time in eBook format 978 0 203 59831 3      From Agamben to Zizek Jon Simons,2010-09-10 In these 15 taster essays you will discover the key concepts and critical approaches of the theorists who have had the most significant impact on the humanities since 1990      Diffractional Reading Kai Merten,2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractional Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live      Queering the Museum Nikki Sullivan,Craig Middleton,2019-11-01 Queering the Museum develops a queer analysis of the ways in which museums construct themselves their core business and their publics through the often unconscious use of inherited ways of knowing and doing Providing a critique of both the practices and conventions associated with the modern public museum and the ontological assumptions that inform them the authors consider recent discourse around inclusion in museums and explore the ways this has been taken up in practice Highlighting the limits of particular approaches to inclusion and the failure to move away from a traditional museological paradigm the book outlines an alternative critical museological approach that the authors refer to as queer Providing readers with the critical tools necessary for a profound rethinking of museum practice the book also responds to and problematises the growing call for social inclusion Queering the Museum will appeal to academics students and museum and arts sector practitioners with an interest in critical theory or queer practice It will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of museum studies sociology archaeology anthropology cultural studies media social policy politics philosophy and history      Materialities of Sex in a Time of HIV Annette-Carina van der Zaag,2017-11-30 Contemporary feminist theory has moved into posthuman terrains as feminist theorists utilise human nonhuman relations and a motley crew of nonhuman entities to reinvigorate feminist critique of nature culture dichotomies But what place is left for sex gender relations in this move beyond the human Materialities of Sex in a Time of HIV is written on the cusp of feminist theory of materiality and the analysis of an object at the heart of various sex gender manifestations the vaginal microbicide Vaginal microbicides are female initiated HIV prevention methods currently tested in clinical trials designed as creams rings gels and sponges that women can insert vaginally before having sex to protect themselves against HIV infection The microbicide is developed as a tool for women s empowerment in the HIV epidemic but what happens to feminist ideals when they materialise through biomedical practice This book provides an analysis of the field of microbicide development to articulate the complexity of its promise and material effects and utilises the microbicide as an analytical ally in a provocative debate with contemporary feminist theory Doing Gender in Media, Art and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Iris van der Tuin, Kathrin Thiele, 2009-06-02 Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an introductory text for students specialising in gender studies The truly interdisciplinary and intergenerational approach bridges the gap between humanities and the social sciences and it showcases the academic and social context in which gender studies has evolved Complex contemporary phenomena such as globalisation neo liberalism and fundamentalism are addressed that stir up new questions relevant to the study of culture This vibrant and wide ranging collection of essays is essential reading for anyone in need of an accessible but sophisticated guide to the very latest issues and concepts within gender studies Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an indispensable introduction to third wave feminism and contemporary gender studies It is international in scope multidisciplinary in method and transmedial in coverage It shows how far feminist theory has come since Simone de Beauvoir s Second Sex and marks out clearly how much still needs to be done Hayden White Professor of Historical Studies Emeritus University of California and Professor of Comparative Literature Stanford University US Making War on Bodies Baker Catherine Baker, 2020-03-02 This vibrant collection of essays reveals the intimate politics of how people with a wide range of relationships to war identify with and against the military and its gendered and racialised norms It synthesises three recent turns in the study of international politics aesthetics embodiment and the everyday into a new conceptual framework This helps us to understand how militarism permeates society and how far its practices can be re appropriated or even turned against it An Analysis of Donna Haraway's A Cyborg Manifesto Rebecca Pohl, 2019-06-26 Haraway s A Cyborg Manifesto is a key postmodern text and is widely taught in many disciplines as one of the first texts to embrace technology from a leftist and feminist perspective using the metaphor of the cyborg to champion socialist postmodern and anti identitarian politics Until Haraway s work few feminists had turned to theorizing science and technology and thus her work quite literally changed the terms of the debate This article continues to be seen as hugely influential in the field of feminism particularly postmodern materialist and scientific strands It is also a precursor to cyberfeminism and posthumanism and perhaps anticipates the development of digital humanities Critical Animal Studies John Sorenson, 2014-04-21 Engaging and passionate this contemporary work provokes new ways of thinking about animal human interaction A cutting edge volume of original essays Critical Animal Studies examines our exploitation and commodification of non human animals By inquiring into the contradictions that have shaped our understanding of animals the contributors of this collection have set out to question the systemic oppression inherent in our treatment of animals The collection closes with a thoughtful consideration of some of the complexities of activism as well as a discussion of how to further the progress of animal rights. Analyzing economic, ethical, historical, and sociological aspects of human-animal relations, this interdisciplinary volume is a must read for all upper level students in animal studies, critical animal studies, animals and society, and anthrozoology courses. Features draws together contributions from some of the most active and committed individuals advancing the field of critical animal studies. Takes a revolutionary approach to mainstream animal studies by advocating for justice from a politically progressive abolitionist perspective. Supports curricular objectives of animal studies courses by encouraging students to critically analyze the shifting roles of animals in contemporary Western society and their consequences.

Creative Practice Research in the Age of Neoliberal Hopelessness Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2020-07-06
In Creative Practice Research in Film and Media, creative practitioners discuss their experiences and examine how to retain integrity during times of political and economic battles in higher education and attempts to quantify creative work. It uses the notion of tactical compliance to evaluate whether and when creative practitioners compromise their creativity by working within the higher education system. It offers a space for reflection for both practitioners and theorists and it presents a much needed intervention which will be of interest to all academics engaged with creative practice as research.

Pantheism is the idea that God and the world are identical: that the creator, sustainer, destroyer, and transformer of all things is the universe itself. From a monotheistic perspective, this notion is irremediably heretical since it suggests divinity might be material, mutable, and multiple. Since the excommunication of Baruch Spinoza, Western thought has therefore demonized what it calls pantheism, accusing it of incoherence, absurdity, and with striking regularity, monstrosity. In this book, Mary Jane Rubenstein investigates this perennial repugnance through a conceptual genealogy of pantheisms. What makes pantheism monstrous at once repellent and seductive is that it scrambles the raced and gendered distinctions that Western philosophy and theology insist on drawing between activity and passivity, spirit and matter, animacy and inanimacy, and creator and created. By rejecting the fundamental difference between God and world, pantheism threatens all the other oppositions that stem from it: light versus darkness, male versus female, and humans versus every other organism. If the panic over pantheism has to do with a fear of crossed boundaries and demolished hierarchies, then the question becomes: what a present-day pantheism might disrupt and what it might reconfigure. Cobbling together heterogeneous sources, medieval heresies, their pre- and anti-Socratic forebears, general relativity, quantum mechanics, nonlinear biologies, multiverse, and indigenous cosmologies, ecofeminism, animal and vegetal studies, and new and old materialisms, Rubenstein assembles possible pluralist pantheisms. By mobilizing this monstrous mixture of unintentional God-worlds, Pantheologies gives an old heresy the chance to renew our thinking.

Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy

Molecular Red McKenzie Wark, 2015-04-21 In Molecular Red McKenzie Wark creates philosophical tools for the Anthropocene our new planetary epoch in which human and natural forces are so entwined that the future of one determines that of the other Wark explores the implications of Anthropocene through the story of two empires the Soviet and then the American The fall of the former prefigures that of the latter From the ruins of these mighty histories Wark salvages ideas to help us picture what kind of worlds collective labor might yet build From the Russian revolution Wark unearths the work of Alexander Bogdanov Lenin s rival as well as the great Proletkult writer and engineer Andrey Platonov The Soviet experiment emerges from the past as an allegory for the new organizational challenges of our time From deep within the Californian military entertainment complex Wark retrieves Donna Haraway s cyborg critique and science fiction writer Kim Stanley Robinson s Martian utopia as powerful resources for rethinking and remaking the world that climate change has wrought Molecular Red proposes an alternative realism where hope is found in what remains and endures

Gender, Sexuality, and Space Culture Kat Deerfield, 2019-08-28 Gender Sexuality and Space Culture explores how traditional ideologies of gender and sexuality have influenced the culture of space travel The time since humans first began exploring outer space has been marked by both great technological development and great social upheaval Yet while the rapid technological advancement of the mid to late twentieth century made human spaceflight a reality the field has shown some resistance to cultural change over the same period Ideas about the body in space and the future of humanity are at the core of the development of human spaceflight This book examines how these have been constructed as specifically a male body and a heterosexual future These presumptive norms are not unusual but this book argues that the unique attributes of outer space can be productively used in advancing theories of culture beyond the extra terrestrial

Psychoanalysis and Ethics in Documentary Film Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2013-10-01 This distinctively interdisciplinary approach to the subject encompasses filmmaking psychoanalysis philosophy and popular culture and offers a unique insight into documentary film practice from a psychoanalytic perspective At the heart of the enquiry is belief that transference love is present in the documentary encounter With a focus on testimony driven film and a foreword by Michael Renov who calls this book a radical and compelling account Psychoanalysis and Ethics in Documentary Film covers a range of topics including Four fundamental concepts of psychoanalysis and documentary film A review of documentary film practice A personal account of the author s relationship with a subject of her own work A thorough interrogation of the ethics of documentary Ideal for film studies scholars psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged professionals as well as filmmakers culture studies students and anyone interested in the process of documentary making and contemporary culture this work offers a unique approach
