Ecotourism And Sustainable Development:

Ecotourism and Sustainable Development, Second Edition Martha Honey,1979 Offering an overview of worldwide ecotourism showing how both the concept and the reality have evolved this book examines the growth of ecotourism within the Galapagos Islands Costa Rica Tanzania Zanzibar Kenya and South Africa their political systems and their economic policies Ecotourism and Sustainable Development Satish Chandra Nigam,2006 Eco-tourism and Sustainable Development Ravi Shankar Kumar Singh,2003 There are a number of definitions of word ecotourism people believe that ecotourism is an approach that creates a variety of quality tourism products and services that are environmentally ecologically sustainable economically viable socially and psychologically acceptable Ecotourism Megan Epler Wood,2002 This publication intended as a preparatory document for the World Ecotourism Summit in Quebec 2002 reviews the current status and trends in ecotourism globally the challenges ahead and the lessons learned in over 15 years of ecotourism development involving a broad range of stakeholders The document incorporates comments and suggestions from recognized academics NGO representatives and inter governmental agencies such as WTO IUCN and UNEP It provides an overview of the history and current thinking on what constitutes ecotourism what constitutes an ecotourism experience and considers the components of successful ecotourism The author considers the roles of various stakeholders industry both in originating and destination countries NGOs communities women government development agencies and researchers The document ends with a useful list of resource documents and organizations Sustainable Tourism & the Millennium Development Goals Kelly S. Bricker,Rosemary Black,Stuart Cottrell,2013 Endorsed by The International Ecotourism Society Sustainable Tourism The Millennium Development Goals Effecting Positive Change demonstrates how ecotourism and sustainable tourism can assist in supporting and meeting the goals set forward by the Millennium Development Goals MDG and how it can foster a global partnership for development The text discusses how ecotourism and sustainable tourism can assist in supporting and meeting the MDG by drawing on case studies and examples The final summary chapter discusses how ecotourism and sustainable tourism can assist in supporting and meeting the MDG by 2015 and identifies the challenges and goals that need to be considered in the future In this edition you will find Historical perspective of the development of ecotourism and sustainable tourism The Millennium Development Goals defined Overview of how ecotourism and sustainable tourism can assist in meeting the goals of the MDG Engaging case studies and examples to reinforce the concept Ecotourism and Conservation in the Americas Amanda Stronza,William H. Durham,2008 Using several case studies regional overviews and thematic analyses this book evaluates the pros and cons of ecotourism for communities and ecosystems Focusing on the Americas it draws perspectives from private tour operators non governmental conservation and development organizations local and indigenous communities and tourism researchers Indigenous Ecotourism Heather Zeppel,2006 Drawing on case studies from Pacific Islands Africa Latin America and Southeast Asia this book examines ecotourism enterprises controlled by indigenous people in tribal reserves or protected areas It compares indigenous ecotourism in developed and developing countries and covers cultural ecotours ecolodges and bungalows hunting and fishing tours cultural attractions and other nature based facilities or services      Ecotourism Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1994-12-05 Published in association with the Royal Geographical Society      Ecotourism, NGOs and Development Jim Butcher,2007-03-12 Ecotourism has emerged over the last twenty years not just as a market niche but also as a strategy for combining development with conservation in the developing world Ecotourism NGOs and Development considers the basis for advocacy and argues that it is premised upon a very limited and limiting view of the potential for development Jim Butcher examines the advocacy of tourism as sustainable development in a range of NGOs and within the general literature The research reveals that in spite of the plethora of critical commentaries on the operation of ecotourism projects there is generally an uncritical take on the ideological basis of the projects This book offers a timely critique of key assumptions underlying ecotourism's status as sustainable development arguing that ecotourism as development strategy ties the fate of some of the poorest people on the planet to localized environmental imperatives      Tourism and Sustainable Development University of Waterloo. Department of Geography,Heritage Resources Centre,1993      Tourism Enterprises and Sustainable Development David Leslie,2010-03-17 The tourism industry has increasingly recognized and responded to growing environmental concerns In recent years there has been an emergence of a variety of categories of tourism considered more environmentally friendly green eco tourism and sustainable tourism Much of the literature that has addressed these developments has been orientated to the destination locale or specific to a development These texts have not sought to investigate and examine the response of government national tourist organizations to the international sustainability agenda and the responses actions of tourism enterprises to this greening agenda This text aims to address this remarkable gap This indispensable contribution to the field provides a comprehensive state of the art perspective on progress towards the objectives of sustainable development within the tourism sector across the globe by focusing on the environmental performance and adoption of environmental management systems by tourism enterprises      Sustainable Tourism Rebecca Hawkins,Victor T.C. Middleton,2009-11-03 Looking ahead to the 21st century Sustainable Tourism explains the current thinking process that underlies the emerging international principles of more sustainable development in travel and tourism Using international illustrations it draws on experience and good practice as they are being increasingly applied around the world in the late 1990s In sharp contrast to the problem analysis approach adopted by so many authors to this subject this book is focused on the pro active role the private sector industry can play in partnership with the public sector to achieve solutions through its day to day operations and marketing especially in product enhancement and quality controls Case material contributed by senior professionals in the industry include Kruger National Park South Africa Quicksilver Connections Barrier Reef Australia Edinburgh's Old Town UK Ironbridge Gorge Museum UK Rutland Water UK Industry illustrations are drawn from British Airways Grecotel Inter

Continental Hotels and Resorts the International Federation of Tour Operators P O and TUI Professor Victor Middleton has had some thirty years international experience of marketing practice covering most of the private and public sectors of travel and tourism He holds appointments as Visiting Professor at Oxford Brookes University and University of Central Lancashire Dr Rebecca Hawkins runs her own business specialising in environmental aspects of tourism projects and has undertaken a number of pioneering programmes in this role She was Deputy Director of the World Travel and Tourism Environment Research Centre at Oxford Brookes University where she worked with Victor Middleton
