Cairncross,1974-06-18 Cultivating Nature Sarah R. Hamilton,2018-04-15 Winner of the 2019 Turku Book Award from the European Society for Environmental History The Albufera Natural Park an area ten kilometers south of Valencia that is widely regarded as the birthplace of paella has long been prized by residents and visitors alike Since the twentieth century the disparate visions of city dwellers farmers fishermen scientists politicians and tourists have made this working landscape a site of ongoing conflict over environmental conservation in Europe the future of Spain and Valencian identity In Cultivating Nature Sarah Hamilton explores the Albufera s contested lands and waters which have supported and been transformed by human activity for a millennium in order to understand regional national and global social histories She argues that efforts to preserve biological and cultural diversity must incorporate the interests of those who live within heavily modified and long exploited ecosystems such as the Albufera de Valencia Shifting between local struggles and global debates this fascinating environmental history reveals how Franco s dictatorship Spain s integration with Europe and the crisis in European agriculture have shaped the Albufera its users and its inhabitants OECD Economic Surveys: United States 2024

OECD,2024-06-25 The United States economy has continued to expand at a solid pace and price pressures have eased somewhat However a sustained fiscal deficit has contributed to raising public debt as a share of GDP to its highest level since World War II with a further substantial increase in prospect over coming decades as the population ages To put the public finances on a more sustainable path a multi year fiscal adjustment should be enacted that achieves savings on pensions and healthcare and raises taxation including on capital incomes A more medium term oriented and less complicated federal budgeting process would support this At the same time economic growth would benefit from productivity enhancing reforms that promote competition including through maintaining international trade openness and reinforcing relevant skills in the workforce Efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions have accelerated but further policy measures will be needed to achieve emission reduction targets Policy options include a package of broad based carbon pricing taxes and sectoral policies As the climate transition further progresses additional measures will be needed to support displaced workers from fossil fuel
