Even in Sweden Racisms, Racialized Spaces, and the Popular Geographical Imagination, 2015 Even in Sweden Allan Pred, 2011 New Geographies of Race and Racism Caroline Bressey, 2016-04-29 In recent years geographers interested in ethnicity race and racism have extended their focus from examining geographies of segregation and racism to exploring cultural politics social practice and everyday geographies of identity and experience This edited collection illustrates this new work and includes research on youth and new ethnicities the contested politics of race and racism intersections of ethnicity religion and race and the theorisation and interrogation of whiteness Case studies from the UK and Ireland focus on the intersections of race and nation and the specificities of place in discourses of racialisation and identity A key feature of the book is its engagement with a range of methodological approaches to examining the significance of race including ethnography visual methodologies and historical analysis The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell, 2019-08-27 An acclaimed historian examines postwar migration's fundamental role in shaping modern Europe Migration is perhaps the most pressing issue of our time and it has completely decentered European politics in recent years But as we consider the current refugee crisis acclaimed historian Peter Gatrell reminds us that the history of Europe has always been one of people on the move The end of World War II left Europe in a state of confusion with many Europeans virtually stateless Later as former colonial states gained national independence colonists and their supporters migrated to often unwelcoming metropolises The collapse of communism in 1989 marked another fundamental turning point Gatrell places migration at the center of post war European history and the aspirations of migrants themselves at the center of the story of migration This is an urgent history that will reshape our understanding of modern Europe Scandinavia since 1500 Byron J. Nordstrom, 2023-06-27 An updated edition of the definitive history of Scandinavia over the past five centuries Despite certain distinctions and differences the lands of Scandinavia or Norden Sweden Norway Finland Iceland Denmark and the Faroe Islands are united by bonds of culture language and geography and by a shared history that comes richly to life in this landmark work Now in an expanded updated edition this authoritative chronicle of five centuries of Scandinavian history incorporates the geopolitical developments and momentous events that have marked the Nordic world in recent decades Scandinavia since 1500 situates the region's political history within the traditional European chronology in which the long modern period is subdivided into the Renaissance early modern modern and contemporary Within this framework Byron J. Nordstrom traces the various ways in which economic social and cultural ideas and practices have come to Scandinavia from abroad only to be modified and recast in a uniquely Nordic character Long unquestioned national mythologies come under Nordstrom s scrutiny along with historical blind spots and erasures as he ranges from canonical figures like Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden and Christian IV of Denmark to the constitutions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the resistance movements in World War II and the Scandinavian welfare states literary culture and modern design Expanded to include the nature and realities of the increasingly postindustrial economies of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries including environmental concerns integration with Europe globalization and immigration Scandinavia since 1500 offers a comprehensive yet nuanced portrait of this unique region in all its political diplomatic social economic and cultural complexity Cover alt text Bold white title and author name across breathtaking snowy landscape of sun touched cliffs beside a waterway and scattering of homes

Price,2012      The Other of Climate Change Andrew Baldwin,2022-08-31 If the predictions are correct climate change will force millions of people from their homes threatening a future of humanitarian crises political violence and strife In The Other of Climate Change

Andrew Baldwin intervenes in the international political debate about climate change and human migration to tell a different story. He argues that international attempts to govern those who stand to be displaced by climate change are as much or more to do with resuscitating European humanism at a moment in which geophysical phenomena like climate change and the Anthropocene threaten to extinguish the human altogether. Through detailed interpretations of the figure of the climate migrant refugee, Baldwin traces the contours of an emerging form of planetary racial rule, racial futurism unfolding in the context of the climate change crisis. He shows how racial futurism takes shape as a political response to the crisis of humanism that is said to lay at the heart of the climate change crisis. Along the way, he examines numerous themes that are at the forefront of contemporary thinking about climate change and politics, including the political humanism, sovereignty, neoliberalism, the international and race. Ultimately, the book is a plea for scholars, activists, and policymakers to take seriously the way race and racism are bound up with the political discourse on climate change and migration and to ask what this means for the wider political debate about climate change and the future.

Landscape Is...! Gareth Doherty, Charles Waldheim, 2025-02-24. Landscape Is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape. Following on from the previous publication Is Landscape, which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea, this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline, profession, and medium. This book is intended for academics, researchers, and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines. Chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop, disturb, and diversify received understandings of the field. Framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity, the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class, race and gender, power and politics, and more.

Migration, Squatting and Radical Autonomy Pierpaolo Mudu, Sutapa Chattopadhyay, 2016-07-01. This book offers a unique contribution exploring how the intersections among migrants and radical squatter movements have evolved over past decades. The complexity and importance of squatting practices are analyzed from a bottom-up perspective to demonstrate how the spaces of squatting can be transformed by migrants. With contributions from scholars, scholar-activists, and activists, this book provides unique insights into how squatting has offered an alternative to dominant anti-immigrant policies and the implications of squatting on the social acceptance of migrants. It illustrates the different mechanisms of protest followed in solidarity by migrant squatters and Social Center activists when discrimination comes from above or below and explores how different spatialities can be conceived and realized by radical practices. Contributions adopt a variety of perspectives from critical human geography, social movement studies, political sociology, urban anthropology, autonomous Marxism, feminism, open localism, anarchism, and post-structuralism to analyze and contextualize migrants and squatters' exclusion and social justice issues. This book is a timely and original contribution through its exploration of migrations, squatting, and radical autonomy.
