Emigrating from southern Germany in the late fifteenth century, painter Hans Memling sought success in the vibrant commercial hub of Bruges. He found an audience not among the nobility or clergy but in the newly emerging urban middle class: bankers, financiers, politicians and artisans. His work therefore reached a diverse community across Europe: in Castile, England, Genoa, Bologna and Florence. This book explores the social and material aspects of Memling's career and workshop as a window into Bruges's rise as an early modern commercial hub rife with international trade, factional politics, artisanal guilds, devotional conflict and a burgeoning middle class clientele.      Hans Memling in Bruges Anna Koopstra,2024-04-24 The Flemish Primitive artist Hans Memling c. 1435-1494, who played a crucial role in early Netherlandish painting, is inextricably associated with Bruges.
