

One Cold Lonely Night

One cold lonely night
One full moon that shines so bright
No bright stars above tonight.
To share with moon's lonely light.

Yesterday I felt like it is forever.
But now it is all comes to never.
How can I go on with a life like this?
When my life, that is you whom I'll always miss.

Now I'm sharing moons loneliness.
Without you here everything is sadness.
Then the clean velvet sky is now filled with dark cloud.
And the moon is now covered with that enigmatic shroud.

The heaven cries as the drops of rain falls.
And so as my eyes and in my cheek it gently rolls.

Every Lonely Night And Other Poems:

Every Lonely Night Maurice R. Draggon, 2000-10-17 An epic journey through the varying thoughts of a young man Every Lonely Night and other poems leads you on a personal yet universal saga of love betrayal and life and its meaning Lonely Nights and Wild Women Frank Cebulski, 2011-11 I have written many Concrete Visual and Shaped CVS poems over the years Most of them were designed to be broadsides or poster poems large and impressive by their size and presence Most of them however were never published commercially because the cost of the artwork and print runs were too expensive for me It is also difficult to find printers who want to set up and run a limited edition of 500 or fewer broadside or poster poems especially if they require careful color registration and special printing and paper The only poem that was printed in the manner I envisioned and planned was Lonely Nights Wild Women Auto Poem State Four This I printed under the imprint of my own press Light Gravity which I founded in 1970 Artwork and camera ready versions were also completed for two other poems included here Elbow and Voyageurs Metropolitains Ten of the CVS poems in this collection were privately printed and distributed by me in 2006 in a special edition I prepared for my friends under the imprint of my own press Light Gravity Berkeley California That was their first limited public appearance Friends who knew about these CVS poems requested that I provide copies for them which I did Some of the recipients of the limited edition are listed in the acknowledgements to this edition For the privately printed edition individually numbered and signed I selected ten CVS poems that I created and designed entirely myself and provided a brief history and background for each poem and an essay on How to Read which I have also included here This commercial edition includes four additional poems previously published in my other books of poems but which I think important to add to this collection of my CVS poems The Bird of Nothing & Other Poems Próspero Saíz, 1993 Awd Isaac, The Steeple Chase, and Other Poems. With a glossary of the Yorkshire Dialect John Castillo, 2023-10-05 In Awd Isaac The Steeple Chase and Other Poems John Castillo invites readers into a richly textured world through his evocative exploration of the Yorkshire landscape and its cultural nuances The collection is distinguished by Castillo's adept use of the Yorkshire dialect which serves not only as a linguistic marker but also as a means of capturing the distinct rhythms and cadences of regional life Through his descriptive and often lyrical style the poems weave together themes of nature nostalgia and the human condition drawing upon traditional forms while infusing them with contemporary relevance offering a unique glimpse into the dialectal heritage of Yorkshire John Castillo a poet rooted in the rich literary tradition of the British Isles has long been fascinated by the intersection of language and place His extensive travels through Yorkshire coupled with his academic background in linguistics and poetry inform this collection Castillo's commitment to authentic representation of regional voices emerges as both a celebration of and an homage to the cultural tapestry that defines his subjects This collection is highly recommended for readers who appreciate the intersection of language culture and landscape Castillo's work not only enriches the poetic canon but also illuminates the beauty and complexity of Yorkshire life making it essential reading for poetry enthusiasts and those seeking to understand the power of regional dialects in literature The country minister, a poem, with other poems Jacob Brettell, 1827

abstract Allen Ginsberg was deeply influenced by Walt Whitman especially by Whitman's major work Song of Myself They both were poets who tried to be a voice for the people and who wanted to experience closeness in a time of growing distance between the people This paper will compare Walt Whitman's Song of Myself with Allen Ginsberg's Howl concerning their intention as well as their big similarities of style and themes even though there is nearly a century between their works The lack of regularity and the many sexual metaphores in Whitman's lyric can also be seen in Ginsberg's poem about his experiences with drug use and its consequences Like Whitman broke with the traditional rules of his time Ginsberg and several of his writer friends did in the mid of the twentieth century Pieces like Howl Kerouac's On the Road or William Burroughs's Naked Lunch were a wake up call for the American people to think about the development of the American society Whitman on his account gave an overview about the diversity of the American people and wanted to support the Democratic beliefs with his epic poem Thus both wanted to change the traditional conformist paths of American politics and human interaction Both works shocked their surroundings profoundly This paper will place the analysis of the two poems in the historic content and focus on criterias like style intention and political background Ginsberg and Whitman both used non metric verses to support their cry for political and sexual freedom and their main focus was the male comradeship or ahesiveness the love they seeked and could not find in their environment For that reason this paper will first concentrate on Whitman and Ginsberg's perspectives and surroundings to see why these two poets share a special bond
