

The background of the image is a landscape featuring dark, silhouetted mountains in the foreground and middle ground. The sky is filled with dramatic, layered clouds, with a warm, orange and yellow glow from the sun low on the horizon, creating a strong contrast with the darker clouds and mountains.

Hard times create strong men.
Strong men create good times.
Good times create weak men.
And, weak men create hard times.

The old sharecropper's steps were getting slower by the day. His oversized head was full of gray curly hair and his thick black eyebrows I knew as a child were snow white but as eye catching as ever. I moved close to him to make sure he could hear me. Dad I asked Why didn't you move north and get away from the south? Why didn't you take us and move away from the cotton fields of Mississippi for a better life? He looked up at me, flushed, and he slowly began to tell his story. One day I came home and your mother had packed her things and left for Illinois with all of you. I should have seen it coming, she has asked me so many times to pack up and go north but I refused. I knew times were hard and jobs were scarce in the north because everybody was running there to get away from the cotton fields. She wrote me and begged me for weeks to come to Alton. Folks like us with little or no money didn't have a telephone back then so we had to write letters. I was farming with an old broke down tractor that would turn over. One day the landlord came to the field to threaten to curse and to blame me for the tractor turning over. Even though he knew the tractor was old and worn out he continued to blame me. Eventually I gave in and moved to Alton, Illinois to keep the family together and to get away from the abuse of that old man. I was in Alton for about five months or so with my wife and three girls at that time living with my brother and his family. I couldn't find a job for nothing in the world that paid enough money to support my family. It was the mid fifties and times were hard even in the North. That was when Eisenhower was President. I had to drop out of school when I was fifteen to work the fields. I only made it to the fifth grade. Besides farming the only work experience I had back then was working on a logging camp. I made twenty five to thirty five dollars a week on the logging camp minus a dollar and fifty cents a day room and board. I had to quit. I was away from my family six days a week. I only saw them on Sunday and my wife was really unhappy about that. Your mother and I argued a lot because money was so scarce when we were in Alton. I wanted our own place for my family. I didn't like staying with other folks even though it was my brother and his family. I have always been an independent man and took care of myself and my family. So after a few months of being in Alton I moved back to Mississippi by myself. It was in the spring and time to plant the crop. So I decided to move back and to give it another try. My landlord was glad to see me return even though he tried to hide his feelings. That happy kind of a look was all over his face. He refused to buy another tractor for me to work the farm. Trying to work the fields with a broke down tractor was hard. My wife was right. That old man she would often exclaim about the landlord. It's a wonder I didn't fall dead to the ground. Your mother refused to move back at first. She stayed in Alton for several more weeks. One day I looked up and my wife Essie Mae and my girls were walking in the house. She looked at me and said I have to keep the family together. Even though my wife returned on her own will she was still unhappy she continued to complain. One evening a truck came through picking up folks for revival. We got on that truck and went to church. Your mother got saved.

Hard Labor and Hard Time Vivien M.L. Miller, 2012-06-24

Hard Labor and Hard Time is a history of continuity and change in Florida's state prison system between 1910 and 1957 exploring conditions at the state prison farm at Raiford the third largest prison farm in the South at this time as well as in the chain gangs and road prisons.

Vivien Miller examines the experiences of the prisoners as well as the guards and other prison personnel in this comprehensive groundbreaking study. She demonstrates that despite progressive changes in the treatment of inmates, better diet, better structuring of work and leisure activities, better medical provision, and the like, these improvements were matched by continued brutality and mistreatment, unequal or discriminatory treatment according to race and/or gender, and neglect.

Hard Times Charles Dickens, 1854 The Light After the Tunnel: Discovering Your True Purpose In Hard Times
Assimagbe Albert Raphael, 2023-07-28

The Light After the Tunnel: Discovering Your True Purpose In Hard Times is a profound and illuminating exploration of the human experience in the face of pain, tribulation, and difficult circumstances. In this thought-provoking book, the author delves into the depths of these challenging moments, offering invaluable insights and perspectives that lead readers toward a profound understanding of God's unwavering love and the transformative power of trials. Through the metaphor of a tunnel—a symbol of the arduous journey through perceived barriers and obstacles—the author guides readers on a transformative path of self-discovery, resilience, and spiritual growth. This metaphor encompasses the myriad difficulties that God's children encounter in a fallen world governed by the grasp of darkness. The tunnel represents the test of faith, an essential stage in every believer's journey towards fulfilling their divine purpose and manifesting God's promises in their lives. The Light After the Tunnel emphasizes the importance of preparation, endurance, and spiritual maturity in fulfilling one's purpose and avoiding disappointment. Drawing parallels to the rigorous testing process undergone by manufacturers to ensure the durability and authenticity of their products, the author illustrates how God allows trials, hardships, and pain to shape and refine individuals, preparing them for the responsibilities and blessings tied to His promises. While traversing the tunnel is an uncomfortable and challenging experience, the author highlights its significance as a pivotal time for believers to prove their spiritual citizenship in the kingdom of God. By showcasing the experiences of biblical champions and heroes of faith, as well as great ministers of the gospel, the book establishes the tunnel as a rite of passage for those seeking to do extraordinary work in their calling, whether in their careers, businesses, or ministries. The message of The Light After the Tunnel resounds with the assurance that challenging situations are not an indication of failure or abandonment by God, but rather a testament to one's capability to overcome them. Readers are encouraged to trust in God's unwavering faithfulness and His perfect understanding of the precise manner in which His promises will be fulfilled. Through scriptural wisdom and profound insights, the book reminds us that God's ways transcend human comprehension and His thoughts surpass our own. In this inspiring and spiritually enriching book, readers will find solace, guidance, and encouragement to navigate life's storms with unwavering faith and hope. By embracing the tunnel experiences, readers will discover the transformative power within themselves, enabling them to emerge on the other side with newfound strength, character, and a deeper connection to God. The Light After the Tunnel is a beacon of light and wisdom, illuminating the path toward a brighter future filled with divine blessings and a deeper understanding of God's unconditional love. It is a must-read.

for those seeking resilience spiritual growth and the realization of their purpose amidst the challenges of life
