Reminiscences of a Sportsman Joel Parker Whitney, 1906 Horse Power and Magic George Ewart Evans, 2012-03-15 The pioneering oral historian George Ewart Evans began to record the farming ways of East Anglia in the 1950s by listening to old men and women whose memories went back more than fifty or sixty years Many were agricultural labourers born before the turn of the century who had worked on farms before the arrival of mechanisation It was assumed at that time that horses would soon disappear from the farms and that this was the last chance of recording the part they had played for centuries It later became clear that this forecast was too pessimistic and in Horse Power and Magic Faber 1979 Ewart Evans describes in fascinating detail some important farms where horses continued to be beneficially used more than thirty years later He discovered that the traditions of the older horsemen had not died out but had been passed on in only slightly attenuated form to a younger generation keen to farm with horses proving that the day of the heavy horse was by no means over He also describes vividly the ways of horse tamers whose skills had a touch of magic about them Taking his works a whole there is no doubt that George Ewart Evans will survive as a fascinating pioneer of the extra academic recording of human history he has found a dimension all his own This is indeed the very stuff of history Sunday Times The New Harry and Lucy Hale, 1892 House documents, 1884 Miscellaneous Documents United States. A Bowl of Cherries Jules Legal, 2020-04-17 A Bowl of Cherries is a vivid personal account of Canada's early twentieth century history spanning from the late 1800s when Jules Legal's grandparents built a homestead in the harsh scrublands of Southeastern Manitoba to the author's own upbringing during the Great Depression the war years and beyond Set against the backdrop of an industrializing modernizing nation Jules shares his family's story describing with striking detail and emotional resonance the challenges his parents face as they struggle to raise their family through times of economic upheaval The bulk of the anecdotes take place between 1937 and 1953 as Jules follows the ever winding often hazardous river of life From the suburbs of St Catharines to the backwaters of rural Manitoba Jules describes the joys of boyhood friendships and how easily best buddies can lead each other astray He is also exposed to the religious politics of the time when the segregation between Catholics and Protestants in the school system leads to dramatic conflicts Jules navigates his way through the challenges of puberty and ongoing relocations as his family moves yet again in order to stay afloat in a still struggling economy While Jules strives to make his mark wherever his parents take him he forever maintains his curiosity and enthusiasm for life Throughout it all Jules is constantly reminded by his family by himself and by the titular song that life is just a bowl of cherries an experience to be embraced not taken too seriously and most importantly to be enjoyed
