Happy Hour I Was An Overseas Teacher:

Happy Hour ,      Locating Chinese Women Kate Bagnall, Julia T. Martínez, 2021-03-23 This ground breaking edited collection draws together Australian historical scholarship on Chinese women their gendered migrations and their mobile lives between China and Australia It considers different aspects of women s lives both as individuals and as the wives and daughters of immigrant men While the number of Chinese women in Australia before 1950 was relatively small their presence was significant and often subject to public scrutiny Moving beyond traditional representations of women as hidden and silent this book demonstrates that Chinese Australian women in the twentieth century expressed themselves in the public eye whether through writings in photographs or in political and cultural life Their remarkable stories are often inspiring and sometimes tragic and serve to demonstrate the complexities of navigating female lives in the face of racial politics and imposed categories of gender culture and class Historians of transnational Chinese migration have come to recognize Australia as a crucial site within the Cantonese Pacific and this collection provides a new layer of gendered comparison connecting women s experiences in Australia with those in Canada the United States and New Zealand Locating Chinese Women is a path breaking book By exploring the experiences of Chinese Australian women during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the authors have opened new and compelling avenues of inquiry about the history of Chinese Australian women In this landmark work they have brilliantly recast the history of Chinese Australia Joy Damousi Australian Catholic University Locating Chinese Women breaks new ground in Australian and transnational Chinese women s history by making the lives of remarkable Chinese Australian women visible Photographs testimonies Chinese language newspapers and digitized archives help document the women s agency and activities as they navigate public lives between and within Australia and China during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Shirley Hune University of California Los Angeles and University of Washington      Is Anything Happening? Robin Lustig, 2017-01-17 In the days before mobile phones the internet and 24 hour news channels the easiest way for a British foreign correspondent to find out what was going on in the world was to phone the local office of Reuters news agency and ask Is anything happening That s how the award winning BBC reporter and presenter Robin Lustig started out in journalism working for Reuters as an agency man During a distinguished career spanning more than forty years he watched the world of news change beyond recognition as he reported on terror attacks wars and political coups In this witty and illuminating memoir Lustig looks back on his life as a newsman from coming under fire in Pakistan to reporting on the fall of the Berlin Wall from meeting Nelson Mandela to covering Princess Diana s sudden death Back in the studio Lustig lets us in through the BBC s back door for a candid behind the scenes look at some of his triumphs and disasters working for the nation s favourite broadcaster He writes of his childhood as the son of refugees from Nazi Germany and drawing on thirty years of reporting about the Middle East he comes to a startling conclusion about the establishment of the state of Israel Astute incisive and frequently hilarious Is Anything

Happening is both an irresistible personal memoir and an insightful reflection on world events over the past forty five years

Unofficial Ambassadors Donna Alvah, 2007-04 Those who viewed military families as representatives of their nation believed that they could project a friendlier more humane side of the United States campaign for dominance in the Cold War and were essential to the ideological battle against communism In this untold story of Cold War diplomacy Donna Alvah describes how these unofficial ambassadors cultivated relationships with both local people and military families in private homes churches schools women s clubs shops and other places BOOK JACKET

The Power of a Plant Stephen Ritz, Suzie Boss, 2017-05-02 In The Power of a Plant globally acclaimed teacher and self proclaimed CEO Chief Eternal Optimist Stephen Ritz shows you how in one of the nation s poorest communities his students thrive in school and in life by growing cooking eating and sharing the bounty of their green classroom What if we taught students that they have as much potential as a seed That in the right conditions they can grow into something great These are the questions that Stephen Ritz who became a teacher more than 30 years ago sought to answer in 2004 in a South Bronx high school plagued by rampant crime and a dismal graduation rate After what can only be defined as a cosmic experience when a flower broke up a fight in his classroom he saw a way to start tackling his school s problems plants He flipped his curriculum to integrate gardening as an entry point for all learning and inadvertently created an international phenomenon As Ritz likes to say Fifty thousand pounds of vegetables later my favorite crop is organically grown citizens who are growing and eating themselves into good health and amazing opportunities The Power of a Plant tells the story of a green teacher from the Bronx who let one idea germinate into a movement and changed his students lives by learning alongside them Since greening his curriculum Ritz has seen near perfect attendance and graduation rates dramatically increased passing rates on state exams and behavioral incidents slashed in half In the poorest congressional district in America he has helped create 2 200 local jobs and built farms and gardens while changing landscapes and mindsets for residents students and colleagues Along the way Ritz lost more than 100 pounds by eating the food that he and his students grow in school The Power of a Plant is his story of hope resilience regeneration and optimism
