Hans Kung Church And Faith In An Ecumenical World:

Hans Küng Karl-Josef Kuschel, Hermann Häring, 1993 To mark the occasion of Hans Kung s sixty fifth birthday this volume was prepared by various writers thinkers and religious leaders to celebrate Kung s life and his theology The contributors themselves illustrate the extent of Kung s influence as they come not only from Switzerland and Germany but from Britain and Ireland the United States Latin America Saudi Arabia and Russia and represent not only Christianity but Judaism Islam and Buddhism Together these contributors reflect on the many circles of thought that have made up Kung s remarkable intellectual career ecclesiology christology theology and ecumenicism first within Christianity and then to the entire world in the form of a global ethic In spite of Kung s continued expansion into wider horizons of faith and thought his basic theological insights have remained remarkably constant throughout his long career He has been less influenced by fashion than many other theologians demonstrating a constancy of conviction and coherence of theological method Kung has however set the fashion for others as he has brought and continues to bring attention to highly topical and critical issues of the current day This volume is a fascinating critical survey of a remarkable theologian s life and thought It provides a real understanding of Kung s theology its strengths and weaknesses its limitations and its riches Finally it aims toward rehabilitating Hans Kung as a Catholic theologian As Heinrich Fries one of the great figures of Roman Catholic ecumenical theology recently asked Is the Catholic church so narrow that it cannot tolerate a man like Kung Or is it so rich that it can dispense with him

A Critical Study of Hans Küng's Ecclesiology C. Simut, 2008-07-07 The book presents the transition from traditionalism to modernism in connection to two of K ng s most important books on ecclesiology Structures of the Church 1962 as representing K ng s traditional theology and On Being a Christian 1974 as a reflection of his modern approach to Christianity

Theology for the Third Millennium Hans Kung, 2011-09-21 In Theology for the Third Millennium renowned theologian Hans K ng distills three decades of groundbreaking scholarship into a seminal work that reaffirms the enduring relevance of theology in our modern world As religion faces constant questioning and frequent attacks K ng s magnum opus offers a profound and intellectually rigorous defense of faith s place in contemporary discourse This monumental volume is a must read for students scholars and intellectuals grappling with the complex intersections of religion philosophy and society K ng s erudite yet accessible analysis invites readers to confront the challenges facing theology head on while illuminating its vital role in shaping our understanding of the human experience

On Being a Christian Hans Küng, 1978 One of this century s most prominent and outspoken theologians affirms the vitality and uniqueness of Christianity by tracing it back to the reality of the historical Christ Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Shalom Church Craig L. Nesson, 2010-08-02 Craig Nesson s important new work retrieves biblical metaphors of the body of Christ and following Dietrich Bonhoeffer sees church today as Christ existing as community To theological probing Nesson then adds contextual analysis and describes the four chief imperatives that mark Christ s presence in the world today peacemaking justice making care for creation and engagement with the other He then unfolds the real life implications of this paradigm of Christian community for the local church structure strategies for partnering public witness and interreligious engagement America In Prophecy John J. Quiles,2008-02 Of the many signs suggesting that the Lord s return is near two in particular are of great interest and have major implications for American Christians Social Issues

Beyond Pentecostalism Wolfgang Vondey,2010-09-23 The Pentecostal Manifestos series aims to speak for and to a rising outward looking generation of Pentecostal scholarship Written by both established and newly emerging scholars the various manifesto volumes are to be creative statements marked by rigorous theological scholarship reflecting a distinctly Pentecostal engagement with wider themes and concerns in Christian thought today The Catholic Church Hans Kung,2007-12-18 In this extraordinary book the renowned Hans Kung chronicles the Roman Catholic Church s role as a world power throughout history He examines great schisms between East and West Catholicism and Protestantism the evolving role of the papacy and the stories of the great reforming popes and the expansion of a global Church infrastructure The book concluded with a searching assessment of how the Catholic faith will confront the immense challenges posed in the new millennium by the scientific community by women questioning their role in the Church and by those seeking reform of the strictures against abortion and contraception The Catholic Church is a landmark book by a controversial and profoundly influential thinker Phenomenology and Intercultural Understanding Kwok-Ying Lau,2016-09-29 This book approaches the topic of intercultural understanding in philosophy from a phenomenological perspective It provides a bridge between Western and Eastern philosophy through in depth discussion of concepts and doctrines of phenomenology and ancient and contemporary Chinese philosophy Phenomenological readings of Daoist and Buddhist philosophies are provided the reader will find a study of theoretical and methodological issues and innovative readings of traditional Chinese and Indian philosophies from the phenomenological perspective The author uses a descriptive rigor to avoid cultural prejudices and provides a non Eurocentric conception and practice of philosophy Through this East West comparative study a compelling criticism of a Eurocentric conception of philosophy emerges New concepts and methods in intercultural philosophy are proposed through these chapters Researchers teachers post graduates and students of philosophy will all find this work intriguing and those with an interest in non Western philosophy or phenomenology will find it particularly engaging The Living Church ,1968 Theological Anthropology, 500 Years after Martin Luther ,2021-07-19 Theological Anthropology 500 years after Martin Luther gathers contributions on the theme of the human being and human existence from the perspectives of Orthodox and Protestant theology These two traditions still have much to learn from each another five hundred years after Martin Luther s Reformation Taking Martin Luther s thought as a point of reference and presenting Orthodox perspectives in connection with and in contradistinction to it this volume seeks to foster a dialogue on some of the key issues of theological anthropology such as human freedom sin faith the human as created in God s image and likeness and the ultimate horizon of human existence The present volume is one of the first attempts of this kind in contemporary ecumenical dialogue The Dialogical Spirit Amos Yong, 2014-10-22 Contemporary proposals for Christian theology from postliberalism to Radical Orthodoxy and beyond have espoused their own methodological paradigms Those who have ventured into this domain of theological method however have usually had to stake their claims vis a vis trends in what may be called the contemporary post al age whether of the postmodern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western or postcolonial varieties This volume is unique among offerings in this arena in suggesting a way forward that engages on each of these fronts and does so from a particularistic Christian perspective without giving up on Christian theology's traditional claims to universality This is accomplished through the articulation of a distinctive dialogical methodology informed by both pentecostalism and evangelicalism one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses Amos Yong here engages with twelve different interlocutors representing different ecumenical religious and disciplinary perspectives The Dialogical Spirit thus not only proffers a model for Christian theological method suitable for the twenty first century global context but also exemplifies this methodological approach through its interactions across the contemporary scholarly academic and theological landscape Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07
