Modern Art on Display K. Porter Aichele, 2016-05-19 Modern Art on Display The Legacies of Six Collectors is structured as a sequence of case studies that pair collectors of modern art with artists they particularly favored Duncan Phillips and Augustus Vincent Tack Albert Barnes and Chaim Soutine Albert Eugene Gallatin and Juan Gris Lillie Bliss and Paul C zanne Etta Cone and Henri Matisse G David Thompson and Paul Klee The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century 1915 1960 By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized

Action Art John Gray, 1993-05-30 This comprehensive international bibliography is the first to attempt documentation of this diverse field covering the history of Artist s Performance It focuses on its early twentieth century antecedents in such movements as Futurism Dada Russian Constructivism and the Bauhaus as well as its peak period in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s with such developments as Gutai Fluxus Viennese Actionism Situationism and Guerrilla Art Action Major emphasis is also given to sources on 115 individual performance artists and groups More than 3700 entries document print and media materials dating from 1914 to 1992

Organized for maximum accessibility the sources are also extensively cross referenced and are indexed by artist subject title and author Three appendices identify reference works libraries and archives and addenda material not found in the book text and two others list artists by country and by group or collective

Making a Difference: Volume I and II Sasha A. Barab, Kenneth E. Hay, Nancy Butler Songer, Daniel T. Hickey, 2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth s later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth s construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included

The New Holocaust Galleries at the Imperial War Museum London Stephan Jaeger, James Bulgin, 2025-08-18 In October 2021 Imperial War Museums IWM opened its new Holocaust Galleries in its London branch replacing its first Holocaust Exhibition from 2000 that had become a landmark in British Holocaust memory Because of its comprehensive nature and intricate scenography the new Holocaust Galleries are at the centre of almost all recent major narrative political and ethical debates about Holocaust representation in museums The book provides an ideal global case study understanding the possibilities and limitations of re presenting trauma and violence in museums today and whether Holocaust exhibitions can promote democratic civic or human rights values making it an important resource for museum practitioners public history educators and university researchers alike interested in Historical Museum Memory Holocaust Genocide or Cultural Studies The volume brings together texts written by museum practitioners and academic scholars It is divided in three parts a long essay by James Bulgin Head of Content for the new Holocaust Galleries about the genesis and implementation of the exhibition supplemented with briefer essays by educators and community members involved in the development of the exhibition an extensive interview by Stephan Jaeger with IWM researchers James Bulgin and Suzanne Bardgett and an extensive part with six critical essays by university scholars analysing the new Holocaust Galleries from numerous theoretical angles

What Makes Learning Fun? Deborah L. Perry, 2012-05-04 Although much has been written in recent years on what museum visitors actually experience there is little research backed guidance available for developing meaningful exhibits and programs for specific educational purposes Deborah Perry looks at what we know about the experiences of people in museums and other informal learning settings and then shares a set of tested principles and strategies known as the Selinda Model for the design of effective museum exhibits Along the way she showcases examples of both effective and ineffective exhibit designs drawn from two decades of work in the field
