating Urban and Regional Plans blends theory and practice to delineate the questions that planners need to ask as they shape the future of Canadian communities Mark Seasons offers a wealth of pragmatic guidance on comprehensive plan evaluation processes and methods Monitoring the outputs and outcomes generated by a plan and gauging their impact ensures that the planning function remains relevant and that resources are used effectively efficiently and equitably As both a primer on plan evaluation practice and an original contribution to theory Evaluating Urban and Regional Plans is an invaluable resource not only for the Canadian planning community but for planners everywhere An Evaluation of Policy-related Research in the Field of Municipal Recreation and Parks Peter John Verhoven, 1975 An Evaluation of Policy-related Research in the Field of Municipal Recreation and Parks: Study critiques Peter J. Verhoven, 1975 Off-site Evaluation of Four Small Urban Parks in Detroit, Michigan Merrie Michelle Carlock, 1983 A Literature Review, 1986 Evaluation of Recreational and Cultural Benefits of Estuarine Use in an Urban Setting Albert Murray Levenson, Gertrude Oxenfeldt, 1971 A Literature Review President's Commission on Americans Outdoors (U.S.), 1986 The Routledge Handbook of Designing Public Spaces for Young People Janet Loebach, Sarah Little, Adina Cox, Patsy Eubanks Owens, 2020-06-03 The Routledge Handbook of Designing Public Spaces for Young People is a thorough and practical resource for all who wish to influence policy and design decisions in order to increase young people's access to and use of public spaces as well as their role in design and decision making processes The ability of youth to freely enjoy public spaces and to develop a sense of belonging and attachment to these environments is critical for their physical social cognitive and emotional development Young people represent a vital citizen group with legitimate rights to occupy and shape their public environments yet they are often driven out of public places by adult users restrictive bylaws or hostile designs It is also important that children and youth have the opportunity to genuinely participate in the planning of public spaces and to have their needs considered in the design of the public realm This book provides both evidence and tools to help effectively advocate for more youth inclusive public environments as well as integrate youth directly into both research and design processes related to the public realm It is essential reading for researchers design and planning professionals community leaders and youth advocates Urban Water Planning Herbert Alfred Swenson, 1972
