Hannibal An African Hero:

Hannibal, an African Hero William Jay Jacobs, 1973 A biography of Hannibal whose military tactics baffled the Roman Empire's finest generals and whose campaigns are still studied with interest by military strategists African Missionary Heroes and Heroines Karl Kumm, 1917 African Americans and the Classics Margaret Malamud, 2019-01-24 A new wave of research in black classicism has emerged in the 21st century that explores the role played by the classics in the larger cultural traditions of black America Africa and the Caribbean Addressing a gap in this scholarship Margaret Malamud investigates why and how advocates for abolition and black civil rights both black and white deployed their knowledge of classical literature and history in their struggle for black liberty and equality in the United States African Americans boldly staked their own claims to the classical world they deployed texts ideas and images of ancient Greece Rome and Egypt in order to establish their authority in debates about slavery race politics and education A central argument of this book is that knowledge and deployment of Classics was a powerful weapon and tool for resistance as improbable as that might seem now when wielded by black and white activists committed to the abolition of slavery and the end of the social and economic oppression of free blacks The book significantly expands our understanding of both black history and classical reception in the United States The Red Book of Heroes Mrs. Lang, 2019-12-02 In The Red Book of Heroes Mrs Lang crafts a captivating tapestry of folklore and mythology weaving together tales from various cultures that celebrate bravery virtue and heroism Each story unfolds with a vivid narrative style employing rich imagery and rhythmic prose that engage readers of all ages The book serves as a remarkable reflection of early 20th century literature where the exploration of identity and moral fortitude was paramount encouraging young readers to recognize the heroic potential within themselves amidst the backdrop of a rapidly changing world Mrs Lang a prolific Scottish author and translator was deeply influenced by her childhood fascination with stories and legends With a background in classics and anthropology she sought to preserve and promote mythological tales that might otherwise fade from collective memory Her commitment to children's literature and cross cultural storytelling is evident in The Red Book of Heroes which draws on her extensive research and travels bringing forth characters that inspire courage and resilience This anthology is an essential read for anyone seeking to ignite a love for storytelling in children or adults as it not only entertains but imparts valuable moral lessons Readers will find themselves immersed in the rich history of heroes making it a perfect addition to both personal and academic collections Africana Journal, 1972 Annals of the wars of the 19th century, compiled from the most authentic histories of the period Edward Cust, 1862 Making Champions - How South Africa's sporting heroes are made Michael Jenkins, 2013-08-01 This is a journey into the histories hearts and homes of some of South Africa's greatest sporting heroes Featuring the varied and very human stories of 13 icons of our time including AB de Villiers Ryan Sandes Beast Mtawarira and Bridgitte Hartley the book shows that it takes far more than natural talent to transform an athlete into the best that sport has to offer Making

Champions is an answer to the question what goes into achieving champion status It tells of the battles these sports stars have lost and won in their desire to set themselves apart from others just as gifted and aspiring for success In the process it equips all South Africans aiming to achieve in whatever field with the knowledge of the decisions and sacrifices these athletes have made and the habits they have adopted on their way to the top The Red Book of Heroes Mrs. Lang,1909

Before They Changed the World,2009 Black Spartacus Sudhir Hazareesingh,2020-09-01 Winner of the 2021 Wolfson History Prize Black Spartacus is a tour de force by far the most complete authoritative and persuasive biography of Toussaint that we are likely to have for a long time An extraordinarily gripping read David A Bell The Guardian A new interpretation of the life of the Haitian revolutionary Toussaint Louverture Among the defining figures of the Age of Revolution Toussaint Louverture is the most enigmatic Though the Haitian revolutionary s image has multiplied across the globe appearing on banknotes and in bronze on T shirts and in film the only definitive portrait executed in his lifetime has been lost Well versed in the work of everyone from Machiavelli to Rousseau he was nonetheless dismissed by Thomas Jefferson as a cannibal A Caribbean acolyte of the European Enlightenment Toussaint nurtured a class of black Catholic clergymen who became one of the pillars of his rule while his supporters also believed he communicated with vodou spirits And for a leader who once summed up his modus operandi with the phrase Say little but do as much as possible he was a prolific and indefatigable correspondent famous for exhausting the five secretaries he maintained simultaneously at the height of his power in the 1790s Employing groundbreaking archival research and a keen interpretive lens Sudhir Hazareesingh restores Toussaint to his full complexity in Black Spartacus At a time when his subject has variously been reduced to little more than a one dimensional icon of liberation or criticized for his personal failings his white mistresses his early ownership of slaves his authoritarianism Hazareesingh proposes a new conception of Toussaint s understanding of himself and his role in the Atlantic world of the late eighteenth century Black Spartacus is a work of both biography and intellectual history rich with insights into Toussaint s fundamental hybridity his ability to unite European African and Caribbean traditions in the service of his revolutionary aims Hazareesingh offers a new and resonant interpretation of Toussaint s racial politics showing how he used Enlightenment ideas to argue for the equal dignity of all human beings while simultaneously insisting on his own world historical importance and the universal pertinence of blackness a message which chimed particularly powerfully among African Americans Ultimately Black Spartacus offers a vigorous argument in favor of getting back to Toussaint a call to take Haiti s founding father seriously on his own terms and to honor his role in shaping the postcolonial world to come Shortlisted for the Baillie Gifford Prize Finalist for the PEN Jacqueline Bograd Weld Award for Biography Named a best book of the year by the The Economist Times Literary Supplement New Statesman African American Writers & Classical Tradition William W. Cook,James Tatum,2024-05-31 Constraints on freedom education and individual dignity have always been fundamental in determining who is able to write when and where Considering the singular experience of the African American writer William W Cook and James Tatum here argue that African American literature did not develop apart from canonical Western literary traditions but instead grew out of those literatures even as it adapted and transformed the cultural traditions and religions of Africa and the African diaspora along the way Tracing the interaction between African American writers and the literatures of ancient Greece and Rome from the time of slavery and its aftermath to the civil rights era and on into the present the authors offer a sustained and lively discussion of the life and work of Phillis Wheatley Frederick Douglass Ralph Ellison and Rita Dove among other highly acclaimed poets novelists and scholars Assembling this brilliant and diverse group of African American writers at a moment when our understanding of classical literature is ripe for change the authors paint an unforgettable portrait of our own reception of classic writing especially as it was inflected by American racial politics

History of Europe Archibald Alison,1849 Capitalism and Freedom in African Political Philosophy Grivas Muchineripi Kayange,2020-05-05 This book investigates capitalism and freedom the guiding forces of many political systems in African philosophy It builds on classical and neoliberal capitalism rooted in private property and freedom and argues for the presence of these elements in the traditional and modern African political systems The author argues that while these elements are partly imported from Western capitalists they are equally traceable in African traditional political systems Kayange argues that African politics is marred by a conflict between embracing capitalism and freedom individualism on the one hand and socialism founded on African communitarianism and communist ideas on the other This conflict has affected policy development and implementation and has significantly contributed towards the socio economic and ethical crises that are recurrent in most of the African countries
